WORSHIP & MEDITATION

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his queen Constantia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband's infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Elizabeth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedicated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode between armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay member at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over, she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Afonso IV, from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever.

Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to 5 July since 4 July is Independence Day, a national holiday.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA TRAVELING STATUE

“Do not be dismayed. I will never forsake you. My Immaculate Heart shall be your refuge and the road that shall lead you to God.” ~ Our Lady of Fatima

- ◆ The Holy Catholic Church celebrated the 100th anniversary of the appearances of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Fatima, Portugal in 2017. She appeared six times to three young shepherd children there - Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta - and promised that the whole world would be at peace if her requests were heard and obeyed.
- ◆ When Pope John Paul II (now St. John Paul II) visited Fatima, he stated that “the message of Fatima is more relevant and more urgent” than when our Lady first appeared. He credited Our Lady of Fatima for his recovery from a serious bullet wound the previous year.
- ◆ St. Mary’s Traveling Statue of Our Lady of Fatima is now available. We have revived this beautiful devotion within our parish so that families may experience her presence in their own home. If you wish, invite other family members, friends and neighbors to join you.
- ◆ You can keep her for 2, 3 or even 4 weeks. We can arrange times that are suitable for you.
- ◆ Please contact Denise Ferrara at (440) 787-6252 for more information.

Basic Evangelization Training

Do you want to learn how to share your faith in a non-confrontational, joyous way? St. Paul Street Evangelization has mobilized thousands of Catholics to fully participate in the work of the New Evangelization through its workshops. That doesn't mean you have to become a street evangelist. The workshop focuses on basic methods for evangelization that anyone can use.

With that in mind, St. Peter Parish in North Ridgeville is hosting St. Paul Street Evangelization to lead their one-day Training workshop on Saturday, July 23, 2022, 9:30 am - 4:00 pm

with an optional evangelization opportunity to follow. This event is sponsored by the Lorain County and Vermilion St. Paul Street Evangelization Teams. The cost for the workshop is $25.00 per person and includes all training and materials. Lunch is not provided, you can bring your lunch with you, or there are other local restaurants available. For additional information and to register: stpaulse.com/Ridgeville.
