WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN DISCUSSING AS YOU HAVE WALKED ALONG?

Marcia Catalano sharing memories of the past 50 years here at Resurrection Parish.

Resurrection-Early Memories

In 1982 my late husband and I were searching for a parish to be a main stay for our family of four. Our oldest child was ready to begin formal religious education and we were looking for a welcoming active parish. We found this in Resurrection. From the church's semi-circular construction which brought the congregation closer together, the religious education classes (at which I volunteered for six years), to the numerous community outreaches which continue today, we were happy to call Resurrection "home." Through 3 wonderful pastors, the church has remained committed to its parishioners and its neighbors both near and far. And despite the pandemic, Resurrection has gone above and beyond in keeping us all connected to our faith. For this I am immensely grateful and proud to be a member of the Church of the Resurrection.

Happy, happy 50th!

Marcia Catalano

Death in the Parish

We mourn the death of Christine M. Balcer, wife of William and mother of Krystie, Billy and Jonathan. Christine's funeral mass was celebrated on Thursday, February 25 at 11:00AM.

We pray with the church that having loved the Lord here on earth she may now rejoice in the joys of heaven.

Letter from Julie Tragon

Dear Parishioners,

As we begin this second week of Lent, our Lenten Mini-Mission: Wounds To Wonder invites us to reflect on the crown of thorns. Have you ever picked up a bunch of roses only to be pricked by the tiny razor like thorns or tried to pick wild berries from a bush without getting pierced? I have and I know how sharp the pain is and that's only one or two little thorns just grazing my hand. It's difficult for me to imagine what it must've felt like for Jesus as the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and pressed it into his head. Did he see what they were doing? Did he know what was coming? Did he anticipate the pain and agony that he would endure next in this unfolding string of humiliation and suffering on his way to the cross? I can't help but recall the words from the eleventh station of Everyone's Way of The Cross: "and pain bursts like a bomb of fire in my brain." The physical pains that we endure in life can seem unbearable, but just as painful as the wounds we can see are the invisible wounds of mental and emotional anguish.

The crown of thorns was meant to be not only a tool of physical torture but of mental and emotional pain as well. The Gospel of Matthew recounts: "Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus inside the praetorium and gathered the whole cohort around him. They stripped off his clothes and threw a scarlet military cloak about him. Weaving a crown out of thorns, they placed it on his head, and a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" (Matthew 27:27-29) Surely, along with his physical pain, Jesus endured unimaginable mental and emotional suffering. Even in the garden he is found pleading with God to save him from what was yet to come. I'm not sure we often think about Jesus as being anxious, nervous or afraid and yet if we ascribe to the full humanity of Jesus than it is not such a stretch to imagine this to be so. The reality is that we ALL experience times of mental and emotional anguish. Some of us more than others and yet how often do we afford ourselves or others who are experiencing this kind of hidden suffering the same compassion, patience, understanding and care that we should to someone whose wounds are plain to see?

For me, reflecting on the crown of thorns is both a comfort and a challenge. As odd as it is to say that it's a comfort, it is, because it's a reminder that Jesus shares not only our physical suffering but our emotional and mental suffering as well. What a wonder that is! What a thought to ponder. Jesus knows the weight of my every burden, even the ones that no one can see. That brings me comfort in a world where we're always supposed to have it so together and mental and emotional suffering is largely ignored or dismissed as weakness or even worse as make believe. To know that Jesus surely bore the same invisible wounds, brings to light what is so often hidden in darkness and challenges me to respond to the invisible wounds that my sisters and brothers bear with the compassion and love of Jesus. Just as Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus carry the very visible and burdensome cross to Calvary so too am I called to help those I encounter in my ministry and in my daily living to carry the all too often invisible and burdensome weight of their mental and emotional wounds on this journey through life.

Lord Jesus, Help us move from Wounds to Wonder!

Peace,

PS: Look for the Monday Video in your email blast: Wounds to Wonder. Spend a little time reflecting on the crown of thorns. Think about the unseen wounds that you bear or the way you respond to the unseen woundedness of others and then join us on Wednesday at 12noon for a zoom conversation to share your own thoughts or personal reflections.

The Disciple Maker Index Survey is Now Open!

It's official! The Disciple Maker Index Survey is now open and we need your help!

Please help us by completing a 10-15 minute survey as soon as possible.

- To complete online, go to <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/dpxaxd860x>
- Paper copies are available in the Parish Office or by contacting Jackie Ketring at jketring@churchofresurrection.org. Please return completed paper surveys to the Parish Office no later than Sunday, March 21.

The survey will only be available Saturday, February 20 – Sunday, March 21 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. The Bishop has asked every parish in the diocese to participate in this survey, as it will help each of our parishes to better understand the ministry needs in our local area. This information will also be invaluable to Fr. Tom Dragga and our various ministries here at Resurrection as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Church of the Resurrection Loaves & Fishes Fund

Grant Applications Available Now

Request application in the parish office or email Lisa Frey at ebfrey@churchofresurrection.org for an electronic copy

Deadline to Apply: April 6

Church of the Resurrection donates $10,000 annually from the parish operating fund to worthy causes in Northeast Ohio through a grant process named Loaves & Fishes. The project occurs during Lent to remind us that we are part of a community greater than our parish and is part of our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Loaves & Fishes Fund recipients have a connection to the parish through our members – we ask you to recommend candidates for the fund and make the grant application available to them.

Monetary range of grants distributed depends on quality and number of applicants as well as need assessment – past recipients have included Seeds of Literacy ($500); A Prom to Remember ($1,000); and The Refugee Response ($2,000).

Labyrinth March 2

You are invited to walk the labyrinth at Church of the Resurrection, on Tuesday March 2 any time between 9:00 AM and 8:00 PM. The labyrinth is a form of walking meditation done individually, and it takes about an hour to walk. Handouts are available to explain the most asked questions.

The labyrinth housed at the Church of the Resurrection is a replica of the one built into the stone floor of Chartres Cathedral in France. Ours is painted on canvas, but it still evokes a sense of history. In the middle ages, visitors to Chartres and other cathedrals would walk the labyrinth designs built into the naves as the spiritual culmination of their long pilgrimages.

We hope you will invite your family, friends, and neighbors to experience this sacred path. It is a spiritual tool that has helped many people find the stillness they need to hear the voice of God in their lives. If you would like more information, please contact Lisa Frey at ebfrey@churchofresurrection.org or call 440-248-0980 x 24.

Special Thanks

To all those who donated to our college student outreach. Because of your generosity we were able to send Starbucks gift cards for Valentines Day, Lenten books for Ash Wednesday and we will send something out at Easter time.
