Notes from Father Tom...

HAPPY EASTER! I am overjoyed to say that and to be able to see many of you this year. Last year some of you could see me but all I saw was the back of an I-pad. Easter just isn't the same without people.

We celebrate this great mystery of our faith from Easter through Pentecost Sunday – 50 days. Last year it was Pentecost when we returned to the possibility of public worship. Actually, every Sunday is a celebration of Easter. That is why the Church says that we should all gather once a week to celebrate this great mystery.

During the Easter Season we will celebrate Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Bishop Malesic will celebrate Confirmation Monday of next week. First Holy Communion will be celebrated at two Masses, April 24 and May 1. These celebrations will not be at parish Masses because attendance at parish Masses has been very good lately and trending upwards.

Monday Night Live was a lot of fun to film. It may return at some point but after six weeks of filming it I think the whole staff has a new appreciation of what it takes to make a simple TV show. We should have talked with Sheldon and Leonard before we started this.

Once again, I wish you and your family a very Happy and Blessed Easter.

Father Tom

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story

“Is there a happy ending?”

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, “Is there a happy ending?”

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly — or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week — from the Passion and death of the Lord — it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear — it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.

Notes from Sister Noel ...

As we celebrate Easter, we are aware that it called for us to journey along with Jesus first through His passion and death. No life can escape those difficult, painful yet grace-filled moments.

I know that sitting among us at the Easter liturgies are those who have had this experience over the last months. It may have been caused by illness, job loss, death of a loved one, loneliness, etc.

In those moments those who identified their pain in connection with all who suffered this year, hopefully saw in it Christ's own experience being played out in them. Christ's cross, which we all bear in some way, leads to redemption.

This redemption was won for us in Jesus' passion, death and resurrection. It is no wonder that the Church buildings appear transformed from the stark look of lent. Have we been transformed even a little bit during our Lenten season? We are fortunate if we know it.

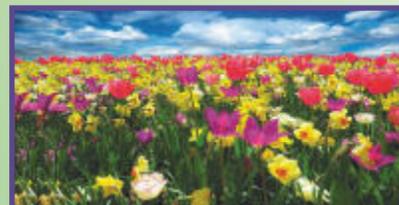

If we don't readily know, it may be that it has not yet been manifested. Know that the work of the Spirit goes on within us sometimes without our knowing. It calls for trust that we, too, are being transformed. Maybe we are just slow bloomers!

Not all the flowers of Spring appear above ground at the same time. They all have their time to bloom. Continue praying that our personal transformation is happening quietly within us. Continue relying on His sense of the “right time” for each of us.

God's way to transform our world is by transforming us. It calls for our openness to God in each day of our lives and in each experience, whatever it may be. God continues to send us holy ones with His message. Watch for them and become like them, bearers of the Good News.

Happy Easter, everyone!

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM SR. DENISE MARIE

It is said, “We Christians are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.” We have come to the season of Alleluia – the glorious season of Easter! Alleluia means “praise the Lord!” And on this day, more than any other, we praise God for what He has done for us!

When Jesus died on the cross, it looked like death had won. But three days later, God’s Son rose from the dead so that we too may rise on our last day and share eternal life forever with Him. Twenty centuries later, we “Easter people” come together to celebrate the triumphant feast of the victory of our God, who conquered sin and death for all of us.

Easter is the reason my mom, my dad, my sister Karen, and all our loved ones whom God has called home, are still alive and well and very much with us! I miss my parents and my sister a great deal, but I was blessed to witness each of them live their lives on earth preparing for their own resurrection, and I rejoice knowing they are celebrating their eternal Easter together with our Risen Lord and with all whom God has welcomed home to His Kingdom to join the family of the Communion of Saints.

From the moment we are born and baptized into the family of God, we are called to live each day of our lives on earth in preparation for a more glorious and eternal life in heaven that is to come. This is the message of Easter!

Signs of new life will surround us as our Church celebrates the next 50 days of Easter. Trees will start to bud, flowers will begin to bloom, days of sunlight will continue to lengthen, and birds will thrill us the “sound of music.” Last year, all of us celebrated Easter in our homes because of the pandemic, so I am excited and look forward to sharing my first Easter season with you.

Dear St. Anselm Family, I wish you the peace and joy of Jesus, our Risen Lord, and countless blessings all throughout these 50 days of Easter! You are remembered in my prayers at the Easter Masses.

Happy Easter! Alleluia!
Love, Sr. Denise Marie

Benedictine, Carmelites, Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans ... and this barely skims the surface of the religious orders. We've heard the names, but if someone asked you to explain who they are or what the difference is, could you answer? Well, we've asked Bishop Gries to help us unravel what the religious orders are and why there are no many different orders. Join us for this enlightening evening with Bishop Gries. We can't wait to see you there!

On Good Friday we remembered that Christ died for us. As parents we give our lives daily for our children. In the spirit of Jesus' sacrifice for us and forgiveness of sins, overlook one fault in your child today. (You can catch up later.)

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 4, 2021*Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.
