THE EPIPHANY of the Lord

"Since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." - Mt 2:6b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

From the Desk of Father Chris

“And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage.” (Mt. 9b-11a)

Happy New Year 2022! I pray that this New Year is filled with abundant blessings for all of us.

I had a pastor who used to give a “year in review” for the last bulletin of the year. It gave a nice highlight of some of the things we had experienced over the past year. I may have only been part of this parish family for three months, but it has been a blessed three months.

In the beginning of June of 2021, we had received word throughout the Diocese that after 26 years of faithful service to St. Anselm parish, Fr. Tom Sweany would be retiring after reaching the retirement age for priests (75 years old). This meant that the parish would soon be announced as needing a new pastor. In the morning of June 28th, I received a phone call from Fr. Dan Schlegel (the Vicar for Clergy) who was calling on behalf of the Bishop to ask if I would be willing to become the next Administrator (to be installed as Pastor) of St. Anselm. Overwhelmed with gratitude to God, I graciously accepted the appointment.

It wasn't until July 7th of 2021 (2 weeks later) that I was finally able to tell people. The first person I wanted to call was Fr. Sweany. We chatted for a little while on the phone so I could learn more about all of you and he could learn more about me. I would find out that it was that same evening at the 7PM Daily Mass that he would publicly announce to everyone here the name of the new Pastor.

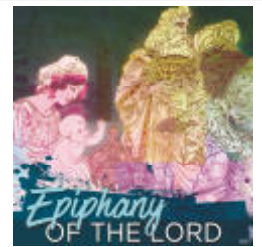

In the last two weekends of September, everyone got a chance to say their “farewell” to Fr. Sweany after the weekend liturgies. His retirement theme was very appropriately Cleveland Baseball themed. It reminded us all of how grateful we are to his faithful years of service. We continue to invite him to help out occasionally with reconciliation and Masses. In fact, he said the 4PM vigil Mass in Kelly Hall for Christmas.

I'm so grateful for these past three months together and I look forward to having the opportunity to continue to get to know all of you. I pray that the Lord gives us the grace in 2022 to continue to grow as a parish family. I look forward to celebrating our beautiful faith with all of you this year in many big ways. Know that all of you remain in my prayers daily. I'd ask that you continue to keep me in your prayers too.

God Bless You,

Fr. Chris

Notes from Sister Noel ...

What will the new year bring? It is all unknown. We live in mystery. What we do know is that God will be with us through it all. It is a good time to look back over the year and give thanks for its blessings. The blessings may have happened even alongside whatever was challenging us. So take your time to list the blessings that pop out so readily as wondrous moments but don't be afraid of listing the ones that were our dim moments, e.g. moments of sadness, grief, loneliness, anxiety etc.

You may need to look a little deeper to find the blessing, the new thing learned or the surprise of the Spirit that longed to transform us.

As we look to the year that has passed, be aware of what were the blessings for our family, our nation, our world? When the tough moments came, do they not also bring those who supported us?

It is amazing to recognize that life is not easy, but it is in it that we find the meaning of our lives. We may even recognize the Gospel story playing out in our lives. Jesus had his moments of joy, sorrow and glory. He shared in the experience of being human and showed us how to find the Father in all of those experiences.

Life, death and resurrection is hidden in all living things. Flowers wilt and fade and will bloom again. Trees let go of their leaves only to see buds reappear in the spring. During the winter months, like January and February, the appearance of growth is hidden, within the earth, in darkness, but growth is slowly happening.

Remember even in our darkest days, as people of faith, God is working within us, preparing us to rise anew. We may not see it right away but continue watching for that call to renewed life.

For those of us who have lost a loved one through death, we struggle for a time, for some, a long time, but do not give up. Remember life for our loved one has not ended but been changed. You will see them again transformed. May your grief be transformed into compassion thus nourishing life for others who may be experiencing pain or sorrow. Have a blessed new year!

Happenings in our School

I realize that it seems too soon to begin talking about the next school year, but believe it or not, registration for the 2022/2023 school year will begin on Monday, January 31st, just a few short weeks away. I would like to bring to your attention that in preparation for our registration process, we will be hosting an Open House on Sunday, January 30th. Our school will be open to welcome visitors and to offer tours from 10 am to 1 pm on that day. Classrooms will be open and teachers will be available for you to meet and talk to. We invite you to come and visit us and let us show you first-hand how amazing our school is. THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Alzheimer's Support Group for Caregivers

Join us on Saturday January 8th (via Zoom), for our monthly meeting for those caring for a loved one with Alzheimer's. We pray, share our joys and frustrations, and learn from each other.

We meet the second Saturday of each month from 9:30:-10:30 am. If you are interested, send an email to GaryBurling: garywburling@gmail.com and I will send you the Zoom link. Being a caregiver is a heavy burden to carry alone. Please consider joining us.

Confession

En route to church to make his first confession, my nervous seven-year-old grandson asked me what he could expect.

"Confession is where you tell all the bad things you've done to the priest," I told him. He looked relieved. "Good. I haven't done anything bad to the priest."

YOUNG OF HEART will meet on January 7 at 11:30 a.m. in the Hospitality Room. Bring your brown bag lunch. Snacks and beverage are provided. We will have musical entertainment by Joel Scigliano.

Remember that January is time to pay your dues of $20 for the year. Also remember, if the West Geauga Schools are closed because of weather, the meeting is cancelled. You will not be called. Check the morning news for school closings.

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Rite Of Christian Initiation of Adults

New Year's Journey with the RCIA

It is a New Year! As the year begins we are looking toward the next steps for the RCIA Candidate and Catechumen all leading to their baptism and profession of faith on Holy Saturday.

We look forward to all the ways that God's call is manifesting itself within, among and between us. Our journey is blessed by the many moments of grace we experience as we join the St. Anselm community for Mass, as we break open the word of Scriptures together each week, as we meet the community at coffee and doughnuts and especially as we learn about the statements of faith in the Catholic Church.

We pray in gratitude for all these blessings and we ask that our hearts continue to be open to desire you, O Holy One above all else. We ask that you would make us strong and courageous for the road ahead because we know that life is filled with many blessings and also many challenges. We ask that your light shine on the way we need to follow especially in these months leading to fullness of Catholic life in the St. Anselm community.

And so in this New Year of Grace 2022, keep us aware of how much we need you. We are ever grateful for this new life we embrace through Emmanuel, God with us.

Synod 2021-2023

Over the past several months, Catholics from around the world have been participating in the “Synod 2021-2023.” We at St. Anselm will be doing the same in January. Pope Francis has invited the entire Church to participate in a dialogue with one another and with the worldwide Catholic Church. Bishops from every diocese will bring this united Catholic voice throughout the world to their 2023 gathering in Rome.

What does this mean for you and for us as members of the St. Anselm parish community?

It means that you will have the opportunity to gather with others from our parish to pray together, to listen deeply to one another, to share your experiences as members of the Catholic Church, and to dream about the future of our Church and how God might be calling us at this time.

We hope you can join us for one of the following gatherings:

- January 8, 2:15 - 3:45pm;
- January 9, 10:00 - 11:30am or 12:00 to 1:30 pm;
- January 11, 6:00 - 7:30pm

Light refreshments will be served.

Spending time together listening to one another and sharing our experiences of Church will help identify ways we can move forward together as “Church.” If you are not able to join us, please pray for our gatherings with the prayer on the cover of this bulletin.

To register for one of the Synod sessions above, please email Sr. Denise Marie at srdenisemarie@aol.com or call the parish office at 440-729-9575 by Wednesday, January 5th.

Thank you for your prayers and participation.
