2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER
(DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him,
"Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." - Jn 20:28-29

WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

From the Desk of Father Chris ....

“My soul, have you found what you are looking for? You were looking for God, and you have discovered that He is the supreme being, and that you could not possibly imagine anything more perfect. You have discovered that this supreme being is life itself, light, wisdom, goodness, eternal blessedness and blessed eternity.” (St. Anselm of Canterbury)

This weekend we have a lot to celebrate. We celebrate the conclusion of the Octave of Easter (Easter is 8 days; the Easter Season is 50 days). We celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday wherein the risen Jesus appears to His disciples in the upper room and proclaims, “Peace be with you!” We also celebrate, as a parish community, our patronal Feast Day of St. Anselm.

I’m happy to announce that we’ve also hired a new business manager. Nicole DeBenedictis will begin at the parish office on May 2nd. Nicole and her husband are active parishioners at St. Anselm. In recent months you may have met her as she worked with Sr. Denise Marie on the Synodal process for the parish or behind the counter at Coffee and Donuts on Sundays. She brings great enthusiasm to our parish community and a great love for Jesus Christ. She’ll have an opportunity to learn under the tutelage of Kathy Popelka.

Speaking of blessings for our parish community, I ask that you please pray for our candidates for Confirmation who will be confirmed on Monday by Bishop Martin Amos. Sr. Noel has built a great Confirmation program guiding our students to their Confirmation day. May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit abide with them.

Peace Be With You,
Fr. Chris

Divine Mercy Sunday

Question:

Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young women, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, “a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come.”

Happy Easter to all! Just remember ... Easter is a season, right up to the time of the feast of the Ascension. That is a long time. Let the spirit of the Risen Christ imbue you with its many gifts.

This Monday the eighth graders of the parish will receive the sacrament of Confirmation. Their families join them in witnessing the Bishop anointing them with oil and speaking the words which makes them full members in the Church.

By taking a new name, it symbolizes a significant change in their faith journey. Just as at Baptism, the name given to them brings them into the Family of God, the Church. These young people have been prepared specifically for this sacrament. It calls them to take responsibility of their Call, just as their parents did for them at Baptism. Let us pray for them that their relationship with God will deepen. This is another reason to celebrate in this Easter season.

When you were confirmed the gifts of the Spirit were planted in you. How have you used the gifts to become your best self? Take a moment to thank God for each of them ... wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety and fear of the Lord (reverence). It is time to activate or reactivate them in your life. Don't know how to do it? Ask God to help you.

Think about which gift you need presently in your life. There you go, another reason to seek out God in your day. Just watch. Things will happen.

RCIA NEWS

“Dear brothers and sisters, on this most sacred night, in which our Lord Jesus Christ passed over from death to life, the Church calls upon her sons and daughters, scattered throughout the world, to come together and watch and pray.”

And here, in Chesterland we came together watching and praying, welcoming the six new members into this community of faith in the most solemn and joyful event of the Lord’s resurrection. The pictures tell a story of God touching each of us as we celebrate new life and faith together. Our gratitude is overflowing for all that God has done within each of us especially those entering our community of faith.

“If we keep this memorial of the Lord’s paschal solemnity in this way, listening to his word and celebrating his mysteries, then we shall have the sure hope of sharing his triumph over death and living with him in God.” (From the Easter Vigil.)

With gratitude for all who assisted in this most solemn event.
