WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

From the Desk of Father Chris

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.”(Jn. 14:27)

It's starting to feel a lot like summer! We continue to have the blessing of beautiful weather these past two weeks and this has made a lot of the flowering trees come into bloom. In addition to that, it's been wonderful to listen to the songs of the variety of different birds that we have here in Chesterland.

Speaking of summer, we're very proud of our students at St. Anselm School. This past week, our 3 & 4 year old preschoolers, kindergarteners, and 8th grade students have graduated. Our 1st through 7th grade students continues through this coming week. Strider will look at me with a smile and look towards the playground when he hears the students on the playground. Please keep all of our graduates, faculty, and students in prayer.

A few months back, I asked you all to “save the date” for the 1st Annual Parish Summer BBQ: Faith and Fire. The committee has been working hard to create a wonderful event to “bring the parish family together”. This past week, we started to send out raffle tickets for the event. The proceeds of the raffle will help us to continue to develop wonderful programming for our parish coming out of the pandemic. I mentioned at my 1st Mass here at the parish that a dream of mine would be to see cars in the parking lot at all hours of the day to show the vibrancy of our parish. As we've done at other summer events in the past, please consider purchasing or selling these raffle tickets for our big raffle drawing. I hope that you win on July 31st at the BBQ.

This weekend we're also very blessed to have Mr. Adam Cottos, our new school principal for 2022-2023 joining us for Donuts and Coffee after Mass. Come meet Mr. Cottos in Kelly Hall after the Notes from Sister Noel ...

My last two columns have featured the children, families and those who have been part of the sacrament preparation over the past year and years. I hope you enjoyed seeing the pictures as we do.

These moments celebrating the reception of Jesus in the Eucharist and the Holy Spirit in Confirmation are a special time for the child and the families and for us as parishioners.

Now is the time to continue receiving the Eucharist with the family of St. Anselm on Sundays, holy days, any day as well. This is supported by our time for private prayer, community prayer, service to others realizing we are the hands, the feet, and the heart of Jesus as we live our lives.

This growth is needed not only for our children but for us as adults. Are we taking time for Scripture reading and reflection? Are we seeking out spiritual reading books that help us integrate our faith and our daily commitments?

Many have subscriptions to "Give Us This Day" or "Magnificat". Both of these publications provide us with Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer in a shortened form of the Divine Office that priests and religious communities pray each day. This is the Church prayer being prayed at every hour throughout the world.

Both publications also provide Mass readings of the day as well as stories of the saints and holy ones who have lived in the distant or recent past. Their lives portray our Catholic heroes whose lives witnessed to Jesus in ordinary and extraordinary ways bringing the Gospel through words and actions to others.

Spiritual reading may include reflection on longer writings of the people of Scripture who once lived on this earth and lived the challenges of life with an awareness of God and His marvels. They looked for these marvels and for that reason became aware of them and changed by them. Some spiritual reading books may help us in healing, aging, deepening our understanding of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, holy parenting etc. Want to find a good book? Give me a call.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Junior High Youth Group Update

What an incredible Spring it has been! Our Junior High Youth Group, after many days and weeks of practices, presented their dramatization of the "Living Stations of the Cross" to our parish during Holy Week. Our 8th graders, as well as our 6th and 7th graders, were instrumental in kicking off a new Lenten tradition at Saint Anselm. Those involved took this opportunity to deepen the awareness of the love Christ has for each of them and all of us.

Just this past week, our 8th graders took the lead in our parish May Crowning. They guided our 2nd graders in a beautiful service to honor our Blessed Mother, Mary.

In addition to the May Crowning, the JHYG welcomed our PSR and Day School youth in a prayer service that welcomed our soon to be 6th graders to Youth Group and also celebrated our 8th graders for their leadership, as they prepare for the next chapter of their lives. The celebration continued with tons of smiles as they enjoyed an ice cream social with many of their favorite toppings! Enjoy these pictures from JHYG! Stay tuned for our next event this summer! Thanks for your ongoing support and prayers!

“Faith Seeks Understanding”Book Discussion Group*Beginning Thursday, June 16 at 9:15 a.m.

The summer session of St. Anselm’s “Faith Seeks Understanding” discussion group, open to all those interested, will have a first meeting on Thursday, June 16, 2022, at 9:15 A M (after the 8:30 morning Mass) in the Parish Office Building. A continental breakfast will be provided. We will read two books on the writings of the Polish philosophy professor, Karol Wojtyla, recognized for his innovative adaptation of phenomenology in the study of Catholic moral theology, who then became Pope John Paul II. The first book, On Wojtyla, “gives assessable insights” into Wojtyla’s creative writings. The second book, Memory and Identity, written as Pope John Paul II, expresses his views on “the contemporary political world.” There will be a $10 fee for these books which will be obtained for participants by St. Anselm’s. Please call Sr. Denise Marie (at 1-440-729-9575) or Dr. Macon Boczek (at 1-440-338-4727) to join these discussions or with any questions or further information you might want to know.

50th Anniversary of Marriage

Mass is Saturday, June 25th at 10:00am at St. John the Evangelist Cathedral. This Mass is celebrated for couples residing within the Diocese of Cleveland who celebrate 50 years of marriage during the 2022 calendar year (married in 1972). Due to capacity and construction limitations, couples are asked to only bring two guests or special support people. We will fulfill seating on a first come/first served basis. Registration closes on May 30. Call Chris in the Parish Office if interested.

Would you like to help out at an area food pantry?

Christ Presbyterian Church has hosted the local area food pantry for quite some time. They have asked for help from St. Anselm parishioners to volunteer some time at the food pantry on the following days:

Monday evenings from 6:30—8:00 p.m.,
 Wednesday afternoons from 1:00—2:30 p.m.
 Thursday mornings from 10:00—11:30 a.m.

We have a brief description in the Parish Office of the process volunteers follow at the food pantry. If this is something that pulls at your heartstrings please email Chris in the Parish Office at cmolle@stanselm.org or call 440-729-9575. Thank you.

Remember, you're not supposed to hide your light under a basket: If you are a grilling guru, showcase your BBQ talent at the parish summer picnic in the grill master competition. And if you are a cornhole king, recruit an equally gifted champ to display your dazzling ability in the cornhole tournament as partners. Registration forms for both events are on the countertop in the church vestibule/baptistry. The number of participants is limited, so sign up soon. No talent, however, is necessary to win some of the $10,000 prize money in the six raffle drawings. Just fill out your ticket stubs with your name, phone number, and email address. Simple! Make your donation of $5 per ticket or receive a bonus 6th ticket with a $25 donation. You are offered twenty-four tickets through the mail, but to increase your chances of winning, more tickets will be available after Masses. What a fun-filled day of comradery, activity, and entertainment July 31 will be!

Happenings in the School

On Wednesday, May 11th our newly confirmed 8th graders and our 2nd grade First Communicants participated in our May Crowning ceremony. Our entire school attended this beautiful tribute to our Blessed mother.

Pray the Rosary for Ukraine
