THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

From the Desk of Father Chris

“When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you set in place -- What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him?” (Ps. 8:4-5)

Over the past year, the parishes of the Diocese of Cleveland as well as the Diocese itself have been working together to find ways to help Catholic Schools thrive in our area. One of those discussions has transitioned into action with the creation of the “Angel Scholarship Fund”. Here is how those working on the project describe it:

“New Ohio Scholarship Tax-Credit Program Lets You “Turn Taxes into Tuition” by Directing Your Tax Dollars to our Catholic School Students

Through the Angel Scholarship Fund, you can now contribute funds that will be used to provide tuition assistance for students to attend our Catholic schools, for which you may receive a 100% Ohio income tax credit of up to $750 ($1,500 if married filing jointly) against your 2022 state tax liability. In other words, the state of Ohio allows you to ‘spend’ some of the state income taxes you must pay anyway to provide tuition assistance for students seeking an education in our Catholic schools. The Angel Scholarship Fund is a win-win-win for taxpayer donors, scholarship recipients, and our Catholic schools.”

I encourage you to go to our parish website www.stanselm.org or www.catholiccommunity.org/angel-scholarship-fund for more information on this wonderful opportunity to help Catholic Education at St. Anselm. We’ll have more information in the coming weeks and months.

As a Church we’ve entered back into Ordinary Time, a time of the Church year when we focus on our continued growth in holiness. Consider joining us for one of our daily Masses, adoration, or other opportunities for prayer each week. The calendar of prayer opportunities is always listed in the bulletin. On June 1st, we moved back into the Daily Mass Chapel. It has been wonderful to hear everyone’s voices in such great synchronicity. We have very wonderful singers in our parish. I feel so blessed to have the opportunity to lead you all in prayer.

In Christ, Fr. Chris

THANK YOU!

“Thank you” just seems so inadequate to try and convey what last weekend meant to me. I was overwhelmed by your kind words, the memories shared and the notes and letters. My heart was full and overflowing with gratitude and joy. I am blessed that 25 years ago God led me to an opportunity to be part of the parish office staff. I have loved everyday of my time of being part of St. Anselm Parish life. Thank you for letting me into your lives.

Over the past few weeks I have been reflecting on my impending retirement. I get misty eyed thinking about it. I can’t imagine not picking up the phone and saying “Good Morning St. Anselm Parish Office, Kathy speaking” and having the opportunity to connect with you; or being at the desk in the baptistery and waving and exchanging smiles. All of this has brought me such joy and happiness.

Over the course of these years you have all let me be a part of your life in many different ways. I have experienced the joys of taking calls for weddings, baptisms and new parishioner information and I have cried with you when the call has come in for funerals and grave illnesses. Each time this connection has had an impact on me. I have admired the strength and appreciated the gift that our faith gives to us. You have all brought love and laughter to me. My heart has been touched as we have had an opportunity to connect and talk. You have been a source of strength and support when I have had personal loss in my family.

As I begin this new journey into retirement, know that I will continue to cherish and give thanks to our God for the gift of friendship I have received here at St. Anselm.

Kathy Popelka

The heart, like the mind, has a memory. And in it are kept the most precious keepsakes.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Notes from Sister Noel ...

I was able to spend some time away a week ago at Pymatuning State Park on the Ohio side. It is a favorite spot to get rejuvenated, that is, after a good amount of rest time.

We are fortunate to have numerous parks in Ohio. Many parks fortunately for us are also nearby in Chesterland. I have been lucky over the years to live near different Park Reservations. The trees, wildflowers, and sounds of birds all add to a mighty fine place to slow down and take in the beauty.

The Amish families, who spent their vacation time at the park, added to the peacefulness and simplicity of life that many of us hunger for. The sounds heard were the pleasing sounds of nature. No sirens, large trucks, or blaring horns were heard.

It helped me to just listen at times, not only to the natural sounds, but also what was going on within me. I took time to think about the gifts of the past year, the people that continue to support and, at other times, challenge me.

I have been fortunate to work among some mighty fine people who are emotionally available to those who come to our parish office to pick up something or drop off something. I believe they often find a listening heart which draws them to come back again.

Jesus was like that. The crowds kept coming back to hear his words and be inspired by his actions which were to help not hurt. He also was available to those who came near in need of healing or an uplifting message to carry them through their day.

The Gospel can’t contain all the individual conversations Jesus had along the way, but from the stories we know, we can only imagine how much Jesus was sought each day, each hour or even each moment. When he got tired, he withdrew to pray and to rest. I think if Jesus was still here in his physical form I may have found him at Pymatuning State Park. Where do you think you would find him? Maybe you should take time to go there.
