PSALM 66

WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

From the Desk of Father Chris ....

“Jesus said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves.’” (Luke 10: 2-3)

I want to begin by thanking Fr. Sweany for covering Masses while I’m away from the parish. It is always good to see him and hear his words of wisdom. He’ll be the first one to tell you that he has certainly remained busy in his time as a retired priest.

Tomorrow we celebrate another birthday for the United States of America. It is a time for us to be grateful to be in a country where we can enjoy the freedoms that we have. Many have fought in wars domestically and abroad to ensure that we have these freedoms. We are eternally grateful for their sacrifices. In my time visiting the Diocese mission in El Salvador, I became quickly aware of just how blessed we are as a nation. Perhaps consider praying a rosary for the USA this week.

We’re in July which also means that it is officially Parish BBQ month! You’ve seen the advertisements and raffle tickets. I can say that we’re all excited for this wonderful event on July 31st. If you’re looking for a way to volunteer, make sure to read the updated ad in this week’s bulletin or call the parish office and someone from the committee will get ahold of you.

This week also begins Mr. Adam Cottos’s time as the principal of St. Anselm School. Please say a prayer for Mr. Cottos and retiring principal Ms. Pohly this week. We are grateful to both of them for their “yes” to St. Anselm School and Catholic Education.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

Sometimes when you see something positive and uplifting, you just want to share it with everybody. That's how the Vacation Bible School experience was! The message of Jesus and the children's energy reminded me of what Pope Francis continually speaks about, "the joy of the Gospel." That's what we experienced in our community of children, teens and adults.

Thank you to all the families who sent in food for our Collinwood Pantry nestled near our Collinwood railway system! The New York Central Railroad was the workplace of my fathers and brothers! Lots of good memories of both NYC Railroad and Rocky Railway!

.St. Anselm's Angela Circle has been busy learning about St. Angela, foundress of the Ursuline Sisters. We are also busy doing outreach to Geauga Job and Family Services. In the past year we have created beautiful travel pillows for the children to use as well as collecting books for them.

If you are interested in helping and/or learning about Angela Merici, call Sr. Mary Ellen at 216-407-1836.
