FROM OUR ADMINISTRATOR

IS IT (IM)POSSIBLE

The easiest answer to any request is “No.” It costs too much. It’s too difficult. There aren’t enough people. There’s not enough time. It doesn’t make sense. No one cares. We can all come up with a laundry list of why any request is unreasonable, but is it necessarily impossible? Even more so, is it absolutely unnecessary? We easily write off things because we don’t want to do them, even if we could or should. Sometimes a dream can become a reality if we just think hard enough or, better yet, if we trust and believe hard enough.

This weekend, the prophet Isaiah reminds the children of Israel that the Lord can actually do the unthinkable and even the impossible. God can take them out of exile and bring them home – a thing no one imagined could ever happen. The Lord can bring about a reversal of many concerns in our lives. He just asks that we keep our hearts open to Him in trust. A trust that’s always geared toward giving God the space and latitude to do what His will sees fit to accomplish in our lives. At the same time, He asks that we cooperate in bringing His will to fruition. It’s not that God is a part of our plan, but that we are a part of His. We need to dream big and work with God to see what happens. In fact, maybe even our dream is an inspiration from God to take action. We’ll never know unless we give it a try. How sad it would have been if the people in this weekend’s Gospel account thought it was a big waste of time to bring the man who was deaf and mute to Jesus. If they hadn’t asked for the favor, then Jesus may not have been in a position to bring healing. What a shame that would have been. As they say, it never hurts to ask, and maybe God is waiting for us to do just that. In God’s eyes, no one’s request is too big or too small for Him; no one’s request is more important than someone else’s. The Letter of James this weekend reminds us that the Lord cares for all of us equally because He loves all of us equally. As such, our dreams need to be not just for ourselves but for all of us.

Bishop Zúvik’s episcopal motto is “Nothing is Impossible with God”. As WE move forward through the process of merging, WE would do well to keep this motto in mind. Who am I to say – who are any of US to say – that the Bishop’s dream for OUR parishes isn’t actually the word of God on the Bishop’s lips? Could it be that the Lord has this great dream for US? If so, He’ll most definitely make it happen through US. What WE need to do is constantly test the waters in order to see if what WE think is what God thinks. If so, WE’re on the right track. With the help of so many throughout OUR parishes, WE have been able to dream big and make great strides in accomplishing God’s plan for US. Of course, the larger burden is on the Lord’s shoulders, and He continually comes through when I – or anyone else for that matter – think it can’t be done. It’s amazing how the voices from all across the Grouping have helped to project and clarify the future. Could those be the many voices of God Himself? You know, it IS possible!

God Bless The Cities of God!

PS. Part of the planning for the merger is to think big in hiring individuals who will serve all of our faithful in all of our parishes even before the merger occurs. Before the merger, they will work for all three parishes as one, and after the merger, they will then work for the one merged parish in the same capacity. As I hope you have seen in our bulletin and on our website, we have been posting for a variety of positions to care for our many expanded needs. With the help of members of Pastoral Council and Finance Council, we have created job descriptions, weeded through resumes, and interviewed potential candidates. I am happy to announce that, with God’s guidance, we have brought on board a first wave of new hires to keep us strong as a parish both for now and well into the future. May I present them to you:

PARISH NEWS

The Cities of God- "A Past to Remember, a Present to Celebrate and a Future Full of Promise."

- ◇ Dr. Thomas Brozich – He is our new Director of Faith Formation. It will be his responsibility to oversee and implement all formative programs in the faith from infancy through adulthood across our Grouping. This will house under one umbrella a number of activities previously managed by a variety of staff members. The first, and most noticeable, effort will be the start of our grade school and high school programs. Please watch your email and postal mail for information in the coming days.
- ◇ Alena Kucan – She is our new Director of Communications. She is a parishioner from Ellwood City. While we have over the years gotten out the word of the faith in a number of ways by a number of people, it will be Alena's role to use all of the modern means of communication to help in evangelizing all who are open to hearing and seeing the word. It is our hope that we will be able to make the face of Christ in our parish more visible to more who yearn for His word.
- ◇ Julie Strosnider – She is our new Business Manager. Her name, of course, is not unknown to most of us. Since the early days of the Grouping, she has served as the Business Manager for Holy Redeemer Parish, St. Gregory Parish, and St. Gregory School. With the retirement of Joe Burkot as Business Manager, Julie will take on the duties of Business Manager for all the workings in our entire Grouping. At the same time, we will need to do some staffing revisions to allow the volume of work to be coordinated and performed as we merge all of our operations into one.
