FIRST FRIDAY MASS

Mount Calvary Cemetery has monthly First Friday Masses at the Bishops' Chapel. Please join us for the celebration of Mass Friday June 3 at 5:30pm wherein we remember all of our beloved dead, especially those buried at Mount Calvary.

Regina Coeli

During the Easter season, this prayer is prayed in place of the Angelus.

Queen of heaven, rejoice, Alleluia.
For He whom you did merit to bear, Alleluia.
Has risen as He said, Alleluia.
Pray for us to God, Alleluia.
Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia
For the Lord has truly risen, Alleluia

Let us pray. O God, who by the Resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, brought joy to the world. Grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may attain the joy of eternal life. Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen

Rummage Sale Drop Off

Donation drop off for our annual Rummage Sale will be Sunday, May 29 — Thursday, June 2. Items may be brought to the Angelus Center between 4pm-7pm.

Thank you!

St. Michael CM/CW would like to thank all who donated items, worked or shopped at our Kids Clothes and Toy Sale. This was our most successful sale!! We made about $2,600. The proceeds will be used to help pay our portion of Jason Everett, SMPS and future CM/CW projects. Leftover items were donated to Florence Crittenton, Wells Springs, Youth Service Systems and a church in Martinsburg. Thanks again to our many volunteers especially the students who helped us!!!

THANK YOU

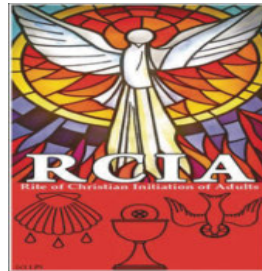

to all who attended our February 2022

Chillin' With Carlos!

In addition to a fun evening with Father Carlos and our Parish family and friends, we also raised funds to purchase a new commercial ice machine for the Angelus Center kitchen. The new machine is similar to a hotel style ice machine which has a dispenser rather than a bin.

The new style dispenser helps to keep the ice free from contaminants.

Thank you for your support!

GIVE SERVE LIVE
STEWARDSHIP COUNCIL

How can we help?

The St. Michael Parish Stewardship Council believes we are all called to connect more deeply with God, our Church and one another. Like many of our fellow parishioners, we give our time, talent and treasure, and we also provide avenues for others to do the same.

Do you see a need in our parish or in the larger community that we might help to meet? Please let us know. Our Stewardship Council has been involved with projects such as collecting toiletries and supplies for the House of Hagar and Catholic Charities, providing meals for the freeze shelter, e-cycling and shredding events, the annual prayer service for people who suffer from mental illness and our new Angel ministry that comforts bereaved people.

We are always interested in hearing about new ways we could help. If you have an idea for a project you'd like to see the parish undertake, you can reach out to any member of our council: Lou Volpe, Launa Post, Wendy Hinerman, Craig O'Leary, Larry Finneran, Sandy Pell or Janet Boyle, or you can leave a message with Diane Coughlan, our parish secretary, at 304-242-1560 or secretary@stmikesparish.org. Thank you for any ideas you care to share. We would also welcome your involvement.

Catholic Charities Neighborhood Center invites you to join us for our 26th Annual Spaghetti Dinner on June 12 from Noon-5pm – 125 18th Street Wheeling.

The cost of dinner tickets is $10.00. Children 5 and under are free. For questions, please contact Betty 304-232-7157 x6. We hope to see you there!

Dessert donations are needed for the Catholic Charities Neighborhood Center's upcoming Spaghetti Dinner, scheduled for June 12. Please contact Betty at the Neighborhood Center 304-232-7157 x6 to donate a dessert. Thank you for your support.

Synodality: God forming us as we journey together

by David Post and Louis Volpe

We began the synodality journey in November and continued through May. Over two-hundred St. Michael parishioners—young and old, teachers and students, women and men of all ages—came together to encounter each other and our church through ten different listening sessions. Our ultimate goal was to provide an opportunity for all of our parishioners to gather together to listen, discuss, and discern on how best to move forward on the path of becoming a more synodal church. We came together in hope, after the isolations influenced by the Covid epidemic, by the past disasters of our diocese, and by our own self-induced anxieties and divisions.

What were the outcomes of our gatherings? Did we produce anything significant? Are we going to do anything? Are those the right questions to ask? Or, better than trying to copy much of society where we strive to calculate and quantify immediate production and success, should we ask: how did our synodal way of proceeding “elevate our faith in God and in each other?” Did our meeting and greeting each other build up our trust in each other as a people and as a parish? Did we gain an increased sense that we are not simply individuals who believe and practice our religion but a delightful awareness that God is building us together as a people traveling in faith?

For our part, we think that behind Pope Francis’ prayerful intuition of introducing Catholics around the world to synodality was the hope for unity in a seemingly divided world—that our coming together, looking each other in the face, talking about our fears, hopes and dreams for our church and the Father’s created world would be a renewed trust and confidence that God is truly forming us as we journey together. Contrary to the present-day appearances that people exist solely for themselves and consequently experience an aggravating sense of loneliness, this very relational approach of coming together as “church” and being present to each other both physically and prayerfully would lessen the cynical aloneness we often experience and lead us to a greater compassion for others. Indeed, it would deepen our worship at the Eucharistic liturgy, and most of all, fill us with a profound sense that Christ’s words, “that all may be One,” are being realized in this time and place by our efforts to journey together in unity—in other words, becoming truly “catholic.”

We both enjoyed facilitating this first part of the synodal way. We delighted in seeing people come and dialogue with each other, seeking to express the ways that the Holy Spirit was speaking to them and receiving each other through dedicated listening. We offer a big “thank-you” to all those parishioners who participated and all those volunteers who helped with the Synod listening sessions. We know this is only the beginning of how the Father wants to form us; we are just beginning the synodal way. However, taking the time to see Christ Jesus in others has been life-affirming and forward-looking. Perhaps, after all, this was what Pope Francis had hoped we would discover: that by coming together, speaking to and hearing each other, and with the conviction that Christ is in us and for us, gradually discern our way forward in love and trust.

We hope that you, the parishioners of St. Michael Parish and our companions on the journey, will prayerfully read the six-page summary of the key ideas from our listening sessions that we presented to the Diocese of Wheeling/Charleston. Feel free to continue the dialogue and respond to us either by phone or e-mail. (And if you are really a glutton for punishment, get on the parish website and read the whole thirty-page report!)

For the present, with all the divisions caused by poverty, war, and denials of life, what more could we ask from each other and from the God of Love?

Sincerely,

David Post

This weekend (May 21 and 22) members of our Parish Finance Council will be speaking to you about the 2022 Catholic Sharing Appeal (CSA).

Earlier this month you should have received a letter from Father Carlos asking you to join him in making a gift to the CSA. All funds received from the 2022 CSA will be returned to our maintenance fund. Your generous response will help us maintain our beautiful buildings and campus. We must remain proactive with maintenance, vigilant with repairs and prepared for necessary replacements and renovations. It is important that we continue to be good stewards of the facilities entrusted to our care. Thank you!

Our inaugural luncheon was a grand success with an inspirational presentation and thought provoking witness by David and Launa Post. We thank them for sharing their witness and look forward to hearing Dr. Comerchi. Please join us!

St. Michael Parish Finance Council invites you to join them for a new initiative:

Faith & Business

This program will be a series of luncheons exploring ways to incorporate faith in our business lives. On a bimonthly basis, guests will be treated to lunch and a presentation by a guest speaker. The meeting will follow a one-hour format which allows time for lunch, presentation and casual discussion.
