FROM OUR ADMINISTRATOR

4 APRIL 18, 2021

A Plan or An Accident?

Every once in a while, something will happen in our lives outside of our control that just seems to be exactly what we needed, and all we can say is, "I couldn't have planned it better." Is it an accident? Is it a freak occurrence? Or is it something more? At other times, we can work really hard at something, and no matter how hard we try, it just doesn't come about. Is it an accident? Is it a freak occurrence? Or is it something more? When we look down the road to plan for the future, using all of our skills, talents, and abilities, are we willing to allow for something more? Are we willing to trust that God has a vision – a vision for us? God welcomes us into His plan. Are we ready to hand our plan over to Him?

In our passage this weekend from the Gospel of Luke, the Apostles in the Upper Room are doubly surprised on Easter Sunday evening. First, the two disciples who had encountered Jesus on the road to Emmaus recount to the Apostles how Jesus had appeared to them opening their hearts to the Scriptures and revealing Himself to them in the breaking of the bread. Then, Jesus Himself appears to all of those gathered and explains to them that all that had occurred to Him was a fulfillment of the Father's plan as laid out in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms. This was all God's plan from the very beginning, and His followers were always meant to be a part of it, even if they didn't fully understand or recognize it. They did what they could, but ultimately God was/is in charge of it all. Are we willing to allow God to be in charge of His plan?

God has a plan that involves all of US, but WE can't just sit back idly to wait for it to unfold. WE all are gifted with varied skillsets in order to be contributors, and so WE all need to do what WE can to participate. WE all believe and know that God has a plan for OUR parishes. Even now WE can see where this is going, even if WE may not be able yet to recognize the finer points. That means that WE have to act responsibly and faithfully to cooperate. Recently (4/7), I met with the staffs of all three parishes to begin carving out an organizational path that will allow US to best serve the needs of OUR one new parish. A lot of planning has been going on for months with professionals from our three existing parishes to set out a structure that WE trust will meet OUR needs and OUR means. With one new parish will come all new jobs that will globally serve all of OUR faithful. I am working locally and with the Diocese to craft new job descriptions and devise an interviewing and hiring process. With the creation of OUR new parish on 1/1/2022, I would like to have all of these positions in place by then, which will mean that even some of them will start sooner to enable a smooth transition. I will continue to keep OUR staff informed but also to keep you informed. All of this is both critical and difficult for many reasons, but this appears to be the direction in which the Lord is leading US, and so WE need to follow Him with hope. The remainder of this year (and beyond) will be very busy, very exciting, and very hope-filled for US all. May WE all be On Mission for The Church Alive! to cooperate and follow in faith where the Lord leads US.

God Bless The Cities of God!

GOSPEL MEDITATION & REFLECTION

6 APRIL 18, 2021

Gospel Meditation

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively, and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

Confession & First Communion

Question:

Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.

There will be no Confessions on the following Saturdays due to the celebration of The Sacrament of The Eucharist and The Rite of Confirmation, April 24, May 1, May 22 and May 29, 2021 at any of our grouping parishes.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Turn to God in the name of Jesus Christ so that you will be forgiven. When you hurt someone, say to God and to the person, "I made a mistake. I am very sorry. Will you forgive me?" After God forgives you, he will show you good things to do in his Son's name. Choosing ways to honor and serve God will lead you to heaven.

PRAYER

Father God, forgive me and show me ways to serve you in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

When someone hurts me I will forgive. I will ask God to forgive me if I hurt someone.
