WE Serve OUR Family

One of the more cute scenarios that I like to watch play out after Mass is the interaction of children in families. While I may be talking with the parents, out of the corner of my eye I can see the children in various roles. The littler ones start to wander off and get into things, and the older ones, either out of annoyance or true concern, go chasing after them and then report back to their parents about the trouble the littler ones seem to be getting into. It's a marvelous dynamic in families that teaches powerful lessons. The older children try to play out the protection learned from their parents, and the littler ones are taught boundaries while at the same time evoking those parenting skills from their older siblings. Everybody wins!

In the Gospel this weekend, the Apostles engage in one of the nasty aspects of family life – sibling rivalry. Like a wise parent, Jesus had noticed along the way that the Apostles had been arguing among themselves. He probably even knew precisely that they were arguing about who was better, but He waited until they got home to call them out on it. When Jesus questioned the Apostles, they were like children, hanging their heads in shame and remaining silent. Then Jesus, like a good parent, sat down, called the Apostles to gather round, and then talked to them from the heart. Jesus reminded the Apostles that they belonged together as a family and were like both older children and littler children. As littler children, they could be irresponsible at times but also looking for care and direction. As older children, they would be expected to follow Christ's model of compassion and mercy toward those most in need. What we hear from the Letter of James this weekend sums it up perfectly, "Where jealously and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace." (Jas 3:16-18) God's way of acting (aka righteousness) only comes about when we live as a family in peace.

WE are three children of one family. Sometimes WE take on the role of the older child and sometimes that of the littler one. WE offer strengths for the weaknesses of others, but WE also encourage others to be strong when WE willingly accept OUR weaknesses. OUR three communities have much to offer one another – not better or worse...just unique. The differences are OUR strength since WE empower each other to experience more and to share more. WE draw out from each other what is good while allowing and hoping it to be given as a gift. WE are only as strong as the weakest among US, but WE are only as weak as OUR failure to provide strength to each other. WE are sisters and brothers in Christ. WE grow as a family only as WE support and carry each other. WE offer each other countless possibilities because WE offer each other Christ. When WE receive each other, WE receive Christ and the Father Who sent Him. (Mk 9:37) Service, it's not what WE do; it's who WE are.

God Bless The Cities of God!

Women's Club

The members of St. Ferdinand's Women's Club are always hard at work. Although last year halted our usual meetings and activities, our St. Ferdinand's Women's Club managed to keep busy behind the scenes. This past spring, we arranged to collect donations for an organization called "Sleep in Heavenly Peace". This non-profit organization constructs beds by hand as well as provides all the bedding to go along with the beds for children that are sleeping on the floor. The women of our club successfully collected gift cards for building supplies as well as new bedding items. We had a variety of age/gender appropriate linens, comforters and accessories to give these children an opportunity to sleep in their own bed. The St. Ferdinand's Women's Club looks forward to once again, reach out in the community and provide opportunities for fellowship the third Thursday each month.
