FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

MISFITS?

Probably, one of the most difficult parts about being a priest is a feeling of being a misfit. Who am I that people stop me in a grocery store and ask me questions about faith or the Church? Who am I that people request that I pray for someone or bless some religious articles? Who am I that people invite me to walk with them and their family through death and dying? Who am I that people randomly urge me to hear their Confession? Who am I that people wait for me to offer their sacrifice at the altar and to change common bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ? I admit I'm not the smartest or the holiest, the most insightful or the most organized. However, for reasons beyond my understanding, God and His Church have asked me to do what I do the best I can do it. It's not about me. It's all about divine grace.

The story of our faith is filled with the proverbial misfits – just look at whom we hear about this weekend. Isaiah sees God Himself in the temple. Isaiah recognizes that he is “a man of unclean lips” (Is 6:5), but God sends an angel with a burning ember to touch Isaiah's lips and remove his wickedness. Then Isaiah is ready to accept the Lord's invitation and speak to the people on God's behalf. Isaiah went on to become perhaps the most influential prophet in the Old Testament. When Jesus tells Peter, an experienced fisherman, to cast his nets for an unlikely catch that turns into more than Peter's crew could handle, Peter begs Jesus, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” (Lk 5:8) Nonetheless, Jesus calms Peter's fears and commissions him to become a fisher of men. (Lk 5:8) Peter would become the spokesperson for the Twelve Apostles and the 1st leader of the Church. Paul reminds the Corinthians that he was the last to meet the Resurrected Jesus, well after the Twelve had witnessed Him. He honestly acknowledges that he is “the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because [he] persecuted the church of God”. (1Cor 15:9) However, look what he says next, “But by the grace of God I am what I am and his grace to me has not been ineffective.” (1Cor 15:10) Paul is known as the great letter writer of the New Testament and the establisher of many early Christian communities. Ancient Christian authors would refer to Paul as simply “the Apostle”. In all three instances, it's all about the grace of God, nothing else, pure and simple.

In the 1 ½+ years that I've been the Administrator of The Cities of God Parish Grouping, I've fielded the questions and concerns of many parishioners who have wondered how a merger of OUR three parishes will ever work. People cite the distances between OUR three communities and the different lifestyles that the three espouse. I'm reminded that that WE are in three different counties and that OUR children are educated in a multiple of school districts. To date, a number of OUR people have pointed out to me that they have never been inside all three of OUR churches or have even visited all three of OUR communities. Many people still struggle with referring to “our” (my parish) rather than “OUR” (my Grouping). Some might just say that WE don't belong, that WE're misfits. However, it's at times like this that I'm reminded of the Scripture verse that I had printed on a card for my ordination to the priesthood: “It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.” (Jn 15:16) These are words spoken by Jesus at the Last Supper to the greatest group of misfits ever known – the Twelve Apostles. Obviously, God has a plan, or WE wouldn't be here today as Church. Before WE receive the Lord in the Eucharist, WE proclaim, “Lord, I am not worthy”, and yet the Lord still comes to US and makes of US the one Body of Christ. As I said before, it's all about divine grace. It's all about making possible the seemingly impossible. God can and does make the supposed misfits belong.

God Bless The Cities of God!

PS. Please keep your eyes on your postal mail in the next couple of weeks for a letter you will be receiving from me containing two important announcements:

1. How to vote for the five names to be submitted to Bishop Zubik from the eight he has preapproved.
2. An invitation to attend one of the parish assemblies to be held at each of our parishes:
 - a. Saturday 2/26, 6:30 P.M. - St. Gregory Parish
 - b. Sunday, 2/27, 1:30 P.M. - St. Ferdinand Parish
 - c. Tuesday, 3/1, 6:30 P.M. - Holy Redeemer Parish

ADORATION

Please join us on the second and fourth Thursday of every month at St. Gregory Church to worship our Lord in the Eucharist. Holy Hour begins promptly at 6:30 pm, and Benediction will conclude by 7:30 pm. Come spend some time in silent fellowship with Jesus, really present in the Eucharist. All are welcome for all or any part of the Holy Hour. We look forward to seeing you, but more importantly, so does our Lord. We will next be gathering for this beautiful time of adoration and prayer on Thursday, February 10, 2022.
 CORPUS SANGUIS ANIMA et DIVINITAS

COME PRAY WITH US -- FROM HOME! LOOKING FOR A GREAT WAY TO KICK OFF YOUR DAY?

Is it often too tough to be up and about before that first cup-O-Joe? Well, bring your steeping hot mug and come join us from the comfort of your home - on ZOOM - for morning prayers, as we come together for the rosary, daily petitions, the daily Mass readings and a brief reflection. This regional on-line prayer group started to meet at the beginning of the COVID shut down back in March of 2020 with a group of faithful Catholics, including Deacon Jeff, in response to the need for a spiritual experience in those isolating days, but now continues to welcome participants from many neighboring North suburb parishes as well as friends and family members from all over the country. We start each morning promptly at 7:00 am, and finish by about 7:40 am. Feel like you might want to join but don't want to have to get all gussied up that early in the morning? No problem, leave your video feed off! - we won't mind. If you are interested in joining this group, or even just checking it out, email Deacon Jeff at Jeff@stferd.org and he will send you the zoom link.

SCRIPTURE STUDY WITH DEACON DON PEPE

Please join Deacon Don Pepe on Monday, March 7 at 7:00 pm. He will be leading us in a scripture study that will take us a little deeper into the Sunday Gospel. Given the recent COVID surge, if you are hesitant to attend Mass in-person, this is an excellent opportunity to discover the beauty of scripture and grow in your relationship with Christ as Deacon Don explains, discusses, and answers questions about the week's Gospel. All are welcome no matter where you are in your faith journey and regardless of your previous scripture study experience. To join Deacon Don for this Scripture Study, you must register by Wednesday, March 2 so you can receive a Zoom link. Catholic Schools Week 2022

As this year's "Catholic School's Week" comes to a close we want to first thank all the parishioners that support our school through donations and fundraising.

This was a week where students got to show their talents with interesting science experiments and their rock and mineral displays; there were STEM and building projects being assembled and some of the older students became "school reporters" conducting interviews of other students and staff. Our 4-year olds brought in a favorite book, dressed as one of the characters and talked about who they were. It was a great way to showcase our students and staff.

If you are thinking of having your child/children join St. Gregory School, give us a call and set up a tour. We would love to have you be part of the school family.

Our third graders made personalized Snow globes and decorated the school hallway with them.

Flat Stanley had a great vacation in New Mexico visiting Luke's Aunt Vicki and her dog Bruiser. Stanley enjoyed the downtown area of Las Cruces checking out the Farmers Market, and enjoying local musicians.

Since it was December, there were many beautiful Christmas decorations throughout the city.

During his stay they all went hiking to Organ Peaks National Monument where they explored the Organ Mountain Range, the Chihuahuan Desert and Hermit's Cave located at the base of the mountains. It was so different from Pennsylvania with the wildlife, granite crags and Ponderosa pine trees.

This has been a popular area for thousands of years. Stanley was frightened by the high winds and they had to hold him tight to keep him safe.

It was a new adventure for sure and one that Stanley highly recommends you try.

It was a HOT trip to Delray Beach, Florida when Stanley vacationed with Brooks' family. It was so hot that Stanley had to go buy summer clothes! He was not ready for this weather and got a bad sunburn and had to be careful in the ocean because of all the jellyfish. So, they ate lots of ice cream and drank smoothies to cool off. Stanley had his first fresh, local orange and it was YUMMY! One day they rode a golf cart to get delicious pizza and looked at all the amazing Christmas lights. Delray Beach has a famous 100-foot Christmas Tree that you can actually go inside! During a special ceremony, Santa comes by and lights the tree with a special candy cane.

This trip to the "Village by the Sea" was one Stanley will not forget and suggests to consider putting this on your "to do" list.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

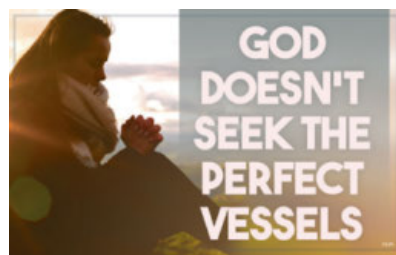

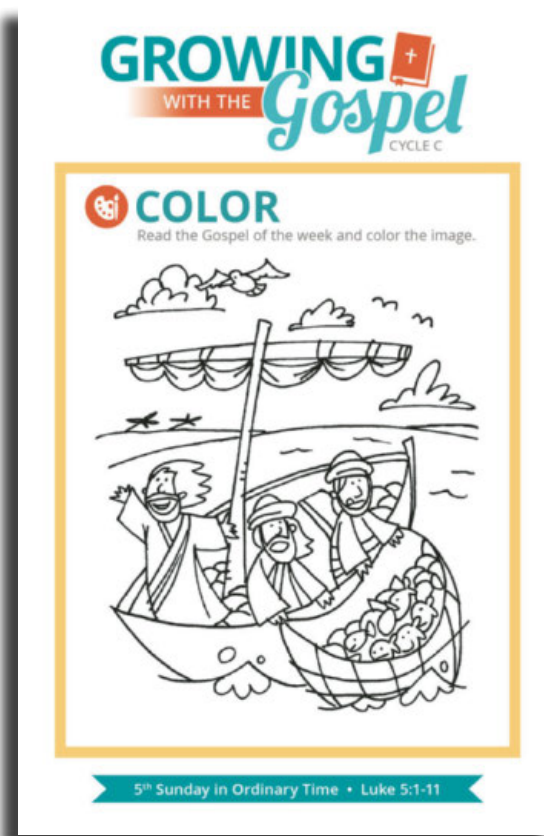

February 6, 2022 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man,” these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God’s Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It’s easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn’t require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God’s providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God’s presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn’t seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own “god” and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.
