Welcome Everyone

...to "The Cities of God" Catholic Community. OUR three parishes share a diversity of culture and faith experience all united in the one Body of Christ. The doors of OUR churches, as well as the doors of OUR hearts are open, inviting all to join in the journey to new life in Christ within OUR Catholic tradition. OUR hope is to assist one another toward a deeper encounter with the Lord through Word, Sacrament, and Community in faith, hope, and love.

FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

SECRET FAITH?

It's always an honor when someone tells us important or exciting news. Maybe it's acceptance at a school; maybe it's a baby on the way; maybe it's a career opportunity. We're thought of as worthy to hear the good news first. However, sometimes this news comes with a condition – we can't tell anyone. This great announcement is accompanied by a difficult challenge. How do we refrain from saying anything? How do we act as if nothing is going on? We're bursting at the seams with excitement, but then we're expected to act nonchalant. Do we really have to keep it a secret? Can we just tell family or friends in our inner circle? Sometimes, there are things that are just too hard, or even impossible, to keep quiet.

This weekend, we hear from St. John's Gospel how the Risen Lord questions St. Peter three times if he loves Jesus, to which Jesus commands Peter to feed the community of believers. This is to make up for Peter's denying the Lord three times and being silent about what he knows to be true to those in the courtyard gathered around the fire on Holy Thursday night after Jesus' arrest. Now, Peter promises to the Lord that he'll never do that again. In fact, from the Acts of the Apostles, we see Peter and the other Apostles being cross-examined by the Sanhedrin for disobeying their order to be silent about Jesus. In reply, the Apostles respond, "We must obey God rather than men." (Acts 5:29) God has given this Good News, and it needs to be shared. Despite the order of the Sanhedrin to keep this quiet, the Apostles can't contain themselves and are happy not to. In all honesty, it goes even beyond that. Through the Book of Revelation, we are told that "every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe" proclaims the glory of the Risen Lord. (Rev 5:13) This Good News is great news! The whole created order is meant to be bursting with the joy of faith. How can any of us be quiet about that?

I was recently invited by Bishop Zubik's office to meet with him on 25 May to receive the official decree of our merger, which will include our new parish name. I will not be permitted to give any of the details prior to announcing it on the weekend (Memorial Day Weekend). Those will probably be some of the hardest days of my life. (Please don't try to make me break the silence!!) However, while the new name is exciting, the reality of who WE will become is even greater and should be talked about and shared even now. This isn't about moving pieces around on a chessboard or creating new structures. Instead, the Risen Lord is calling all of US to a newness of life in OUR faith. He wants to take what has been and transform it into what can be and will be. WE are being given an opportunity to grow in the faith and to enlarge the scope of what it means for all of US to be family. It's always a joy to me when parishioners speak of the possibilities of meeting and interacting with these new friends. This is what the Resurrection is all about. It's new life offered and accepted. It's the Holy Spirit showing US that OUR faith can never be stale or grow old. This is wonderful! This is exciting! This is OUR faith, and WE can't be silent about it!

God Bless The Cities of God!

May: The Month of Mary

During the month of May the month of Mary, we are going to be thinking about Mary and her love for all of us and her love for God. She was so unapologetic in Her Yes to God and we remind ourselves of this Yes that she so willingly said and knew that Gods plan for her was steadfast and true.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS GIFTS IN DISGUISE

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking?

I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that — the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them — they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become. Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy.

ST. ROSE VENERINI | MAY 7

The story of St. Rose of Venerini (February 9, 1656 – May 7, 1728) is one of having faith in God and his calling in your life. Born in Italy in 1656, she was the daughter of a doctor. Following the death of her fiancé, she entered a convent in the hopes of becoming a nun, but soon returned home to care for her mother after the death of her father. In an effort to keep up her spiritual side, St. Rose invited women of the neighborhood to recite the rosary in her home, and together they formed a sodality.

Unsure of where her life was headed, she sought the spiritual guidance of a Jesuit priest. After much contemplation, she admitted to feeling called to be a teacher in the world, rather than a nun in a convent. Eventually, she moved ahead and opened a free school for girls in 1685. Eventually, she was invited to oversee the training of teachers and the administration of schools in the Diocese of Montefiascone, which then led to being called upon to organize schools in many parts of Italy, including Rome.

St. Rose died in Rome in 1728 amid a number of miracles that many credit to her. The group of women she first prayed with in her home eventually became known as the Venerini Sisters, found in the United States and working among Italian immigrants. St. Rose was beatified in 1952 and canonized in 2006.

 GOSPEL

When the apostles ran out of food, they went fishing. They fished all night long, but they didn't catch anything. In the early hours of the morning, they saw Jesus standing on shore. He told them to put their nets down in the water on the right side of their boat. They caught so many fish that their net was filled to the top. They were very glad they had listened to Jesus.
