Dear brothers and sisters,

Every weekend we meet to share the bread of the word of God that nourishes us and gives us life; Every weekend is a reunion with the teacher who instructs us and makes us reflect on our desire for holiness and precisely today Jesus reminds us that "that men ought always to pray, and not to faint" (Lk 18:1).

Today, Jesus shows us the king (the Father), inviting—through his "servants" (the prophets)—to the banquet of his Son's alliance with humanity (salvation). First he did it with Israel, "but they did not want to come" (Mt 22:3). Faced with the refusal, the Father does not stop insisting: «Look, my banquet is prepared, (...) and everything is ready; Come to the wedding" (Mt 22:4). But this snub, ridicule and death of the servants, provokes the sending of troops, the death of those murderers and the burning of "their" city (cf. Mt 22:6-7): Jerusalem. So, other "servants" (the apostles) were sent to go through "the crossroads" (Mt 22:9): "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them..." the Lord Jesus will say later in Mt 28:19 - and so we, the rest of humanity, were invited, that is, "everyone they found, bad and good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests" (Mt 22,10): the Church. Now to enter this wedding a festive dress is required, this dress is, according to Saint Jerome, "the precepts of the Lord and the works accomplished according to the Law and the Gospel, which are the garments of the new man." That is, the works of charity with which faith must be accompanied.

Next weekend we will celebrate throughout the church World Mission Sunday is an annual global celebration within the Catholic Church, observed on the penultimate Sunday in October. This special day is dedicated to supporting the missionary work of the Church through prayer and sacrifice. This celebration was established by Pope Pius XI in 1926, and is an opportunity for every ecclesial community in the world to express solidarity with our brothers and sisters living in missionary territories. The collection supports mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe. This year the theme of the day is "Hearts on fire, feet on the march" (Luke 24, 13). Pope Francis invites us to light our hearts with faith and to put our faith into action, serving the mission of God with joy, enthusiasm and tireless dedication. I hope that from the little we have we will collaborate and pray for the missionaries and the countries that are still on mission.

This week I sent an email to all the leaders of the ministries and apostolate groups of our parish asking them for financial help to purchase a nativity scene. As a parish we do not have decent and beautiful images that represent the nativity scene at Christmas. For two years now I have been thinking about do it and today I have taken the initiative to do it, I think that if we all join together we can acquire it, it is something that will remain for the future, the price of all the images is a little more than seven thousand dollars and we can all help, it does not matter if We are part of a ministry or not. Any donation is welcome. I thank you in advance for your generosity.

I hope you have a blessed week, I entrust myself to your prayers and you are always in mine. Wishing a happy week to everybody.

Fr. Alex

Commentary by Fr. Paul Berghout

The marriage feast in the parable is the Supper of the Lamb or heaven as mentioned in Revelation 19.

The Lamb's Supper is also the Mass as Heaven on Earth, as St. Pope John Paul II taught, "What we celebrate on Earth is a mysterious participation in the heavenly liturgy."

The king represents God and the king's son represents Jesus.

The king's servants inviting guests are the prophets, the wedding hall is the church, and the first round of guests invited were of higher social standing and represent the Scribes and Pharisees and leaders of Israel.

The second group invited are the Gentiles invited to be part of the church.

The troops who destroyed those murderers, and burned their city is a prophetic reference to the events of 70 AD when the Roman army destroyed Jerusalem, as many scholars assert.

The man who was improperly dressed represents dying and appearing unprepared for immediate judgment without prior repentance from sin.

The binding of his hands and feet, and casting him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth represents eternal damnation in hell.

The Now of Salvation is expressed in the parable. The whole future of each person depends on his taking seriously this 'now.'

One should be ready for God's sudden call, that is, one should be always ready for one's death and the divine judgment that follows it. Human beings position themselves for their eternal destinies by their free choice.

A non-decision is a negative refusal.¹

The purpose of the parable is to give each listener an opportunity to project themselves into the story so we accept the offer of salvation by grace, through faith and baptism and staying in the state of grace.

Around the banquet table of God there will only be sinners for whom Christ died. Everyone is invited. Christ died for all, but the parable also teaches us that a person can reject the offer of salvation. Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, putting their everyday concerns before prayer. The Mass and sacraments to them are totally valueless.

A Catholic evangelist summed up some reasons for becoming inactive: Spiritual, not religious; sees the self on a private, not communal, quest for personal meaning; came into conflict with Catholic teaching and one's lifestyle, misled by people who attack the Church; married outside the Church; hurt by those in the Church; never returned to Church after the pandemic because got so busy.

The evangelist advised, ask inactive Catholics what their reason is. Just listen. After they answer, give your own reasons why you practice your Catholic faith. The Church grows by attraction. The Latin American bishops stated, "We cannot wait passively and calmly in our church buildings, we need to move from a pastoral ministry of mere conservation to a decidedly missionary pastoral ministry."²

There is an inner wedding where Jesus is Lord and the banquet is heaven. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, "this perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity — this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed — is called 'heaven'. Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfilment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness" (n. 1024).

At a baptism, the priest or deacon says, "N. you have become a new creation, and have clothed yourself in Christ. See in this white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity. With your family and friends to help you by word and example, bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven."

Queen of Apostles School News

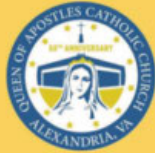

We are falling into October. The first week of October was absolutely beautiful and what a way to end it by having our 3rd Annual PTO Fall Festival. All parent driven and supported, we had bounce houses, food, music, and an overall sense of community. It was wonderful.

We had our silent auction for the year with only five items as our biggest fundraiser this year will be our first ever FUN RUN! If you are interested in sponsoring our run or sponsoring some aspect of our run, we are hoping to make over $16,000 that will go towards our school's needs. Feel free to contact our Parent Teacher Organization (pto@queenofapostlesschool.org) if you would like your company's logo on at our event on October 30.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Cada fin de semana nos encontramos para compartir el pan de la palabra de Dios que nos nutre y que nos da vida; cada fin de semana es un reencuentro con el maestro que nos instruye y nos hacer reflexionar en nuestro deseo de santidad y precisamente hoy Jesús nos recuerda que “es preciso orar siempre sin desfallecer” (Lc 18,1).

Hoy, Jesús nos muestra al rey (el Padre), invitando — por medio de sus “siervos” (los profetas)— al banquete de la alianza de su Hijo con la humanidad (la salvación). Primero lo hizo con Israel, «pero no quisieron venir» (Mt 22,3). Ante la negativa, el Padre no deja de insistir: «Miren mi banquete está preparado, (...) y todo está a punto; venid a la boda» (Mt 22,4). Pero ese desaire, de escarnio y muerte de los siervos, suscita el envío de tropas, la muerte de aquellos homicidas y la quema de “su” ciudad (cf. Mt 22,6-7): Jerusalén. Así es que, otros “siervos” (los apóstoles) —fueron enviados a ir por «los cruces de los caminos» (Mt 22,9): «Id, pues, y haced discípulos a todas las gentes bautizándolas...», dirá más tarde el Señor Jesús en Mt 28,19— y así fuimos invitados nosotros, el resto de la humanidad, es decir, «todos los que encontraron, malos y buenos, y la sala de bodas se llenó de comensales» (Mt 22,10): la Iglesia. Ahora bien para entrar a esta boda se requiere traje de fiesta, este traje son según San Jerónimo “son los preceptos del Señor y las obras cumplidas según la Ley y el Evangelio que son las vestiduras del hombre nuevo». Es decir, las obras de la caridad con las que se debe acompañar a la fe.

El próximo fin de semana celebraremos en toda la iglesia el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones es una celebración global anual dentro de la Iglesia Católica, observada el penúltimo domingo de octubre. Este día especial está dedicado al apoyo del trabajo misionero de la Iglesia a través de la oración y los sacrificios. Esta celebración fue establecida por el Papa Pío XI en 1926, y es una oportunidad para que cada comunidad eclesial en el mundo exprese solidaridad con nuestros hermanos y hermanas que viven en territorios misioneros. La colecta apoya las diócesis misioneras en Asia, África, las Islas del Pacífico y partes de América

Latina y Europa. Este año el tema de la jornada es “Corazones encendidos, pies en marcha” (Lc.24, 13) El Papa Francisco nos invita a encender nuestros corazones con fe y a poner nuestra fe en acción, sirviendo a la misión de Dios con alegría, entusiasmo e incansable dedicación. Espero que desde lo poco que tengamos colaboremos y oremos por los misioneros y los países que aún están en misión.

Esta semana envié un email a todos los líderes de los ministerios y grupos de apostolado de nuestra parroquia pidiéndoles ayuda financiera para comprar un nacimiento, como parroquia no tenemos unas imágenes decentes y bonitas que representen el nacimiento en navidad, desde hace dos años vengo pensando en hacerlo y hoy he tomado la iniciativa de hacerlo, creo que si nos unimos todos podemos adquirirlo, es algo que quedara para el futuro, el precio de todas las imágenes es de un poco mas de siete mil dólares y todos podemos ayudar, no importa si somos parte de un ministerio o no. Cualquier donación es bienvenida. Desde ya les agradezco su generosidad.

Espero que tengan una semana bendecida, me encomiendo a sus oraciones y ustedes están siempre en las mias.

Feliz semana para todos.

P. Alex
