Questions of the Week
November 28, 2021

Be on guard!

Question for Children: What helps you to grow in your faith? Who helps you?

Question for Youth: Advent is the Church season when we prepare for Christ's birth at Christmas. What is one thing you can do to prepare yourself spiritually for Christmas?

Question for Adults: Paul exhorts us to "make greater progress" in our spiritual lives. What one step could you take to make greater progress in your own life?

Pastor's Corner

Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday. It is celebrated on this Thursday only in the U.S. That means it is a "civil" holiday that is truly religious. If I am thankful, I am thankful to SOMEONE. Certainly I am thankful to family and friends, to those who have served our country in one way or another, and the list goes on. But to be thankful for the gift of life, it is not enough to give thanks to all those dear people. There are things that can only come from God. "An attitude of gratitude" is a sure sign of holiness. When I live with an awareness that all I have and all that I am is from God, I cannot help but be grateful.

In the Preface of most Eucharistic Prayers we say that we give thanks "always and everywhere." As a matter of fact, the word "Eucharist" means to remember and give thanks. Christians, more than health or wealth, we give thanks for salvation. That's how the sacrificial nature of the Mass fits in. Our remembrance of His death and resurrection is a special remembrance; one that also renews the sacrifice of Calvary. It is through His death and resurrection that we have the promise of eternal life. His glorified body and blood we receive are the fruit of that specific renewal of the Sacrifice. It all fits together for a Eucharistic People.

Fr. Mike

De todos los feriados en este país, el "Día de acción de gracias" en mi favorito. Se celebra este jueves solamente en los EE.UU. Significa que es feriado "civil" que es verdaderamente "religioso." Si estoy agradecido, estoy agradecido a ALGUIEN. Por supuesto estoy agradecido a familia y amigos, a los que han servido nuestro país en un u otra manera, y la lista sigue. Pero estar agradecido por el regalo de la vida, no basta agradecer a esta gente querida. Hay cosas que vienen solamente de Dios. "Una actitud de gratitud" es un signo seguro de la santidad. Cuando vivo con la conciencia de que todo lo que tengo y todo lo que soy viene de Dios, no puedo hacer nada sin estar agradecido.

En el prefacio de muchas de la Plegarias Eucarísticas decimos que damos gracias "siempre y en todo lugar." De hecho, la palabra "Eucaristía" quiere decir recordar y dar gracias. Los cristianos, más que por la salud o la riqueza, damos gracias por la salvación. Así es que la naturaleza sacrificial de la Misa. Nuestra conmemoración de su muerte y resurrección es una conmemoración especial una que también renueva el sacrificio de Calvario. Es por su muerte y resurrección que tenemos la promesa de la vida eterna. Su cuerpo y sangre glorificados que recibimos son fruto de la renovación específica del sacrificio. Todo se una por un Pueblo Eucarístico.

P. Mike

A Synod on Synodality?

Sounds strange, doesn't it? Yet this is what the Holy Father has called. In its simplest form, synodality represents a collaborative approach by all the people of God to address a particular issue for which the Holy Father seeks input. For this synod, he wants to hear from everyone on how the whole Church (not only the bishops and priests) can journey together in bringing the gospel message to the world. To address this "synodal" approach, he has called for all dioceses in the world to hold local consultative meetings to discuss this topic. Currently, our archdiocese is targeting Jan and Feb of 2022 for these meetings. Please prayerfully consider participating in your local deanery meeting. That opportunity will soon be available on our archdiocesan website

ACES November Outing

ACES November outing was 11/13/21. Twenty-six members of ACES and friends met for dinner at The Swire Inn, in Middletown. The food was good and everyone getting together socially was very nice. After dinner, we all went across the street to the Sorg Opera House and met three additional members of ACES who couldn't make dinner, and all twenty-nine (29) of us went in to see The Belairs. The music was from the 50's and 60's and all of us thought it was excellent. At intermission, I went backstage to let the Belairs know that we had 29 members in attendance, which turned out to be a good idea. All the Belair members came over and asked me to tell everyone "thanks for coming". They also asked a stage crew member to take a photo of us (see attached), and acknowledged our group between songs in the second half.

If you haven't been to a meeting in a while or are interested in joining ACES please contact Chris or Rosemary Gebhart at cwgebhart@gmail.com.

With this in mind, know that wherever you live in our parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell and our St. Vincent de Paul Society are there to help them. .

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box will help the poor celebrate the grace of God's love this Christmas.

Thank you for your generous support last week for the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development!

If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click "How to Give" under "Resources."
