THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

After meeting Jesus, the Magi returned home by “another way.” What in your family needs to be done “another way?” Do you need “another way to resolve differences, to communicate or show affection? This is a new year, time to change what isn’t working. Take a tip from some wise men, there’s always “another way.”

WELCOME HOME

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we continue the celebration of Christmas with the Epiphany of the Lord this weekend, we are also celebrating the arrival of the New Year 2022. Would like to wish You a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, even as we are past the dates on the calendar. While it has been a better Christmas than we experienced last year because of the Covid-19 pandemic, we are still feeling its affects. May your family celebrations have been a little more festive this year.

I would like to thank everyone for your generosity to the parish as well as your kindness to the staff and myself. The cards, gifts, cookies, and other goodies are greatly appreciated and they help remind us of God's goodness to us. Also a big thank you to everyone who helped decorate the church, work on the parish giving tree and the Christmas Raffle, all those things that make the Christmas season brighter for our community.

As we celebrate the promises of the New Year, may we all pray for healing from all the effects of the pandemic. We are not out of the woods yet, but there are signs that things can get better as we move through this new year. May the promise of better things ahead be in our thoughts, prayers and actions. May the blessings of the New Year be with each and every one of you.

May our Lord protect you and inspire you in the New Year. Merry Christmas! Buon Natale! Feliz Navidad! Vesele vianoce! Wesolych Swiat Bozego Narodzenia!

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Tom Kraszewski and the St.
Anthony/ All Saints Pastoral Staff

Worship Aid for Jan. 1—2

Things to note during restrictions due to Covid:

- Per the Diocese of Youngstown, reception of the Precious Blood from the Chalice is suspended.
- Holy Communion will be received by hand, not by mouth. Please wait for the usher to release you from the pew, maintain 6 feet of space and wear your mask until you reach the altar. At that time pull your mask down, hold out your hands, receive the Host and replace your mask.
- Please take this bulletin with you! Do not leave it in the pews.
Thank you!

Prayers will be available in the pews this weekend.

Opening Hymn:

We Three Kings

Verse:

We three kings of Orient are;
bearing gifts we traverse afar
field and fountain, moor and mountain,
following yonder star.
(Refrain)

Refrain:

O star of wonder, star of night,
star with royal beauty bright;
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light. (Verses)

Verses:

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain,
Gold I bring to crown him again,
King forever, ceasing never over us all to reign. (Refrain)

Frankincense to offer have I:
Incense owns a Deity nigh;
prayer and praising gladly raising,
worship him, God on high.
(Refrain)

First Reading

Isaiah 60:1-6 (20ABC)

A reading from the First Book of the prophet Isaiah Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!

Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the Lord shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:

Ps. 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13

Lord, ev'ry nation on earth will adore you, and all peoples walk by your light.

Second Reading

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made know to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the spirit; that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.

LITURGICAL SUNDAY

Gospel

Matthew 2:1–12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Profession of Faith

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Presentation of the Gifts:

O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by; yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light: The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary, and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond'ring love. O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth! And praises sing to God the King, and peace to all on earth.

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is giv'n! So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n. No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

Communion Hymn:

Christ Our Light Has Come

Verse:

Still, come be still; let us hear the prophets calling. Still, come be still; let us hear the angels sing. For true light has arrived to illumine our lives so often beset by the darkness. We find who we are in the light of the star on the way to our journey's end. (Refrain)

Refrain:

Cast aside all your fear and dread, come follow the light to Bethlehem. The way of salvation revealed to all: Christ our light has come, Christ our light has come. (Verses)

Verses:

Peace, there is peace; for new hope today is dawning. Peace, there is peace; come behold the face of God. In a promise fulfilled now his love is revealed; all heaven and earth are rejoicing. Put away all your fear for our path now is clear on the way to our journey's end. (Refrain)

Here in this place let us stand in awe and wonder. Here in this place we behold the mystery. For the message goes out; there is no room for doubt: the child now laid in a manger; true God and true man, now revealing the plan, the way to our journey's end. (Refrain)

Meditation Hymn:

O Word of Christ

Verse:

Word made flesh who dwelt among us; God from God and light from light. Word made flesh for our redemption; love come down to give us life. In the weakness of an infant all the strength of love defined; heaven's truth, the Father's mercy in the gentle face of Christ. (Refrain)

Refrain:

O Word of Christ, true God from true God. O Word of Christ, broken for love, spoken for the world. (Verse)

Verse:

Word who died by thorn and piercing on a cruel cross alone. Word who died for our transgressions; love who rose to lead us home. For the suffering of our Savior brings us to eternal life and a place at heaven's table, welcome in the love of Christ. (Refrain)

Closing Hymn:

Songs of Thankfulness & Praise

Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to thee we raise. Manifested by the star to the sages from afar; branch of royal David's stem in thy birth at Bethlehem; Praises be to thee addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme; and at Cana, wedding guest, in thy Godhead manifest; manifest in pow'r divine, changing water into wine;

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life."

If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure — but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals — Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember — the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

THANK YOU!!

Thank you to those that came to help decorate the church for Christmas, including Diane and Ryan Christensen, Mary Ebner, Debbie Pfeffer, Linda Rex, and Johanna Varn.

Special thanks to Dave and Linda Croston and Mark Leghart for making sure the outside of the church looks as beautiful as the inside does.

2021 TAX STATEMENTS

It's hard to believe we're even talking about tax season, but it's right around the corner. As a reminder please be sure that we have your current mailing address if you've moved this year.

It's cost prohibitive for us to send the tax statement to everyone, so we've been issuing statements upon request for the last five or so years. You can either call the office or send an email. We won't begin sending letters until the end of January. We don't send them out via email, but they can be mailed or picked up at the parish office.

CHURCH OVERSEAS

Combined collection at the end of January

The Church Overseas Combined Collection assists the church in its ministries throughout the world. This combined collection supports four major overseas services: Catholic Relief Services, (CRS), Holy Father/ Peter's Pence, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and the Church in Latin America. Please remember, as we move toward the season of Lent, to support these important programs of charity in the Church.
