IMPORTANT UPDATE FROM THE CDC & VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The CDC and the Virginia Department of Health (VDH) have revised guidance involving the wearing of masks in certain “public indoor settings”. Within the diocese, public indoor settings include public Masses. Unvaccinated or not fully vaccinated individuals should wear a mask when in the church building. Since Chesterfield County is one of the areas of substantial or high transmission, we recommend all to wear a mask so that we can keep each other safe.

Do you own a business or provide a service? Are you looking to reach out to your fellow parishioners every week? Would you like to help our parish in a unique way? If so, why not advertise in the St. Gabriel and Good Samaritan weekly bulletin? St. Gabriel and Good Samaritan Catholic Churches partners with Liturgical Publications to print our weekly bulletin. Please consider sponsoring an ad in the bulletin. Your sponsorship of an ad helps offset the cost and manpower associated with producing a weekly bulletin, thereby allowing St. Gabriel and Good Samaritan the luxury of appropriating resources to other ministries of need. So, won't you please consider promoting your business or service within the bulletin to benefit all our parishioners? The bulletin still has space available and needs your support! Wendy Bond from our bulletin publishing partner, Liturgical Publications, is presently securing new ads for the bulletin at discounted levels. For more information, call Wendy at 804-366-3111 or send an email to: Wbond@4lpi.com.

Saint of the Week

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.
