THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

PARISH LEVEL LISTENING SESSIONS

Earlier this year, Pope Francis announced a worldwide synod to focus on the life and mission of the Church as we move forward together. The theme for this synod is, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission."

SYNODAL LISTENING SESSION

Monday , January 17 at 1 :00 P.M.

Thursday, January 20 at 7:00 P.M.

Saturday, January 22 at 10:00 A.M.

Sunday, January 23 at 12:00 NOON.

The sessions will be facilitated by Nick Fantasia and Carol Boyers.

Rather than simply a meeting of bishops, Pope Francis has asked us, the People of God, to take part in the synod-to "journey together" with our brothers and sisters in Christ along the path of renewal, guided by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Father has asked that every parish in the Diocese participate in this synod in order to listen to the entire People of God.

Anyone of these sessions will provide an opportunity for every member of our parish community to share our thoughts and feelings, but more importantly to discern how the Holy Spirit is guiding us in our journey together. Please join us for one of these important listening sessions.

To report an incidence of suspected child sexual abuse, please contact your local law enforcement agency, or you may confidentially contact WV Child Protective Services at 800.352.6513. In addition to civil authorities, to report suspected cases of sexual abuse by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, please contact the Diocese at 888.434.6237 or 304.233.0880. Please visit www.dwc.org under "Accountability" for additional information and reporting methods. Immaculate Conception Church has made Rosemary Fantasia the coordinator for our church's Safe Environment team.

YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH & THE FAMILY

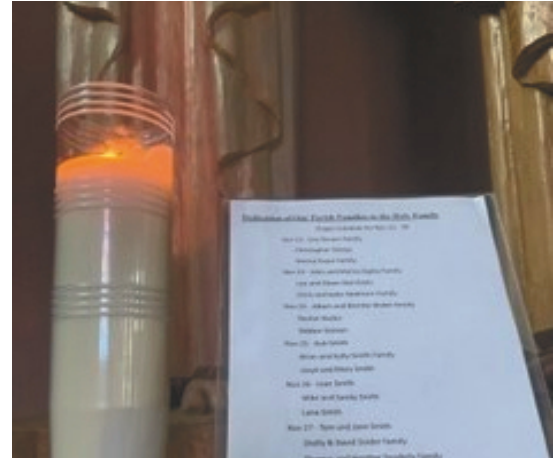

To mark the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the declaration of St. Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Pope Francis has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph" from December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021. In our diocese the date is extended to March 19, 2022.

Pope Francis has also called for the Year of the Family from 19th March 2021 - 26th June 2022 to celebrate the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis' apostolic exhortation, Amoris Laeti, on the pastoral care of families.

Dedication of Our Families to Saint Joseph and the Holy Family

To celebrate the Year of St. Joseph and the Family, we continue to pray each day for one of our Parish Families. The day chosen for your family will be notified through a letter (How? Surprise!) and a reminder call. We will also list the names of the families in the bulletin each week. I request our parish families to join me to pray during your family prayer time.

On the chosen day we dedicate your family to St. Joseph and the Holy Family by lighting a candle and placing your name in front of the Holy Family statue. Also, we will pray for you during the prayers of the faithful at Holy Mass. You may also wish to attend one of the Masses that week or weekend to pray for your special intentions.

ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON | JANUARY 4

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

Sunday Reflections

Today's feast is called "epiphany" which means "manifestation" because Jesus revealed Himself not only to the Jews, the chosen people, but also to pagan visitors, kings. In other words, the feast tells us that Jesus is Savior not only of Israelites, the chosen people, but also to everybody. And in this sense, the Magi represent all the other peoples of the world. The feast invites us to see ourselves in the Magi – a people on a journey to Christ.

Today's gospel of St. Matthew tells us how God guided the three wise men to the Baby Jesus by means of a special star.

A husband asked his wife, "Do you know why God gave the star to the wise men?" She replied, "Because God knows men are too proud to ask directions". If there had been three wise women instead of three wise men, they would have asked for directions, arrived on time, helped deliver the baby, cleaned the stable, made a casserole, and given some practical gifts! How nice it would be for each of us to have a star to follow in the right direction. Fr. Frank Mihalic SVD stated, in his book entitled 'A Thought for Today', that all of us have stars to follow. But this time they are not moving across the heavens. Our stars today are right down here on earth with us. Our stars are people and places and things that show us the way, that inspire us, that attract us.

According to Pope Francis "Like the Magi, every person has two 'books' which provide the signs to guide our life pilgrimage: the book of creation and the book of sacred Scripture. What is important is that we be attentive, alert, and listen to God Who speaks to us, Who always speaks to us."

Sometimes people are our stars. Nowadays we call famous singers or sports people or actors, stars. Young people make heroes out of these stars. They imitate their speech, their dress and their ideas. In the same way we follow the religious heroes we call saints. We take their names and we try to follow their examples. They are our stars that guide us to Jesus and God.

The Bible is a star. The Bible is an excellent guide for people looking for Jesus.

1. Sometimes a good example can be a star. It pulls us and draws us to God.
2. Sometimes a good idea can be a star. Perhaps we get it from something we hear or read. An idea can change our life.
3. Sometimes sickness and pain can be a star: it makes us useless for a while but gives us time to think.
4. Sometimes an invitation from our friend to join the parish ministry can be a star. It can give a new direction in life.
5. Sometimes a 15minutes family prayer can be a star. It can set the tone of our home. 15minutes prayer can melt the stress and anger and bring improved relationships and peace into family life.

There is also such a thing as following the wrong star. We do that when we look down and not up. Since it is usually easier to reach down than to reach up, many people reach down for their stars. And it's very late they realize that those were no real stars. People who reach down and not up for their stars are people whose star in life is: wealth, drunk, power, popularity, and bad company. They follow these and perhaps end up in a muddy water where there are also reflections of stars-but not real stars. Today's feast challenges us to look upwards and not downwards for our stars. And reminds us that we are a people on a journey to Christ.

TEC stands for Teens Encounter Christ. TEC is an international, spiritual-renewal movement in the Catholic Church that strives to bring young people and adults into a close, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. TEC is a community, led by the Holy Spirit, that gathers people into Christian groups of faith, while attempting to incorporate its ministry into the overall ministry of their members' dioceses and parishes.

The next TEC retreat that will take place in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston will be held from Friday, January 14th to Monday, January 17th, at the St. John XXIII Pastoral Center in Charleston, West Virginia. It will be free for all teens who are in their junior year of high school through first year of college.
