Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

PURPOSE AND PRIDE

Father, forgive me, but today's Gospel made me want to fight somebody.

If you want to make me really, really angry, you are sure of doing so if you tell me about an old woman who was sick, but felt a little better, and then her son-in-law and all his buddies showed up, so she cooked them a bunch of food and cleaned up after them.

We all project our own feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires onto the word of God. I certainly do. And most of my feelings, fears, insecurities, and desires spring from my current role as a tired mom of little kids.

I think there is a fear inside many of us of God's purpose for our lives. What if it's not aligned perfectly with what we think we need, or what we imagine we want? Most of the time, I think I need a nap, and I imagine that I want absolutely no one asking me for any kind of help. And here I am, perpetually napless and always being called on to render assistance.

The actions of Peter's mother-in-law were the only actions we would expect of a woman who had just received a miracle. She jumped up, and with bravery and boldness she served the Lord.

But couldn't she rest? Couldn't she serve him later? Couldn't she thank him with a smile and take a nap? Well, I suppose. But is that how you react to a miracle?

I have received my miracle — my family. My purpose. So why am I still lying down?

*"He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up.
Then the fever left her and she waited on them."
~ Mark 1:31*

PROPÓSITO Y ORGULLO

Padre, perdóname. El evangelio de hoy me hizo querer pelear con alguien.

Si quieres hacerme enojar mucho, mucho, seguro que lo harás si me cuentas de una anciana que estaba enferma, pero se sintió un poco mejor, y luego apareció su yerno y todos sus amigos, así que les preparó un montón de comida y limpió lo que ensuciaron.

Todos proyectamos nuestros propios sentimientos, miedos, inseguridades y deseos en la palabra de Dios. Yo ciertamente lo hago. Y la mayoría de mis sentimientos, miedos, inseguridades y deseos surgen de mi papel actual como madre cansada de niños pequeños.

Creo que dentro de muchos de nosotros hay miedo al propósito de Dios para nuestras vidas. ¿Qué pasa si no está perfectamente alineado con lo que creemos que necesitamos o con lo que imaginamos que queremos? La mayor parte del tiempo creo que necesito una siesta e imagino que no quiero que nadie me pida ningún tipo de ayuda. Y aquí estoy, perpetuamente sin siesta y siempre llamada a prestar ayuda.

Las acciones de la suegra de Pedro fueron las únicas acciones que esperaríamos de una mujer que acababa de recibir un milagro. Ella saltó y con valentía y esfuerzo sirvió al Señor.

¿Pero no podía descansar? ¿No podría servirle más tarde? ¿No podría agradecerle con una sonrisa y tomar una siesta? Bueno, lo supongo. ¿Pero es así como reaccionas ante un milagro?

He recibido mi milagro: mi familia. Mi propósito. Entonces, ¿por qué sigo acostada?

*"Él se le acercó, y tomándola de la mano, la levantó.
En ese momento se le quitó la fiebre y se puso a servirles."
~ Marcos 1:31*
