From Our Rector

"... whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall." 1 Corinthians 10:12

"Pride goes before disaster and a haughty spirit before a fall." Proverbs 16:18

I think one of the most dangerous statements we can say is, "this could never happen to me." All of us, at some time, have felt that sense of relief, self-satisfaction even, at avoiding misfortune. We feel a sense of immunity from tragedy. My house won't flood because I live on top of a hill; I am safe because I have a security system; my child/spouse/friend would never (fill in the blank).

I go to Mass/Confession/tithe, so I feel pretty confident I'm going to heaven.

Until the flood does come; someone breaks into your house or breaks your heart. Both the prophet and the evangelists tell us today that God's judgement is just, but above all it is merciful. There is no "score card" where rewards and punishments are delivered promptly. Trials come to the good and the bad; and sometimes it seems that the latter escape judgement all together.

Yet we see "as man sees," not as God. We want certainty, but the only true certainty is that Christ was born, lived, and died for our salvation. Paul is challenging us to live not in fear, but in gratitude.

The gardener in Luke's Gospel is patient; he knows he must feed the soil; he knows to give the tree time to bear fruit. Just so, God is patient with us. He wants, as the prophet Joel reminds us, to "return to him."

At the midpoint of Lent, I encourage you to be a patient gardener: with each other and with yourself. Continue to feed your soul; continue to seek ways to bring you closer to God. Though we may not automatically think of Lent as a season of Hope, it is profoundly so. The Hope of the Resurrection, of OUR salvation is at hand.

God bless. Fr. Posey

The Second Collection this week will go towards Easter flowers for the altar. Honor a loved one with a special gift!

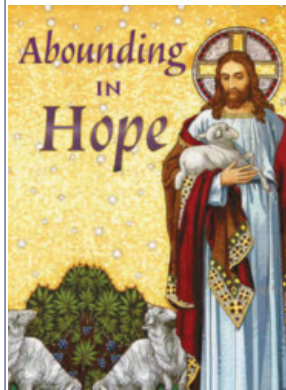

Next weekend's Second Collection will benefit Catholic Relief Services which supports six Catholic agencies that serve the vulnerable and marginalized at home and abroad. "This year ...has a very urgent significance," said Bishop Daniel Mueggenborg, chairman of the USCCB's Committee on National Collections. "...with similarly abrupt stop-work orders on foreign humanitarian relief work, aid organizations such as Catholic Relief Services are unable to sustain their work overseas, bringing food, life-saving medicine, and daily necessities to people in need."

please consider a pledge that will allow you to share your gifts with your neighbors. Each donation is vital to the success of the appeal and the important work that it funds.

Thank you for your generosity and kindness.

Twelve (12%) of funds raised from the Bishop's Lenten Appeal goes towards outreach for Youth and Young Adult Programs. Your supports enables diocesan offices to provide high quality training, resources and diocesan-wide youth events to assist Directors of Youth Ministry (DYMs) as they strive to fully incorporate young people into the life of their parish.

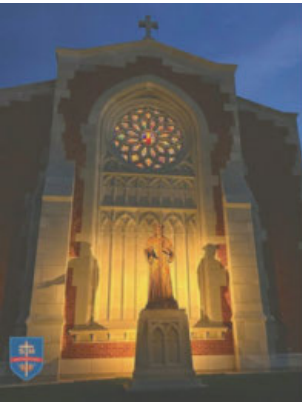

The Office of Young Adult Ministry assists parish staff in creating a culture of friendship, prayer, and purpose among young adults (19-35).

Our own Director of Religious Education and Formation Benjamin Paczak works to provide opportunities to our youth and young adults to grow in their faith, and make lasting memories through events such as outdoor activities, dinners, Game Nights, and our important outreach partnership, WorkCamp!

Thank you for supporting our Bishop and in turn, our own efforts here at the Cathedral!

Why the Stations of the Cross?

Along with icons, stained glass, and statues, it's easy to overlook the other collection of images that decorate most Catholic Churches: the Stations of the Cross. "The Way of the Cross" (in Latin, Via Crucis; or the Via Dolorosa, the "Way of Sorrows") is a devotion that traces the last stage of the journey that Jesus walked in his earthly life: from the Garden of Olives through his death on the Cross.

Where did this practice come from?
Traditions tell of the early Christians retracing the steps of Christ and pilgrims walking this way in Jerusalem. Around the 17th century, knowing that many Christians couldn't travel to the Holy Land, permission was given to local parishes to start creating their own "Stations" of the Cross. We have practiced this tradition (especially during Lent) ever since!

How many stations are there?
There are fourteen stations. There have been varying versions of the practice, from 5 to 12 to the now-settled 14.

Why is this devotion important?
The Stations of the Cross invites us to make a spiritual pilgrimage of prayer. We can't skip ahead to Easter Sunday; we must acknowledge the entire journey of Christ's Paschal Mystery, and taking time in reflecting on the agony of Christ's last hours before death can call us deeper into this mystery of love and bring us to deeper conversion.

Text from Word of Fire.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/EDUCACIÓN RELIGIOSA

Parishioners are invited to serve the Church by volunteering their time to parish endeavors. Religious Education needs anyone willing and eager to help the youth grow in their faith--both in the classroom and monitoring the doors and hallways for safety during class. If you are interested in helping on Wednesday nights in any capacity, please email Benjamin Paczak, Director of Faith Formation, to learn more: bpaczak@cathedralstm.org. Volunteers with a desire to help in special needs education are invited to contact Benjamin about providing a different kind of program with special needs instructional materials.

The Cathedral recognizes that as parents, you are your child's primary teacher of the Faith, and is dedicated to assist you in raising your children in the Catholic faith by offering a variety of program and activities for your child's sacramental and spiritual needs. Together, it is our goal to teach the children of our parish to love as Christ loves and to serve as Christ serves.

Se invita a los feligreses a servir a la Iglesia ofreciendo su tiempo como voluntarios para las iniciativas de la parroquia. El programa de Educación Religiosa necesita de personas dispuestas y ansiosas para ayudar a los jóvenes a crecer en su fe, tanto en el aula como vigilando las puertas y los pasillos de la escuela para garantizar la seguridad durante las clases. Si está interesado en ayudar los Miércoles por la noche, en cualquier función, envíe un correo electrónico a Benjamin Paczak, Director de Formación en la Fe, para obtener más información: bpaczak@cathedralstm.org. Se invita a los voluntarios que deseen ayudar a los estudiantes con necesidades especiales a que se comuniquen con Benjamin para ofrecer un tipo diferente de programa, con materiales didácticos y otros recursos.

La Catedral reconoce que, como padres, ustedes son los principales maestros de la fe de sus hijos y los apoya en la crianza de su fe católica al ofrecer una variedad de programas y actividades para las necesidades sacramentales y espirituales de sus hijos. Juntos, nuestro objetivo es enseñar a los niños de nuestra parroquia a amar como Cristo ama y a servir como Cristo sirve.

Finding Jesus with Mary & the Rosary Women's Silent Retreat: May 2, 6:00pm-May 4, Noon

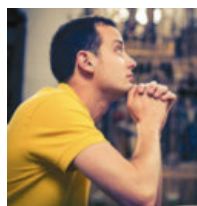

Catholics certainly recognize the power and preeminence of the Rosary in our Spiritual tradition. But most of us have a great deal of difficulty praying the Rosary and often feel as if we are just "going through the motions." Join Fr. John Riley at the San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA to consider strategies that will help us pray the Mysteries with greater focus and recollection... and new ways to experience the Rosary as the "School of Prayer" in deep meditation and quiet contemplation that it is intended to be. Retreat cost is $285. For further information, please contact Father John Riley at: john.riley@arlingtondiocese.org
