Welcome!

When you enter through the doors of our churches, you enter a home where God dwells. Whoever you are, He welcomes you, with your joys and your pains, your successes and failures, and your disappointments.

You are welcome!

Generations before you have loved these churches, have contributed to build them, embellished them and prayed in them. Please respect our churches. Observe silence within.

If you are a believer, pray! If you are searching, reflect! If you are in doubt, ask for light! If you are suffering, ask for strength! If you are happy, give thanks and ask that you remain so!

In our churches, you may encounter brothers and sisters, and with them raise your prayers to God. May your visit warm your heart and give joy to your eyes!

Whoever you are, God welcomes you. May you welcome Him in turn! Welcome to Christ Our Light Family of Parishes.

PARISH INFORMATION

PARISHIONER REGISTRATION

Welcome! If you are interested in becoming a parishioner at one of our parishes, we invite you to contact the appropriate parish offices.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Daily Examen of Stewardship – Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS    ©LPi

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over. "Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments – instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said – and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship – living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other – is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" – a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

*How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him?
What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?
To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me?
Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?*

Hi again. I recently spoke about hunting and today I'd like to talk about gathering in the Fall as a family. Although we had enough to eat, anything we could put in our stomachs was a bonus. Each Fall we would walk in the woods to check out the scenery (Mom loved to go on walks.) and find surprise skeletons of raccoons and possums. There were lots of acorns and buckeyes and puffball mushrooms but nothing to feed the hungry child. Finally, we would find hickory nut and walnut trees. We had to get there before the squirrels but managed to pick up enough nuts for future cookies and cakes. (The real reason Mom came along was so that we would bring enough nuts back for Winter goodies and not just for a snack.)

After we collected our treasures we would take them back to the house to store in the basement. Later that Winter us kids would go down the basement to crack open the nuts and handed them over to Mom. Sure there were some shells left after we removed the nuts but that made it more of an adventure to eat the cookies.

One additional food to be gathered was the pawpaw. Our family did not pick up pawpaws and put them in our pockets. We ate them on the spot. It was nice to have a little something sweet and juicy on our trip back from the woods. It would be nice if God's goodness was immediate but it is not always so. God's timing is always right but not always in sight. Those walks in the woods taught me to take my time in enjoying the fruits of God's goodness whether in the present or in the future.

Have a great week.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our parish to hear the call to serve in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence.

Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated holy priests, sisters, brothers and deacons, who will spend themselves for your people and their needs.

Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Do you have a child, sibling, parent or even a spouse that has left the faith? Like so many Catholics today—even perhaps like you—Monica wrestled daily with the pain of having a loved one fall away from the Faith. Like us, she often feared that her prayers and tears were of little worth, empty, and futile. In these pages, author Maggie Green provides wise, compassionate guidance for members of what she calls “The St. Monica Club”; good Catholics suffering like Monica the rejection of the Faith by persons they love dearly. ## In Persona Christi: The Catholic Priesthood

The Catholic priesthood comes to us from Jesus Christ. Building on this pattern of priesthood from Old Testament times, Jesus chose twelve men to act in His place as priests of the new and everlasting covenant. This film explores the essential nature and theology of the sacred priesthood, the importance of a deep prayer life, the centrality of the Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, devotion to the Blessed Virgin, priestly fatherhood and celibacy, and the necessity of a missionary zeal.

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

TOGETHER
Sunday

We all have Catholic friends, family members, neighbors, or coworkers who have become disengaged from the practice of their faith. Many of them may just be waiting for a personal invitation back to regular attendance at Mass. Invite one Catholic back to Mass on Sunday, November 24, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Worship is better together, and a simple invitation could be life-changing.

iVoteCatholic

Solemnity of all Saints

Let us pray. All loving God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the wide-ranging issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond. We seek kindness, compassion and a loving heart while dialoguing with our family, friends, neighbors and community members who are also discerning their vote in this election. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of all life. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voices of leaders who will bring us closer to Your Kingdom. We pray for courage and generosity of spirit that we may choose leaders who hear Your Word, live Your love, and keep in the ways of Your truth. We desire You, compassionate God, to guide us to Your Kingdom of justice and peace. This we ask in the name of Your Son Jesus Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist. Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me, Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me. Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me. Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me. Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
