MISSION STATEMENT

"We, the members of the Catholic Community, are called by God and empowered by the Holy Spirit to continue the Mission of Jesus. We are called to worship, to teach, to preach the Gospel message, and to extend concern and compassion to all in need."

Sr. Pat Eeckhout,
Sisters of Divine Providence Serving

Postscripts from Sr. Pat

We usually associate Jesus' message with such things as love and joy and forgiveness, but his teaching in today's Gospel is different. Instead of being hopeful and positive, Jesus warns us of destruction and division. The reading begins with Jesus saying he has come to bring a blazing fire upon the earth and that he will not establish peace, but discord. Jesus even says families will be at odds because of him. This certainly does not sound like the same Jesus who preached about loving one another and turning the other cheek.

Since Scripture often uses fire as a symbol of the judgment at the end of the world, Jesus' comment about bringing fire upon the earth probably meant the Day of Judgment had already arrived. Jesus challenged those who heard him to make a decision to commit themselves to him and to his message, a decision that would not be without its consequences.

In the days of the early Church, those who professed a belief in Jesus literally put their lives on the line because the Romans killed many Christians by crucifying them, burning them at the stake, or feeding them to hungry lions. No one would deny that it took a great deal of conviction and courage to be a Christian in first-century Palestine.

Choosing to follow Jesus often had repercussions in one's family life. Some parents did not understand why their grown children would risk their lives for the teachings of a simple carpenter from Galilee and some children could not believe their parents had joined a group started by a political radical the Romans crucified. Fathers and sons, mothers and daughters found themselves on opposite sides of the fence because of Jesus' teachings. Division, rather than peace, came to many families because of the Gospel. (JJ Sabatowich)

Think about this: Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; suddenly you are doing the impossible.

Who, Me? Carry up the Gifts?

Mass will start soon and there is no one to carry the gifts to the altar. An usher may ask you and you don't know what to do!

- During the collection go to the back of the church.
- An usher will meet you there and hand you the container of water and the plate of bread.
- Follow the usher to the altar where Father is waiting.
- Hand the gifts to Father.
- After Father has taken all the gifts, bow to the altar and return to your seat.

Isn't that easy!!

Can you do it next Sunday?

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

CSA 2022 is only two months in, and already, we're over halfway to our goal! Our parish's CSA goal this year is $58,356. Last year, 245 donors contributed to CSA. If each of these gave $238.19, we'd make our goal. As always, any support you can give is greatly appreciated. Our parish did an amazing job meeting our goal last year. With a lower goal this year, we can surely meet it again, and are well on the way to doing so. Thank you so much to all of the generous parishioners who have given so far. If you have not already, would you consider making a gift to this year's CSA?

Amount pledged as of 8/09/22: $44,463.30

Are you going on vacation?

Continue to support St Mary by electronic giving for your offertory donation.

Safe, secure, and easy. One time, weekly or monthly, set it up however you like.

Our E-giving system has been changed to TITHE.LY. If you already give, you should have received an email. If not, check it out on our website today!

The following prayer will be said at all masses in the Archdiocese of Detroit for the Year of Priestly Vocations starting this weekend, June 4th, and ending May 28th,2023.

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood
from our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
Give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between father and Son,
Strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests,
Comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship
As they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

AMEN

“We know that the Lord is calling men to share his priestly ministry. He never ceases to call men to be his coworkers. So we pray that more of those called will hear this invitation, listen with open hearts and respond generously and courageously to the challenge of becoming fishers of men in the power of the Holy Spirit.”

Catholic Faith

Question: My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith, but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

Answer: Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can't be close to someone we don't know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in. Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don't know how to answer. If your friend hasn't yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor's current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith as well. The good example of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive!

A Steward's Growing Pains

Have you ever written a check or seen the charge on the credit card machine that had far too many zeros on it for your comfort?

The brakes finally give up on the car you were hoping to nurse through the season. The water heater dies on the coldest week of the year. A medical procedure wasn't totally covered by insurance. We've all been here in this place, being asked to part with a not-so-small sum of money for a not-so-fun reason.

It's a little easier to bear when you're forking over dollar signs for a fun vacation or even a worthy cause like your child's education. But when it's something you weren't expecting, something negative, that uneasiness in the pit of your stomach can quickly become despair.

The next time this happens to you, embrace it. Celebrate it. Wrap your arms around it and welcome it as a growing pain.

We are often asked, in life, to give more than we wish. Our loved ones demand greater patience than we think we have. Our prayer life is stalling, and we feel God isn't holding up His end of the communication bargain. The daily grind seems to be grinding us down. We feel that uneasiness in the pit of our stomach, just as we do when we part with money we thought belonged solely to us.

That place of uncertainty propels us in life, in stewardship, in relationship. All forward motion comes from that feeling. Put out your hands and let yourself be thrust into the pit — He will stoop to take you out from the mud. Spread your arms on your cross — joy is waiting for you.
