Blessed Easter

Jesus came to do battle for us. While it seemed to the world that all was lost by His dying, we acknowledge that in all truth Jesus Christ rose triumphantly over the grave, thus defeating death and sin! This was not simply a display of God's power; His victory makes it possible for us to enter into eternal life with Him! This is how, in the midst of death, we can grieve with hope. Our carrying of the cross leads to eternal glory. There's no room for us to be silent or timid about it. We are called to be bold in our profession of Jesus Christ. He has given us the best news, and each of us are called to proclaim that with our words and with our lives. He has freed us from unending death, giving us the chance to follow Him to the glory of Heaven. The best way we express this is by doing what Jesus asked us to do: we recalled on Holy Thursday about the importance of Holy Mass. Jesus said, "Do this in remembrance of me." It is how we give God worship. Sure, there are many ways that we can express our thanks and praise to God. But none of that compares with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass where Jesus nourishes us with His very self in the Holy Eucharist. If we desire to express our gratitude for Jesus, He's told us how: proper worship.

If it's been a while since you've been to Holy Mass, the Sacrament of Penance serves as a healing remedy to reconcile us back to God. Jesus bestowed that authority to the apostles, to His priests who act in persona Christi. The priests do not act on their own in extending forgiveness. It is through their participation in the priesthood of Jesus Christ that true forgiveness can be imparted. We enter into the fullness of God's joy when everything has been surrendered to Him. It is a day of great rejoicing, for Jesus has done what no other person could ever accomplish: He's triumphed over death and ransomed us for the Kingdom of Light.

Treasures of the Church: Opportunity for Great Healing!

On April 10th, the Saturday before Divine Mercy, Fr. Carlos Martin will be coming to us with his exhibit known as Treasures of the Church. He will be bringing with him approximately 150 relics, including St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. In this collection, there are some that should receive particular attention: he has one of the largest certified relics of the True Cross in the world and has a piece of the Veil of Our Lady! Due to the amount of space required, we are hosting this opportunity at Holy Family.

Fr. Phil's article continued from Page 1

A presentation and teaching on the relics will begin at 10:00 am in the church. This presentation is so important that the Pope has given a plenary indulgence to those who listen to it! Yeah, it's that good. Fr. Carlos Martin has seen spectacular healings occur at every exposition including cancer, heart disease, tumors, osteoporosis, and physical deformities. Some have experienced a healing of faith!

You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/ family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. Please spread the word. This is not something that happens often. Do not miss this opportunity. You will regret it if you are able to come but choose not to. It's sad when opportunities like this come but people don't take advantage of it and think, "I will go next time" and fail to make the effort or offer some lame excuse. A priest friend of mine, when he tried to book this, had to schedule something two years out. I am grateful for my priest friend who reached out to me to see if we'd be open to this.

Divine Mercy (April 11th)

Our Lord Jesus promised that all souls who go to Confession and receive Him in Holy Communion on the Feast of Mercy, on the Sunday after Easter (Divine Mercy), "…shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (Diary St. Faustina, 699). He went on to say "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy." (Diary 1109)

It is required of all Catholics to confess their serious sins at least once every year. If you haven't yet met this obligation then take advantage of this outstanding opportunity to receive this outpouring of graces that Jesus promises on this day. Those who have already confessed their sins should make room for others. When going to scheduled confession times, it is not the time for spiritual counseling or spiritual direction. Out of charity for other penitents, simply confess the sins you have committed. If the priest needs to seek clarity, he will.

The Church allows for one to go to confession for up to about 20 days, before or after Divine Mercy Sunday. Therefore one need not go to confession on the day of Divine Mercy Sunday, giving one plenty of time to receive the Sacrament of Penance.

This day has the special graces outlined by Jesus to St. Faustina as well as the plenary indulgence granted by the Church. The plenary indulgenced act would be to participate in a public prayer offered in front of the Image of Divine Mercy. To satisfy this, the chaplet of Divine Mercy will be offered after every offering of Holy Mass next weekend for those who want the plenary indulgence. The regular requirements of obtaining the plenary indulgence apply.

Scheduling error

For those wondering: While I had planned to preside over Holy Masses on Easter Sunday at St. Augustine since I presided at the Christmas Masses at Holy Family, due to a conflict with Fr. John's calendar, this could not happen. Therefore, to accommodate his schedule, I had to make the swap. Nevertheless, I am grateful that we were all able to celebrate Easter together, and I hope you are able to share the joy of Jesus' resurrection! He has risen indeed!

God bless your week!

In Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Phil

Dear Jesus,
I thank You with all my heart for the blessings poured out upon me through the gift of Baptism. I ask You to send Your Spirit upon me to keep my mind and heart open to Your plan for my life. I pray for an increase in all vocations to the priesthood and religious life. I especially pray for this seminarian. Keep him close to You, and fill him with a zealous love for You and for Your people. Strengthen and encourage him to be attentive to Your Word and obedient to Your will. We ask the intercession of Your blessed mother, Mary, to form him in Your divine image, by the power of Your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Mail Call

Q. I am a cradle Catholic. I attended 12 years of Catholic school and 4 years at Notre Dame. I do indeed believe in the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ but really do a poor job of trying to defend this belief to my doubting friends. Do you have any advice on how to convince them?

A. Yes I do, First and foremost, pray for them. Ask the Holy Spirit to open their blinded eyes. The problem here is space in this church bulletin. So, in a nutshell: don't try to rely solely on Sacred Scripture. If you are dealing with a skeptic, chances are the Bible carries little or no weight in influencing them. Make your case through history, common sense and the Bible.

The life of Christ is the most documented life in history. No historian, believer or non-believer, argues that Jesus never existed. The historical evidence is overwhelming. Ask a skeptic what year this is. If they answer 2021 ask them on what they base this opinion. There is only one answer. It is based on the birth of the historical Jesus.

Historians of the day, like Titus Flavius Josephus, document his life, his ministry and his crucifixion. History even documents the claim of his followers of the resurrection. And it goes even further. Several hundred of his followers, who claimed to have seen a risen Jesus, were martyred because they refused to retract their testimony. Nowhere in history do we find even one such retraction. Applying a little common sense now, ask the skeptic how many people they know who would be willing to die for a lie.

It gets even better here. Several thousand other people in those first two centuries, who did not have this first hand experience, also willingly surrendered their life for the faith. They did it based solely the creditability of the witness of those who did see a risen Lord. A little more common sense applied reveals that those first hand witnesses most certainly were highly credible people.

Now, bring Sacred Scripture into evidence. When Jesus died, the veil in the temple was torn from top to bottom. This curtain was massive, perhaps forty feet tall and weighing several thousand pounds. This curtain separated the holy of holies from the people and the presence of God. Only the high priest could enter in order to offer a sacrifice for the atonement for sin. The moment Jesus became that atonement the veil tore - opening the way for us all to enter into God's presence (the Mass). This recording of the curtain in Sacred Scripture was written at the time when most of the people responsible for the crucifixion were still alive. Yet nowhere in history do we find any refutation of this occurrence. Certainly if this did not happen there would have been an endless parade of people ushered in by the Jewish authorities to "prove" it did not happen.

Last but not least, the historical books of the Old Testament contain over 300 prophesies regarding the Messiah (Jesus Christ). Most were written several hundred to well over a thousand years before his birth. His place of birth, life, ministry, crucifixion and resurrection were all foretold long before any of it happened. Obviously this man, God incarnate, was (and is) the most remarkable, wonderful, amazing, awesome birth in human history. As such, his resurrection is not the least bit difficult understand and accept.

There is wealth of information in volume upon volume of books that can provide you with all the evidence you need to adequately defend your belief in the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. I know I have recommended this book before; I would start with "Evidence That Demands Verdict" by Josh McDowell.

We want to thank everyone for supporting the Holy Family fish fry's this year. Although it was not what you were used to, and definitely not as smooth as normal, we did it! We could not have pulled it off without the love and support of our church family and the community. Thank you to everyone who came to help and especially to those who supported the dinner! Our prayer is that next year we will be back to normal!! May God continue to bless you all!! -The fish fry committee

I would like to thank all the individuals who donated hams, potatoes, canned goods, and monetary donations for the Easter food baskets. Through your kindness and generosity we were able to provide 42 families with Easter food baskets. May God Bless you and your families for helping to feed the hungry in our community.

The rosary has worked miracles and is a powerful tool against the unrest and the evils in the world. Continue to pray the Rosary, every day, until we meet together at the flag pole. See you there!

Greetings from 8th grade!

This past month, our 8th grade students read the play version The Diary of Anne Frank by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett. Each student had a part, and we read it together in class (sometimes outside at the picnic tables when the weather was nice!). Every day they were engaged in the reading, embraced the characters' personalities, and participated in thoughtful, mature discussions.

I wanted to share with you a quote from Anne's diary that truly resonates with me and that I used as topic of discussion in class:

"In spite of everything I still believe that people are really good at heart. I simply can't build up my hopes on a foundation consisting of confusion, misery, and death. I see the world gradually being turned into a wilderness, I hear the ever approaching thunder, which will destroy us too, I can feel the sufferings of millions and yet, if I look up into the heavens, I think that it will all come right, that this cruelty too will end, and that peace and tranquility will return again."
- Anne Frank

Our world can often seem so negative - especially this past year - and it is easy to focus on the bad and to let it consume us. Anne Frank was wise beyond her years; even as a teenager during the Holocaust, she recognized that peace can be restored. She reminds us that just as she "look {ed} up into the heavens," we, too, need to remain steadfast in our faith, look beyond the chaos and confusion of the world, and allow God to lead and guide us. It is through our individual and collective faith, that we will find hope and tranquility and be able to see "that people are really good at heart."

Be Food Safe

A critical part of healthy eating is keeping foods safe. Individuals in their own homes can reduce contaminants and keep food safe to eat by following safe food handling practices. Four basic food safety principles work together to reduce the risk of foodborne illness—Clean, Separate, Cook, and Chill.

CLEAN
- wash hands with soap and water
- sanitize surfaces
- clean sweep refrigerated foods once a week
- keep appliances clean
- rinse produce

SEPARATE
- separate foods when shopping
- separate foods when preparing and serving

COOK AND CHILL
- use a food thermometer when cooking
- cook food to safe internal temperatures
- keep foods at safe temperatures
