The Baptism OF THE LORD

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.
I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16bc

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Our Mission: Save Souls

We serve God through His Begotten Son, Jesus Christ, with the empowerment and the strength of the Holy Spirit: to celebrate the Holy Sacraments and Worship, Christian Service and Faith Education, to evangelize and practice our faith in active stewardship--with the faith, spirit and humility of Mary, the Rose of God and our Patron Saint.

BELIEVE: with Fr. Steve

Merry Christmas! Today technically ends the Christmas season for us as Catholics. Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord in the River Jordan by John the Baptist. This concludes the Christmas season, although by many traditions, especially in Eastern Europe, people leave their Christmas decorations up and continue the "Christmas Season" until February 2nd which is now the feast of The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple.

Two Years

Today marks my two-year anniversary here at St. Mary Mystical Rose, and my six month anniversary at St. Augustine and Holy Family. Two years ago I came when St. Mary's and St. Frances/St. Maximilian were brought together. At that time I didn't realize how much I would love the country life. I've grown to love my time here and give thanks to Almighty God for the additional six months He has given me.

As means of an update: there still is no update. No word from Fr. Kishore, the Diocese, or from India. When I hear something, you will hear something. But for now I have transitioned my prayer to asking the Lord for the gift to allow me to be here for Lent and Easter. You may join me in that prayer as well if you wish.

Speaking of Lent and Easter

Ash Wednesday is March 2nd. It is never too early to start planning and looking ahead. Oftentimes, at the start of the year, we begin to make New Year's resolutions to better ourselves, our health, our relationships or even our relationship with God. With Lent just about two months away ask God right now what it is He is asking you to sacrifice in your life? What is He asking you to offer Him?

One thing that we ought to do during Lent, but also every day, is grow in prayer. With this being a new year, let's make the promise to pray every single day for ourselves and each other. To thank God for what He has given to us in His Son and what He has given to us as individuals. On page 3 is a unique little calendar for 2022 that spells out each month of the year. Some people need some great accountability in order to pray every single day. Use this as a means to hold yourself accountable in prayer by simply coloring in one box each day.

Men's Ministry

A few weeks back I preached to the men of the parish (preaching to the women of the parish back on December 12th). You can listen to both of those homilies on my Homily page. I am looking for a few good men who are interested in helping me further the Men's Ministry at our Family of Parishes. Young men and old men. Married men and single men. Men of God. Men who are willing and able to give some time, who want to be leaders, want to grow in faith, and want to help other men do the same. Reach out to me if you are interested.

As always, know of my prayers and please pray for me.

In the Heart of Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Steve

Trust in the Lord Always

By Laurel Eisen
Seventh Grade ELA Teacher

As we begin a new year in 7th Grade English Language Arts, we will take time to reflect on 2021 as well as look ahead in 2022 to some things we may want to add to or change about our lives. Self-reflection is a great tool for students because it allows them to show self and social-awareness, responsible decision making skills, and growth in the different content areas as well as personal growth. Most importantly, self-reflection allows for students to build confidence about their learning and their relationships.

As we self-reflect, we will also look ahead to 2022 - to how we can grow academically, spiritually, and personally - remembering to keep the Lord at the center of our lives.

Many of us may realize that the new year is a great opportunity for renewal. In the new year, we often think of a resolution or two that we can make to better ourselves in some way. Some choose resolutions that they think might make them healthier, others might choose resolutions that could make them work towards being more kind, and others may even choose a resolution that might add a new experience to their lives. The most important thing we can do when thinking about resolutions is to remember how we can include and please the Lord. We also need to remember that we can always trust that God has incredible things already planned for us. Part of this trust comes from knowing that God also forgives. So, we must move forward from our past and accept the wonderful things God has in store for us.

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for wholeness and not for evil, to give you a future full of hope." -Jeremiah 29:11

As teachers and adults, the Holy Spirit works through us and asks us to remind our students and our children that they have been created in God's image and they must always have hope even when life sometimes gets tough. Our children must always know that the Lord has amazing plans for their futures!

May God bless you abundantly in the new year!

Mail Call

Q. I was raised Catholic. I spent 12 years in Catholic school and 4 years at a Catholic university. I raised my 3 children Catholic and now they are raising their children the same. My New Year's resolution is to re-evaluate my Catholic faith. I have never taken an unbiased, critical, serious look at what I have been taught. Everything is on the table for me. I suspect that next year at this time, I will no longer be a Catholic and perhaps not even a Christian. My question is: how many people do you know who have done something similar and how did they explain this to their family?

A. I find your question puzzling on several levels. How do we "explain" truth? Explaining something that is true should not be at all difficult. The Catholic Church holds the fullness of truth. In your case however, the first thing I would suggest is to be a little more honest with yourself. I am aware that millions have left the Church. I am not aware of anyone that did so knowingly using a false pretense. You declare: "an unbiased, critical, serious look at what I have been taught" while at the same time announce: "I suspect that next year at this time, I will no longer be a Catholic and perhaps not even a Christian." You have drawn your conclusion before your phony investigation. Skip the charade and just leave if that is your real objective. However, before you make your preplanned exit, consider Pascal's Wager.

Pascal's Wager is a philosophical argument presented by the seventeenth-century French philosopher, theologian, mathematician, and physicist, Blaise Pascal (1623–1662). He observed that every human being wagers their eternal soul that God either does or does not exist. Pascal's argument is lengthy. It takes into consideration the cost to us now of our wager, odds of winning or losing, and the rewards or negative consequences. Consider as well the jeopardy your "wager" may be placing on your family's eternal destiny. You may be gambling with more than just your own eternal soul.

If you wager that there is a God by living a sacramental life and you are wrong, what have you lost? Study after study has shown that devout Christians, on the whole are healthier and more content than non-religious people. That is a gain not a loss. If I, on the other hand, wager that there is no God and I am wrong, the consequences of that mistake are eternal.

The consequences may also be paid by others you influence.

If you will honestly drop the pretense, I will applaud your decision to seriously investigate our Catholic faith. I started down that path twenty plus years ago, but I started from a completely different prospective. I spent the first fifty years of my life being taught and believing the Catholic Church was a diabolical institution leading spiritually ignorant Catholics down the path to eternal damnation. You on the other hand were blessed to have a head start on me. Be thankful and build on that advantage.

My regret is that I am going to run out of time long before I run out of new discoveries. So will you. So will all of us. The Catholic Church contains the fullness of the truth. There is so much to discover that no human being (in three lifetimes) will have a sufficient number of days to uncover all the wonders of our Catholic faith. Which brings us to your question, how to explain things to your family. I suggest that you just share each new discovery you make and watch their faces light up.

There are so many great resources available for us. Let me suggest starting with the teachings of the Church Fathers. Read what the disciples of the original apostles wrote. Ask Fr Phil, Fr Steve, Deacon Alan and Deacon Rich what study material they would recommend. There is a wealth of information on the internet too, but use caution here. There is also a lot of dangerous, false information to be found there as well.

Community Food Pantry Needs Your Help!

Interested in helping your community & parish? Do you have some spare time or perhaps a flexible schedule? We need volunteers to help with a variety of tasks big & small.

We could use more Drivers & backup Drivers to pick up our Target donations (1x/week on a regular schedule). We ask that these volunteers have trucks or large SUVs, are able to lift 50 lbs., & are child free.

Throughout the month, we also need help with tasks such as: Date Checking, Sorting, Bag/Box Building, Distribution Prep, & Cleaning. We could even use help with simply prepping double bags to make the distribution prep smoother.

While some tasks have very specific times and days, others are flexible. We are willing to work with anyone interested in getting involved & will train you on each task you are interested in helping us with. We follow strict health & safety guidelines as well as the most up to date Covid guidelines. We do require background checks from anyone 18+. Get ready to meet new people, have some fun, & feel good about helping your community.

I HOPE I AM LIKE HIM

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AT MY GRANDSON'S BAPTISM, THE PRIEST PUT A BIB ON THE BABY. I DO NOT REMEMBER SEEING THIS BEFORE. WHY IS THIS DONE? IS IT SOMETHING NEW?

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: “See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers, and this is symbolized by the white garment.

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit one's soul. Pope Leo XIII in his encyclical "Mirae caritatis" (1902) beautifully elaborated this point and emphasized the connection between the communion of saints with the Mass: "The grace of mutual love among the living, strengthened and increased by the sacrament of the Eucharist, flows, especially by virtue of the Sacrifice [of the Mass], to all who belong to the communion of saints."

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

The special personal fruits of the Mass benefit the celebrating priest who acts in the person of Christ in offering the Mass and to the people who are in attendance and participate in the offering of the Mass. These fruits are both extensively and intensively finite, since each of us is finite. Therefore, the more a Mass is offered, the more benefit is conferred.

is a ministry of helping hands that constructs prayer blankets of all types. As a Ministry group, we pray together and we pray over all the completed blankets, petitioning God for His blessings and healing for the blanket recipient all in the name of God's unending love.

We meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm in the Life Center. Anyone who can sew, use scissors, thread needles, use an iron, crochet, knit or would like to just spend some time, is welcome to join us. We rely on donated material, thread, batting and any sewing items. To learn more please contact Linda Browe at 586-202-8030.
