Catholic Schools Week is this week. Most of us in this area only know of one Catholic school: our own St. Augustine. In our area we have a very good public school system. But at the same time Catholic schools offer something our public school cannot—faith based education.

At one point the bishops in the United States of America mandated that every Catholic parish have a Catholic school. And that every Catholic family would send their children to that school. We had plenty of nuns who would teach our children and priests to teach as well.

Fast forward 50 years since The Second Vatican Council and we have closed hundreds of schools and churches. We no longer are obligated to send our children to Catholic schools nor does every parish have a school.

The church at the time, 100 years ago or so, asked every Catholic family to send their children to Catholic schools to protect our children from the poison they were hearing in secular schools, not to make money. They asked that our families continue to promote the Catholic faith and not the error of Protestantism that was perpetrated in our American schooling system at the time.

Has that changed much in our land today? We've seen a lot of issues continuing in the school system in our state—violence included. One of the most important things that we can do for our children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews is provide a solid faith based foundation at home. Our kids can be dropped off at any Catholic School, but if they're not hearing about Jesus at home and going to church on Sunday it won't stick whatsoever.

But having said that, a Catholic school affords them an added bonus of hearing more about the faith and learning about Jesus on a daily basis. Everywhere I have served I have had a Catholic school. Our school at St. Augustine, our principal, and our staff, have thoroughly impressed me. They are honestly fantastic—I cannot recommend our school enough to you and your family.

If you have any questions about St. Augustine school please don't hesitate to contact me or Emily Lenn, our principal. The open house is coming soon (see page 3). It's a great opportunity to see for yourself the benefits a Catholic education offers.

The Catholic Craftsman

I had the opportunity to be a part of a recent podcast with The Catholic Craftsman featuring two of our school students and our principal, Emily Lenn. Below is the link to hear for yourself.

St. Augustine School Celebrates Catholic Schools Week January 30th—February 5th

Since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. This year's theme is

“Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service.”

St. Augustine students will celebrate with fun activities each day in their classroom and with the rest of the school. Our school is focused on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our community and our nation. Have you considered a Catholic education for your child(ren)?

A Few Facts

- St. Augustine has a 12:1 teacher to student ratio.
- Catholic schools instill in students the value of service to others. St. Augustine is no exception. Our students participate in activities such as food drives and visiting the elderly at Medilodge.
- The Catholic high schools within the Archdiocese of Detroit have a 99% graduation rate.
- Millennial Catholics who attended Catholic schools are seven times more likely to attend weekly Mass than millennial adults who attended public schools (Gray 2014).

St. Augustine Catholic School spreads the Good NEWS by Navigating a Christian course, Educating body, mind and spirit, Worshiping the Lord, and Serving others.

Go Saints!

God's Always Calling

by Miss DeJonckheere

5th Grade Teacher

Work, sports, friends, managing a household...so many things make up our lives everyday. Today people have many commitments or an attitude of "it is all about me" that doesn't allow them to hear God. By dwelling on our desires and focusing on things that we cannot control, we will never hear God's call.

He can be seen all around us, if we just open our eyes. He is also calling to us, but we need to open our ears. Most people cannot hear anything other than themselves. If we stopped listening to the negative and to the truly unimportant jabber in life, how fulfilled would our lives be?

God is calling us to bring people to Christ. God desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (1Timothy 2:4) The Bible is filled with many examples of God calling us to be disciples.

God is calling us through all that he has created. Because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made so that they are without excuse. (Romans 1:19-20) He makes himself known to us through all his creation.

To bring ourselves to listen and hear God's calling opens our eyes to the truth. That truth would have an everlasting impact on our lives. Maybe this impact would bring a world full of peace and love.

Holy Family's Prayer Blanket Ministry...

is a ministry of helping hands that constructs prayer blankets of all types. As a Ministry group, we pray together and we pray over all the completed blankets, petitioning God for His blessings and healing for the blanket recipient all in the name of God's unending love.

We meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm in the Life Center. Anyone who can sew, use scissors, thread needles, use an iron, crochet, knit or would like to just spend some time, is welcome to join us. We rely on donated material, thread, batting and any sewing items. To learn more please contact Linda Browe at 586-202-8030.

Please pray for
St. Augustine Parishioners at home or in the hospital...
