11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the tiniest beginnings, the Kingdom of God grows. The image of the mustard seed and a tender shoot from a tree remind us that the Kingdom of God will grow despite the many obstacles we place in front of it. As Jesus says, "the seed would sprout and grow, (we) know not how." God's love is so gracious and tender and patient that nothing will prevent it from growing into what God wants it to be.

We need to be the people who know and believe that it is our patient, but persistent faith, that we are helping to move one step closer to be the people God has called us to be.

History presents us with many examples of patient, but persistent faith. It shows us how we have succeeded and where we have failed. It reveals to us, that every age and generation must face up to the fact that it is by faith that we are drawn closer to God and one another. It is by deep and abiding faith that we come to put into practice God's own compassion and mercy. We move forward with the help of God and we are guided by his Word to be people of faith, hope and charity.

Each of us too, have many examples of how we have progressed through the different stages of life with more faith and more love of God. We go from childhood to adulthood and at each step of the journey are called to remember who we are, what we value most and how we can live out concretely the values which guide our lives.

Scripture comes to reveal to us God's endless love for his creatures and creation. Through the parables the Lord reveals the mysterious workings of God and asks us to evaluate our lives on the values of the Good News. We are called a pilgrim people and so we are. We are on the way, on the road, if you will, to a new day of grace. We are the people the Lord calls out to constantly to take his hand and be guided by his gracious spirit. We are called to believe that we have been given life in order to reveal his wonder to the world. But it is true, we are the people growing in grace, gratitude and giving. Each time we plant a little seed of goodness, trust God that we are moving forward to a new day of grace with God and each other.

CSA 2021

We are just $4,996.00 shy of our goal of $98,621 for CSA 2021. With your continued growth in faith and charity we should be able to receive $4,996.00 to meet our goal. As God's people, we are part of the Church of Detroit. Our work requires us to share with so many others, a portion of the goodness God has granted us. Let's make this work and rightly take our place at the table as a full member in God's church of grace and service.

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."

GOSPEL MEDITATION ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, "do small things with great love." This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of God's kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people's faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air.

As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God's kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds. When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches. So too in each of our lives small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person’s life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone’s story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God given gifts and talents. What are some of yours? Our task is to use our talents creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. Because we are always guided by the Holy Spirit, things that may be insignificant or unnoticed to us can profoundly change the life of someone else. While we may think we are small and insignificant, God can make us large and magnificent. All we have to do is open ourselves to being used. We trust that God will take care of the rest.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

ST. ANTHONY CAN FIND ANYTHING — EVEN YOU

“Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found.”

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can’t find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth— okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It’s a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don’t really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you’re guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they’re doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he’s doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here’s the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. “That’s what you’re looking for,” he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn’t really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.
