When he proclaims and promises the coming of the Holy Spirit, Jesus calls him the "Paraclete," literally, "he who is called to one's side," ad-vocatus. "Paraclete" is commonly translated by "consoler," and Jesus is the first consoler. The Lord also called the Holy Spirit "the Spirit of truth."

Corpus Christi Procession and BBQ

June 19th following the 11:45am Mass

Be sure to plan on joining us for our annual Corpus Christi Procession and BBQ! We will process around the parish with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, singing and praying as we go, professing our belief in the True Presence. We will stop along the way for special prayers. Following our procession, we will enjoy hamburgers and hot dogs, and other goodies as we gather for fun and fellowship.

Holiness is attained with the help of the Holy Spirit, who comes to dwell in our souls, through grace given us by the sacraments and as a result of a constant ascetical struggle. —Josemaria Escriva, The Forge

The gift of the Holy Spirit makes us capable of practicing prayer continually. When the Holy Spirit has established his temple in a person, that person cannot but pray without ceasing. Whether waking or sleeping, prayer does not fade from his soul. —Isaac of Neneveh, The Philokalia

A person who trusts that he can find rest in the delights and abundance of earthly things is deceiving himself. By the frequent disorders of the world, and at last by its end, such a one is proven convincingly to have laid the foundation of his tranquility on the sand. But all those who have been breathed upon by the Holy Spirit, and have taken upon themselves by the very pleasant yoke of the Lord's love, and following his example, learned to be gentle and humble of heart, enjoy even in the present some image of the future tranquility. —Bede the Venerable, homily on the Gospels

Marking the 20th Anniversary of the Dallas Charter

To mark the 20th anniversary of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, the Archdiocese of Detroit has prepared resources on the local implementation and impact of the Charter, with a focus on reconciliation, healing, accountability, and prevention of clerical sexual abuse in the Church.

Twenty years ago, in early 2002, numerous reports surfaced confirming decades of child sexual abuse by Catholic priests and callous indifference from Church leaders. The victim-survivors of this abuse bravely bared their wounds, detailed their experiences, and demanded reform.

READ MORE FROM ARCHBISHOP ALLEN VIGNERON

What is the Dallas Charter?

How has it changed the Church's response to abuse allegations and approach to safety?

READ THESE AND MORE FAQs

Data showing when clerical sexual abuse is alleged to have occurred in the archdiocese reflects a sharp decrease in cases over the last two decades since the Charter was passed. While public awareness has contributed to an increase in reports in recent years, the vast majority of reports concern abuse that occurred prior to 2002. This data confirms and emphasizes the Church's responsibility to respond compassionately and effectively to all abuse allegations, even those involving accounts of abuse that occurred many years ago.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Parents, it's not too soon to start thinking about next year! Registration is now open. We offer grades 1st through 8th. Our sacramental program is a 2 year program, so if your child is preparing for First Communion, they must complete 1st grade. If your child is preparing for Confirmation, they must complete 7th grade. Don't let your child fall behind. Contact Leslie Swayze, DRE for more information at ljswayze@yahoo.com
