

OUR LADY OF REFUGE, Orchard Lake MI

Today is The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 16, 2022

Mission Statement

Under the protection of Our Lady of Refuge and guided by the Holy Spirit, our parish family is dedicated to the propagation and deepening of our faith, rooted in the Sacraments, Sacred Scripture and Tradition of the Catholic Church. As stewards of the Father's gifts, we strive to reflect the love of Christ through the support of our parish and in our outreach and service to others.

A Note from Michael Garnett

Thank you all for your prayers during my absence from OLR due to Covid. I did not plan to be away from Our Lady of Refuge this long, but my recovery efforts took a wrong turn on Day 10, when I could barely move 10 feet and when my oxygen levels dropped so low that I was almost taken to the hospital. Fortunately, an ER doctor friend of mine has been treating me and is helping me recover. Praise God for the gift of medicine and for the healers involved in this noble profession!

I also wish to inform you that I will be leaving my position here at Our Lady of Refuge to accept the Director of Sacred Music position at the Diocese of Lansing Cathedral. My last day here will be Friday, January 21. While the timing due to my Covid illness is less than ideal and I wish that I could be with you all during my last weekend here at Our Lady of Refuge, I firmly believe that God placed me here at this parish for a specific reason and I am so grateful to Him that He did so. I have truly enjoyed getting to know all of you and to serve you, and I pray that you continue to grow in your relationship with Jesus Christ. Please know of my prayers for all of you.

The first Monday of each month following our morning 8:15 am Mass we will gather in our Social Hall to work on a variety of projects. Some bring in their own projects for family and friends, some participate in making special projects and we all pray for our parish, families, friends and prayer requests.

In the winter months we have ladies creating yarn from plastic bags for which our crocheters and knitters will weave mats for the homeless (see photo below).

In May we will be teaching how to make string rosaries or perhaps you already know and can assist others. We have all the materials needed.

Unleash the Gospel – Living and Sharing the Good News

As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you. (Isaiah 62:5)

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. (I Corinthians 12: 4-6)

His mother said to the servers, “Do whatever he tells you.”

Jesus did this (performed a miracle) as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. (John 2: 5, 11)

The readings for today from Isaiah and the Gospel of John both contain references to brides, and bridegrooms. The First book of the Old Testament (Genesis) contains the wedding of Adam and Eve and the last book of the New Testament (Revelation) talks about the marriage feast of the Lamb (Jesus). The Old Testament often refers to bridal imagery to describe the relationship between God and Israel. In the New Testament Jesus performs His first miracle at the wedding feast of Cana, establishing his role as the “divine bridegroom calling us to His royal wedding feast. By His New Covenant, He will become ‘one flesh’ (Eucharist) with all humanity in the Church. By our baptism, each of us has been betrothed to Christ as a bride to a husband.” (Dr. Scott Hahn, Bible Reflections, January 16, 2022, stpaulcenter.com)

The miracle at the wedding feast in Cana, is the third manifestation of the glory of Jesus that we have encountered, with the first manifestation being to the three wise men who were seeking the newborn king of the Jews, and the second being at the Baptism of Jesus when God declares Jesus to be His beloved Son with Whom He is well pleased. In performing the miracle at the wedding feast, (changing water into wine), Jesus reveals his glory to the disciples who have accompanied Him to the celebration.

In the second reading from Corinthians, we see how the glory of God is manifested in us as members of the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ. “In keeping with the Epiphany or manifestation theme, the Church turns our thoughts in the second reading from how Jesus’s divine glory was manifested (Magi, Baptism, Cana) to how the glory of God is manifested in the Mystical Body of Christ which is the Church. The glory of the Lord continues to be revealed in us. The different spiritual gifts, forms of service and workings distributed among all Christians show that God is still at work among us.” (Dr. John Bergsma, The Word of the Lord, pgs. 498-499)

Mary’s last words in the New Testament: “Do whatever He tells you” show us how to live out the Gospel message in our everyday lives. Our daily prayer should be: “O my God, tell me what You want me to do and help me to do it.” (Dr. Donald Wallenfang, Carmelite Spirituality)

Pray. Encounter. Grow. Witness.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood from our archdiocese and our families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest, give us men willing to sacrifice and serve. Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between the Father and Son, strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity. Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation. Mold them into the men they were called to be.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of Priests, be a comfort and protection to your sons discerning the priesthood. Walk with them as you walked next to your Son as he carried the burden of our redemption. Let them feel your tender love and companionship, knowing you will never abandon them on their journey.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us

St. Anne patroness of Detroit, pray for us.

Send us a new generation of Priests!

Why Be Registered?

Are you registered at Our Lady of Refuge parish? Sometimes, people attend Mass at this parish for several years, but never officially register. Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and to make a commitment to the life of Our Lady of Refuge community.

Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for baptisms, Faith Formation registration, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or Confirmation sponsor, and even funerals.

If you would like to register in the parish, please call Msgr. McEnhill, at (248) 682-0920 or see him after any Mass. He will meet with you and give you a welcome packet to fill out, it only takes a few moments. We welcome you to our parish family!

Pray for the men and women who serve in our Armed Forces

“Dear Lord Jesus and Mary, Mother of God, hold all these brave souls in the palm of your hand; comfort them and their families. Send angels of protection, love and comfort to all the service men and women still at war, bring them home safely and comfort their families. We ask this through Christ Our Lord, Amen.”
