

Christ the King THE BROADCAST

AUGUST 29, 2021

20800 Grand River Avenue Detroit, Michigan 48219

PARISH MISSION

We are Christ the King Parish, a richly diverse Christian Community in Northwest Detroit. We are on a journey of Discipleship with Jesus, seeking conversion, reconciliation and renewal. We reach out in welcome to all the people within our neighborhood, proclaiming the good News of Christ the King, building community, celebrating together, serving one another's needs and the needs of all our neighbors.

Outstanding Organization: St. Christine's Christian Services

The soup kitchen at St. Christine's Christian Services in northwest Detroit serves about 500 meals per month — currently boxed, to-go meals — but that's just a fraction of the service the nonprofit provides for its neighbors in the Brightmoor district.

Since 2005, the ministry that began as an outreach of the now-shuttered St. Christine Parish has continued to support those most in need through meals, person-to-person accompaniment, a food pantry and service center that links clients with community resources such as transportation, job training and emergency utility assistance.

Maureen Northrup, director of St. Christine's Christian Services, chats with clients at the nonprofit's soup kitchen in Detroit's Brightmoor neighborhood in 2019. (Paul Duda | Detroit Catholic)

Now sponsored by Christ the King Parish, St. Christine's was one of the few soup kitchens to remain open during the worst days of the pandemic, said Maureen Northrup, St. Christine's director for the past 10 years.

"When it seemed like every other agency closed, we were there for everybody," Northrup said. "We stayed open during all the drama of the pandemic."

In addition to passing out boxed meals on Tuesdays, St. Christine's volunteers offer to bring groceries to those who are homebound. With the help of partnering parishes and businesses, the nonprofit also distributes necessities such as pillows, blankets, clothing, first-aid kits and personal hygiene items.

Northrup said Catholic Charities' Outstanding Organization award "means everything" to the volunteers and staff at St. Christine's.

Northrup said when the announcement was made that St. Christine's had been named Catholic Charities' "Outstanding Organization" honoree for 2021, "everyone started crying." (Paul Duda | Detroit Catholic)

"When I made the announcement last week, everyone was crying," Northrup said.

"It was never about that, but it really validates for me all the hard work that the volunteers do behind the scenes every, every week, to make sure that everyone in our community has ample food or whatever services they need," Northrup said, adding the organization benefits from more than 700 volunteer hours each month.

"We live by the Beatitudes and by the corporal works of mercy as our guideline," Northrup said. "We want to make sure we are providing dignity and service to everyone who comes to our door."

We are so humbled to receive this award! Our weekly volunteers are amazing and the support of the community is abundant! To all of you who have donated clothes, food, egg cartons, bags, toiletries, and so much more—Thank you so very much!

To all of the other parishes from near and far that have sponsored collection of cash, canned goods, winter coats and more, THANK YOU! This award is yours, too!

We can't assist the community week after week without your support.

We hope to be a helpful presence in the community for many years to come. May God Bless each one of you for your kindness.

God Speed, Maureen

THE WISDOM OF POPE FRANCIS

The human person and human dignity risk being turned into vague abstractions in the face of issues like the use of force, war, malnutrition, marginalization, violence, the violation of basic liberties, and financial speculation, which presently affects the price of food, treating it like any other merchandise and overlooking its primary function. Our duty is to continue to insist, in the present international context, that the human person and human dignity are not simply catchwords, but pillars for creating shared rules and structures capable of passing beyond purely pragmatic or technical approaches in order to eliminate divisions and to bridge existing differences. In this regard, there is a need to oppose the short-sighted economic interests and the mentality of power of a relative few who exclude the majority of the world's peoples, generating poverty and marginalization and causing a breakdown in society. There is likewise a need to combat the corruption which creates privileges for some and injustices for many others.

EVENTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Paul of the Cross Passionist Retreat Center

Wednesday,
September 15
10am-2pm

When our life journey is touched by death and the grief that follows, we can turn to Mary for both solace and inspiration. Mary's life journey was touched by sadness, sorrow and grief, yet she encountered God's presence and grace in the journey. Can we allow Mary to accompany us and point to hope and new life? Join us for a few hours in a peaceful setting where you can feel the love of God as you process your grief. This day retreat will include a grief workshop, time for communal and personal prayer, a hot meal, and Sacramental Anointing.

Questions? Contact Cathy at (313) 286-2802 cadamk@stpaulretreat.org or register online @ stpaulretreat.org.

Perhaps you have attended a Catholic Church as a guest. Perhaps you have questions. This is the time to speak up. Every Fall, Christ the King offers the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for adults). This is a series of classes that will walk you through what the Catholic Faith is all about. You will look at Scripture, Traditions, the Sacraments and more.

If you decide that you would like to become a member, you can ask to be Baptized. If not, you will have gained a much better understanding of what Catholics believe and why.

If this looks like something you or someone you know might like to do, please leave your name and phone number in the parish office and we will get back to you with the day and time details.
