The Search

A Video Series with Small
Group Discussion
Small Groups Begin This Week!

The Search is an innovative video series that tackles the key questions of every human heart. In seven beautifully filmed episodes, Chris Stefanick and experts from multiple fields of science, medicine, psychology, art, and religion examine our place in the larger story of existence. View the trailer at <https://vimeo.com/446879132>

Our small group viewing and discussion groups begin this week. It's not too late to join! There will be groups offered virtually and in person and at various times of the day. We will help you find a group that fits. In this time of social distancing and isolation, the need to find connection with other people and with Jesus is great. Please join us and invite your friends and family. Go to <https://bit.ly/ResMass> (or scan the QR code) under "The Search Small Groups at Resurrection" tab to sign up for a small group. Contact the parish office with any questions.

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say ...

This is the theme for the retreats this season at St. Paul of the Cross. As the retreat director Fr. Pat explained it, in the fear of contracting the virus, when our loved ones did, in the separation from our family and friends, what did you hear the voice of Jesus say? In all of the civil unrest in our country in the past year through today, what did you hear the voice of Jesus say?

Several women & men from Resurrection went to the retreat center last fall and we can assure you that all the appropriate measures taken to keep everyone distanced and safe were more than adequate. The limited attendance and designated seating kept everyone relaxed and engaged during the weekend.

The format was adapted to give everyone ample time to ourselves for personal reflection, journaling, walking the grounds and such. Just like everything we do these days it looks different, it feels different, but, it was still refreshing for the mind, body and especially the soul. Faith, Fr. Pat and a counselor have available appointments to meet one on one with you if you like – even the masseuse is available.

In the dining room we did sit only two to a table, but that did not stop conversation around the room! There was true fellowship and we each met fellow retreatants from other parishes just like always.

There is another group of Resurrection women attending the weekend of Feb 19th – 21st. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Register at www.stpaulretreat.org or (313) 535-9563. Come and join us!

Christmas at the Pope Francis Center

Christmas, a day usually full of hugs and laughter at the center, looked different this year. With a rise in COVID-19 cases and new lockdown restrictions, the center was faced with an overwhelming number of challenges to deliver a “Pope Francis Center Christmas”. Nevertheless, the center staff and volunteers worked tirelessly to deliver just that.

As the center opened early on Christmas morning, guests were greeted with the opportunity to grab a meal and backpack to-go or stay for the morning and enjoy their meal indoors. Of the 450 guests served, more than half sat indoors with friends and family to enjoy their meals, all while staying socially distant. Seeing a mix of old and new faces at the center, we served a record number of 600 meals.

As a Christmas tradition, the center passed out backpacks that were filled with winter essential items ranging from winter hats, gloves, socks, shirts, etc. This annual tradition would not have been possible without the amazing help from the individuals and parishes who worked together to pull this off. As we wrapped the day, the center served 450 guests, passed out 600 meals, and handed out 308 backpacks.

Our volunteers and supporters made this all possible. Each individual who donated, shared, and volunteered at the Pope Francis center is the reason why we were able to put on such a special celebration for Christmas Day. Thank YOU.

The Pope Francis Center

The center is always looking for volunteers to help with everyday tasks. From serving guests, to working in the main office, there is a job for everyone. For any questions or concerns about volunteering, please email Maggie at maggie@popefranciscenter.org

Word of God Sunday, January 24

Catholics going to Mass this Sunday will have all the more reason to ponder the liturgy’s Scripture readings, as Pope Francis has declared the third Sunday of Ordinary Time as “Word of God Sunday,” a day devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God.

Here are some suggestions for embracing the Word of God, the Bible, in 2021:

- Use an easy to understand translation, like the Good News Holy Bible, Catholic Edition (see Kiosk)
- Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your mind and heart as you read.
- Invite the Lord to show you what he wants you to notice.
- Read or listen to the Sunday (or daily) readings each week before coming to Mass at <http://usccb.org/bible/readings>
- Join the AOD Scripture Challenge: www.unleashthegospel.org/scripture-challenge
- Listen to Fr Mike Schmidt’s Bible in a Year podcast: <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/biy-registration>

SALAM ! SHALOM ! PAX ! PEACE ! I suspect that for many this past week, or these last couple of weeks, will be seen as historic. They have certainly reminded us that some things are temporary, that things change. This Sunday we receive the opposite message – at least in part. This week-end, January 23 / 24, is 'WORD of GOD week-end'. Pope Francis began this observance last year. As we begin each new year, with all their changes, we are reminded that some things are ETERNAL. Central to these is the Word of God – the BIBLE. The eternal God speaks to us in many ways, eg. nature, family, light. But Their Word is central because it provides a proper perspective to these others. It is of course, a great idea for the new year to read the Bible. I use a program that takes me through the Bible completely each year. You always find something 'new'. If you are looking for a good starting point, I suggest the Fifth to the Eighth chapters of St. Matthew's Gospel – the so-called Sermon on the Mount. Good reading !

FAMILY of PARISHES : you will be reading and hearing a lot about this program over the next couple of years. St. Kenneth and the parishes to the north will be beginning it now, for their staffs and leaders and this Summer for their parishes. We and our 'family' begin a year from now for our staffs and leaders, and in the Summer of 2022 for the parish. Our 'family' is Resurrection, St. John Neumann, St. Thomas A'Becket, and Our Lady of Good Counsel parishes. We already do some things together. These will increase. Once the leaders for the Family are selected, and once the pastors have entered into an agreement, called a COVENANT, as to how to coordinate the parishes, we will begin the years long process of uniting our staffs, resources, and programs. There are 51 Families formed by the 200 plus parishes. 26 groups, or Families, are in the First Wave – eg. St. Kenneth's. We are in the Second Wave. To be honest, despite the fact that Archbishop Vignaron has been preparing for this program for years – i.e. by the Synod, also his Unleash the Gospel program, AOD re-organization, etc.- the pandemic has accelerated the time-table. What it will finally look like is unknown – the so-called 'playbook' keeps changing ( only the Bible is eternal). But, we are all Catholic. We are united in our diversity. ( Remember Jesus had 12 Apostles – who came up with four very different Gospels ). And, who knows what else will change between here and then ? PRAY for the success of our WORKING TOGETHER !

CONGRATULATIONS to KAREN HOGAN ! She has recently been certified as an ADVANCED CATHICIST. Among other things this means she is recognized as qualified to teach and certify our own catechists as well as for other parishes. CONGRATULATIONS, again. And PRAY for the success of our FAITH FORMATION programs. Remember, YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE ! WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER. Wear your Masks ! Keep your distances ! Wash your hands ! BE RESURRECTION ALIVE ! Christ IS RISEN ! Alleluia ! He is RISEN indeed ! Alleluia !

Fr Tom

Thank You From the LaMora Clinic Committee

We want to thank the parish once again, for your generous response to the many needs of the Salvadoran people. Our parish sent to the La Mora clinic in El Salvador under the auspices of the Sisters of Charity, $6,046 on December 16, 2020. This will go toward the ongoing expenses of the clinic including medications and medical supplies.

The $6,046 represents craft sale proceeds, online donations and the Tree of Life donations. An additional $2200 had been sent in November. Once again, the parishioners of Resurrection parish have demonstrated their generosity and their solidarity with the poor.

We have recently been in touch with Sister of Charity, Sr. Peggy O'Neil, who has lived in El Salvador helping the people there for many years. Sister Peggy has shared the many challenges that the Salvadoran people face. As you can imagine, these challenges have been severely exacerbated during the pandemic. Your help continues to give hope and assistance to those in need.

On behalf of the Salvadoran people, the LaMora Clinic committee thanks you for your support.

Deacon Paul's Ponderings...

Jesus said . . . "Come. . . ." At once they left their nets and went with him.

From today's Gospel: Mark 1:17-18

In September of 1862, the Civil War tilted decisively in favor of the South. The morale of the Northern army dipped to its lowest point of the war. Large numbers of Union troops were in full retreat in Virginia. Northern leaders began to fear the worst. They saw no way to reverse the situation and turn the beaten, exhausted troops into a useful army again. There was only one general who might be able to work this miracle. That was General McClellan. He had trained the men for combat, and they loved and admired him. But the War Department didn't see this. Nor did the Cabinet see it. Only President Lincoln saw it. Fortunately, Lincoln ignored the protests of advisors and put McClellan back in command. He told him to go down to Virginia and give those soldiers something no other man on earth could give them: enthusiasm, strength, and hope. McClellan accepted the command. He mounted his great black horse and cantered down the dusty roads of Virginia. What happened next is hard to explain. Northern leaders couldn't explain it. Northern soldiers couldn't explain it. Even McClellan couldn't quite explain it. McClellan met the retreating Union columns. He waved his cap in the air and shouted words of encouragement.

When the tired men saw their beloved teacher, they began to take heart. They began to get the unexplainable feeling that now things could be different. Now things could be all right again. Here's how Bruce Catton, the great Civil War historian, describes the excitement that grew and grew when word spread that McClellan was now back in command. "Down mile after mile of Virginia roads the stumbling columns came alive, and threw caps and knapsacks into the air, and yelled until they could yell no more ... because they saw this dapper little rider outlined against the purple starlight. "And this, in a way, was the turning point of the war... No one could ever quite explain it." This Hallowed Ground. But, whatever it was, it gave Lincoln and the North what was needed. And history was forever changed because of it. The story of General McClellan illustrates dramatically the impact a leader can have on the human spirit. In one of his essays, Ralph Waldo Emerson has this remarkable line: "Our chief want in life is somebody who can make us do what we can." And one of the persons who can do this is a great leader. We ourselves cannot trigger the great potential that lies within all of us. Most of us are like that bottle Aladdin found on the seashore. We have a magnificent genie inside us. But that genie can't get out by himself. Nor can we ourselves release him. We need some Aladdin to come along, pull the cork, and free the genie for us. And this is also what Emerson had in mind. Right after saying "Our chief want in life is somebody who can make us do what we can," he adds, "That is the service of a friend."

And I would like to add, "That is also the service of Jesus Christ." Nowhere is this better illustrated than in the Gospel. And no Gospel story shows it better than the one in today's reading. It illustrates what Napoleon once said about his own power to spark something in the hearts of men. He said: "The lightning of my eye, my voice, a word from me, then the sacred fire was kindled in their hearts. I do, indeed, possess the secret of this magical power that lifts the soul." And, indeed, Napoleon did possess that power. Jesus possessed the same power also, but to an infinitely greater degree— as Napoleon noted further on in the same passage. What is there in Jesus that makes him so different from other leaders? The answer is simple. Other leaders can only influence us, inspire us. Their impact on us, however, is purely psychological. The impact of Jesus, on the other hand, is not only psychological but also mystical. What does this mean? It means that other leaders can fire us up. They can excite us. They can inflame our emotions. They can excite our imaginations. But other leaders can't give us their spirit. They can't share with us their own personal power and strength. If their followers are to change, the change must come about through the followers' own power and effort. In the case of Jesus, all this is different. Jesus can put his spirit in us. He can share his own power with us. He can enter our mind and our heart and help us do what we could never do alone.

To have Jesus enter into our life, we need only open our mind and heart to him. He will do the rest. And this brings us to our final and most important point. There is only one thing Jesus can do for us. He can't open the door of our mind and our heart against our will. He can do everything else, but he can't do this. We hold the key to the door our mind and our heart. And only we can admit Jesus into our life. And that takes us right back to today's Gospel. Today's Gospel shows us how to open the door and let Jesus in. It also names the price we must pay if we want to do this. We must do what the Apostles did. We must be willing to pay the price they paid. We must be willing to burn all bridges behind us and follow wherever Jesus leads. If we decide to do what the Apostles did, if we decide to risk everything for Jesus, He will do for us what he did for them. Jesus will make us partners in his work and give our lives a new meaning beyond our wildest dreams.

At this time, the United States is in deep turmoil. Over 24 Million people have been infected by the Covid virus, with over 400 Thousand dead. The distribution of the vaccine has been disorganized. Our economy is in trouble. Our country is deeply divided. We all long for leadership that can lead us out of our troubles. But, I am convinced that unless we allow Jesus into our hearts, minds and consciences, we will continue to fail. We can pray for our leaders. We can pray that they make good decisions. But, we need to pray for ourselves that we follow Jesus.

Let us close by paraphrasing a beautiful meditation by Edward Farrell in his book Surprised by the Spirit. "Who is this man walking along the shore by the shimmering sea? "Who is this man—bright, shining, and terrible—who looks at us with searing eyes— eyes that search our very soul? "Who is this man who sees our thoughts and reads our inmost heart with loving, knowing eyes that say: 'Nothing less than all of you is what I want?'" Adapted from Sunday Homilies by Fr. Mark Link, S.J.

High School Small Group Starting Virtually at Resurrection

Resurrection is going to be offering virtual small group meetings for high schoolers led by young adults Linnea Brunvand, Moriah Ma, and Emily Meyer.

These meetings will provide opportunities to experience ways to pray, dive into scripture, and discuss videos on faith related topics. We will also have time for faith sharing and just talking about life. We hope to provide a space for high schoolers to experience fellowship and grow in their faith together. These hour-long meetings will occur most weeks starting the last week in January and going through March. Please let Linnea at peacelinnea@gmail.com know by January 19th which days/times would work best for you from the options listed below. Potential meeting times: Mondays at 6 or 7, Tuesdays at 6 or 7, Thursdays at 6 or 7.

We hope you will consider joining, and please reach out to any of us if you have questions!

2020 Giving Statements

To help us save money, 2020 Giving Statements will be sent by request only. Complete the form and return it to the office via the collection basket, drop-off, or mail OR email/ call the office with the information requested on the form. We will mail the statement to your home unless you request otherwise. Contributions to CSA (and the 2020 Resurrection Lighting Fund which was administered through our CSA) will come directly from the Archdiocese. We appreciate your generosity in 2020! Thank you.

January 24, 2021      Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Hymns, Prayers, and Readings for Mass

Opening Hymn: Lead Me, Guide Me

Refrain:      Lead me, guide me, along the way, for if you lead me I cannot stray.
                  Lord, let me walk each day with thee. Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

Verse 1:      I am weak and I need thy strength and pow'r
                  To help me over my weakest hour.
                  Help me through the darkness thy face to see.
                  Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

Glory to God in the Highest

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

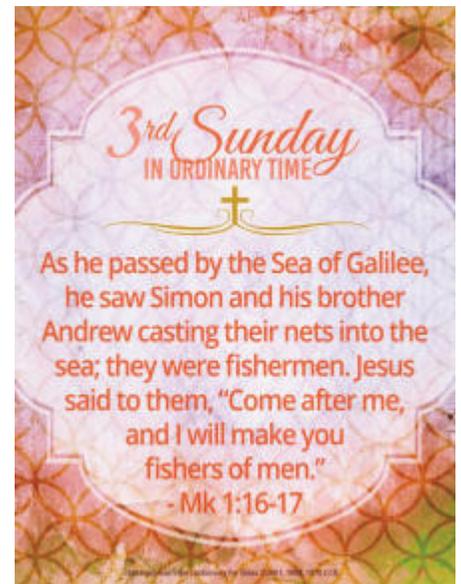

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading:    Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them;
he did not carry it out.

January 24, 2021      Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Hymns, Prayers, and Readings for Mass

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 25

Response:      To you, O Lord, I lift my soul, to you, I lift my soul.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6: 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

Gospel: Mark 1: 14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

January 24, 2021      Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Hymns, Prayers, and Readings for Mass

Prayers of the Faithful Response: This is the time of fulfillment, help us, Lord.

Preparation Hymn: These Alone Are Enough

Verse 1: Take my heart, O Lord, take my hopes and dreams.
Take my mind with all its plans and schemes.

Refrain: Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough for me.

Communion Hymn: Lord, When You Came

Refrain: O Lord, in my eyes you were gazing,
Kindly smiling, my name you were saying:
All I treasured, I have left on the sand there;
Close to you, I will find other seas.

Closing Hymn: All Things New

Refrain: Sing a new song! Rejoice! The dawn is breaking,
The earth is waking, its dreams come true.
And do you hear the voice, darkness surprising,
Sing in its rising: "See, I am making all things new!"

Verse 1: Whom shall we live for?
Whose mighty hand made the moon, the sun and stars on high?
Who made a way for us through water and the sand,
Brought us out of slavery and fed us from the sky?

A Prayer for Civility (from the USCCB website)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where uncivil words prevail, show me how to model love.
Help me remember the God-given dignity of all and invite others to do the same.
Show me how to build bridges and not walls and see first what unites us rather than how we diverge.
Let me seek to understand before asking to be understood.
Give me a listening heart filled with empathy and compassion.
May I be clear in sharing my own position and respectful and civil in describing those of others.
Let me never tolerate hateful ideas. May I invite all to charity and love.
Lord, help me to imitate your compassion and mercy. Make me an instrument of your peace. Amen.

In today's First Reading, God prompts the prophet Jonah to carry out His message in warning the people of Nineveh to turn from their wicked ways and repent, which they do. In St. Mark's Gospel, the evangelist tells of Jesus' invitation to Simon-Peter, Andrew, James, and John to discipleship in Him. They respond immediately, abandoning their fishing businesses and leaving their families — ultimately, sacrificing everything — to follow Jesus. Their acts considered radical in our Lord's day would be considered just as radical in today's secular society. As steward disciples seeking to deepen our relationship in Christ, we, also, must be willing to open our hearts to His true peace, joy, and happiness. Then, in a spirit of evangelization, we will be sent to spread His Good News to those we meet. This is our task as joyful missionary disciples. An organization that supports missionary discipleship is St. Paul Street Evangelization. Join a local team at streetevangelization.com.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there. And unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
