Please contact the Parish Office to add someone to this prayer list, our prayers at Mass, and/or the Prayer Chain. We would be happy to visit or bring Communion to you or your loved ones, as well.

FR KRAMER'S KORNER

SALAM ! SHALOM ! PAX ! PEACE ! And, of course, BIEN ANO NUEVO ... HAPPY NEW YEAR ! And, as is always the case here at Resurrection, WELCOME TO ALL ! We are so pleased that each of you is with us at this time. Your presence insures that we are indeed a COMMUNITY of FAITH , ACTION and FRIENDS. You and your families are our greatest treasures ! As was true for the Magi when they visited the Holy Family in Bethlehem, it was NOT the Gold, Frankincense or Myrrh that were important, but the Gift of God that is the Person of JESUS that made us all NOBLE, EMPOWERED and HOLY. Each year as we recall that visit, we have the opportunity to re-commit ourselves to being that Community where Faith, Hope and Love are experienced and shared, encouraged and fed. May the Holy Spirit's guidance and power in the days ahead enrich us with such grace ! HAPPY NEW YEAR !

Each year one of my privileges is to thank and acknowledge all those who have made the Advent and Christmas Seasons so joyful and meaningful. So, THANK YOU to ALL of you ! Even a partial list of participants is long : your Staff, the Music Ministries under Peter Cartwright, the many liturgical groups, eg. the ushers, the welcomers, the Gym set-up and takedown teams, the lectors, the EME's, those who decorate the Church and those who decorate the outside grounds, all those who have organized the many Out-reach programs for those of our neighbors near and far in need – especially at this time of year, those who have empowered the Faith of others by leading in the RCIA and the REP, Baptism and Wedding preparation programs. Of course, it is the participation of ALL that makes all the efforts worthwhile ! So, again, THANK YOU one and all ! HAPPY NEW YEAR !

On Saturday, January 15, after the 4 p.m. Mass, there will be a dedication of the Social Hall in memory of Ric Craffey. After a brief ceremony, there will be refreshments and time to mingle and recall Ric. Please join us for this moment.

FR TOM KRAMER

As we move into the new year, the priests of our area – Resurrection, Good Counsel, Neumann and Becket – will begin meetings to discuss the implementation of our FAMILY of PARISHES program. We are in the so-called Second Wave of two. Informal discussions suggest, as well as discussions with those parishes in the so-called First Wave, that much will require several years of effort and cooperation. The AOD – Archdiocese of Detroit – says NO DECISIONS have been made yet. However, as the first groups go through the process, issues do arise that require similar responses across the AOD. So, some shadows concerning the future are emerging. PRAY ABOUT THIS PROCESS ! (There will be a Town Hall meeting about this here on Sunday, January 23rd at 12:15 pm)

Remember, YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE ! WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER. Get Vaccinated ! Respect the on-going pandemic. Be decent to all about you. BE RESURRECTION ALIVE ! Christ IS RISEN ! Alleluia ! He is RISEN indeed ! Alleluia ! WELCOME and MERRY CHRISTMAS !

Fr. Tom

RESURRECTION PARISH'S GIFT TO YOU THIS CHRISTMAS

THREE DAYS: THE SEARCH FOR THE BOY MESSIAH

Make sure to pick up your family's copy of Chris Stepien's biblical novel Three Days: The Search for the Boy Messiah, Resurrection's gift to you this Christmas. Copies are available in the Gathering Space while supplies last.

In the Bible we are told Jesus was lost in the temple for three days when he traveled to Jerusalem for Passover with Mary and Joseph. Why did he stay behind? What did he do? Who did he meet? Where did he sleep? Was he ever in danger? This exciting, biblical novel will intrigue your imagination and deepen your faith.

RESURRECTION TO HOST YOUTH REFUGEE ART SHOW ON JANUARY 30TH

Resurrection will host a January 30th open house that showcases works by young refugees in foster care. Parish members, along with the general public, are invited to attend the show; there is no admission charge.

“Written Dreams in Paper”, open 3-5 p.m. at Resurrection, offers a chance to learn more about young people who are refugees and graduates of the foster care programs sponsored by Samaritas. The agency operates a foster care program for young people fleeing their homelands. There will be speakers while you browse the art, including some young adults who have graduated from the foster care program.

“Only about 30 programs in the United States specialize in serving unaccompanied refugee minors,” said Kayla Park, Community Outreach Team Leader for Samaritas. “The U.S. is the only country with a program designed to serve these unaccompanied refugees, so we are working with youth from all around the world.” This program of Samaritas began in the 1970s, serving children from Vietnam.

Foster children often come out of traumatic situations, but refugee youth “have experienced a very different kind of trauma,” Park said. Because it’s often difficult to find their families, the American foster placement many times becomes permanent.

In 2015, a group of agencies providing services to refugees started celebrating “Refugee Sunday” to raise awareness. The art project emerged from that effort. “It ended up being a big success,” Park said. Now each child creates their own artwork in a variety of media. “We’ve had sculptures, we’ve had photos, we’ve had stories, but the vast majority of the youth prefer to paint.”

Through the gallery events, young people share stories and a clearer picture of the refugee experience. Some paint border crossings or their life in a refugee camp. Art provides an emotional outlet, and the young artists build their portfolios, Park said.

Visitors to the exhibit can purchase prints and other gift items. You can also view the art at: samaritas.org/Youth-Art-Show. For more information, or to volunteer to help at the art show, contact Bonnie Reyes at 734-546-0444 or breyes9219@gmail.com
