FR KRAMER'S KORNER

SALAM ! SHALOM ! PAX ! PEACE ! This week we have two connected yet distinct activities to celebrate. A couple of years ago Pope Francis designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time ( today ) as 'The Word of God' Sunday. By doing so, he helps us focus on one of the central beliefs of our Church. We believe that the BIBLE is indeed the WORD of GOD ! Further, we have made a very sincere effort to make the connection between everything we teach and all that we do WITH the Bible. After 50 years of the expanded readings for Sundays and Weekdays, searching Scriptures when celebrating Weddings and Funerals and special events like Confirmations, Reconciliations and Anointing, we Catholics have made good use of the efforts and created wonderful 'rituals' ( books for doing such events ) full of appropriate Bible readings. CATHOLICISM IS a 'BIBLE CHURCH'. Further, each of us is encouraged to regularly read the Bible on our own as well. Get a good paperback version and make it your constant companion. ( Call the Office for suggestions.)

At this time we are also in the mist of the Octave For Christian Unity. Begun long ago by the Grey Friars in New York, it both celebrates and encourages interaction, common prayer and joint efforts by Christians of all denominations. We ourselves will have such an event in a couple of weeks with the Young Refugee Art Show we will do with Samaritas / Lutheran Social Services. PLEASE join us ! Bring a friend or neighbor. Support these young people by supporting this joint Christian activity.

Last week we had the wonderful dedication of the Social Hall in memory of RICHARD 'RIC' CRAFFEY. He died a couple of months ago. Saturday was a beautiful day for the event. THANK YOU and CONGRATULATIONS to the team who brought this together, especially Rich and Bev Antoun, Carol Seale, Mary Ann Rizzo and Linda Kraynek. You did Ric well ! And Thank You to all who attended.

In reflecting upon Ric and his influence here at Resurrection, I made the connection between the Gospel – where Jesus TRANSFORMS the water into wine – with the TRANSFORMATIONS Ric achieved here. Among others, he could transform any gathering into a celebration. He would transform Strangers into friends. He could transform doubt and fear into Faith, Hope and Love in Action. He did nothing special ! He just SMILED.

He WELCOMED. And he took your hand and worked with you, beside you. He changed the world. With Jesus, he leaves us the heritage of being able to do the same ! And YES, these things do Heal, Enlighten Protect and Encourage

FR TOM KRAMER

Life, sow Peace. Thank You, Ric ! Thank You, God ! And, Thank You to all who have allowed yourselves to be Transformed by Them here at Resurrection. Remember, YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE ! WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER. Get Vaccinated ! Respect the on-going pandemic. Be decent to all about you. BE RESURRECTION ALIVE ! Christ IS RISEN ! Alleluia ! He is RISEN indeed ! Alleluia

Fr. Tom

DEDICATION OF THE RIC CRAFFEY SOCIAL HALL

The Resurrection family gathered last Saturday, Jan 15th, to remember and honor our friend Ric Craffey who devoted 30 years of service to the Resurrection Community and modeled faith, hospitality, and service. A dedication plaque will hang in the Social Hall and a sign will be placed over the doors reading "Richard T Craffey Social Hall". A maple tree was planted in Ric's honor (just south of our mailbox) in the fall and a small sign will be placed nearby when the weather warms up.

Fr Perfetto, Deacon Paul, Rich Antoun, and Barb Dyke shared some fond remembrances and reminded us of all that Ric gave to Resurrection. Fr Tom then blessed the hall along with the plaques.

Many thanks to Rich Antoun for emceeing and planning the event and to Bev Antoun, Carol Seale, Mary Ann Rizzo, and Linda Kraynek for the beautiful decorations and delicious food.

WOMEN'S RETREAT WEEKEND AT ST PAUL OF THE CROSS

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18 THROUGH SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Bouncing back; living in hope is the theme of the retreat weekend at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center. Hope is the knowledge that even when life is difficult it can be lived in a meaningful way.

In his book "Dream," Pope Francis says "the question is whether you're going to come through this crisis (the pandemic) and if so, how? The basic rule of a crisis is that you don't come out of it the same. If you get through it, you come out better or worse, but never the same."

How are you handling this crisis? How are you going to come out of it? Come join other women from Resurrection as well as others from around the area to come and fill ourselves with the hope we get through Jesus!

Women from Resurrection are attending the weekend of Feb 18th – 20st. Contact Laura Huben at lhuben1018@gmail.com or Christine at St. Paul's at ccalleja@stpaulretreat.org if you have any questions.

A LAMORA CLINIC REFLECTION

Dear Parishioners,

If you are like me, January is the month when closets get cleaned and all those little chores that we put off during the warm weather and then the holidays, finally get done. While challenging myself to clean out those closets, I came across the following article that I wrote after Tim and I went to El Salvador for the first time, in 2009. Many of you will remember our beloved Deacon Don Leach who started Resurrection parish's efforts to help support the La Mora medical clinic. He had requested that I share our first experience going to El Salvador with both Resurrection and Our Lady of Good Counsel parishes. I believe it is even more relevant today.

"A Faith Journey" / March, 2009

"Several weeks ago, my husband, Tim, and I returned from a trip to El Salvador sponsored by CRISPAZ (Christians for Peace in El Salvador). We had initially learned about these annual trips in which both Resurrection and Our Lady of Good Counsel parishioners were invited to participate when we attended a one day retreat given by Deacon Don Leach. As you can all testify, Deacon Don is an inspirational voice especially as it relates to the poor. Little did Tim and I know that that day would begin a journey which resulted in our decision to make a trip this March - a trip which has truly changed our lives forever.

When we made the commitment to go with this year's delegation, we felt that the Holy Spirit was nudging us to do this but we really had very little idea what to expect. I just kept recalling Deacon Don's statement at that retreat - 'To know Christ, (con't on page 7)

RESURRECTION TO HOST YOUTH REFUGEE ART SHOW ON JANUARY 30TH

Written Dreams in Paper
Suenos Escritos en Papel

We are hosting an Art Exhibit on January 30, 2022 from 3 to 5 pm. The Artwork is all created by Refugee Young People who are in foster care under programs run by Samaritas. This agency operates a foster care program for young people fleeing their homelands. There is no charge for admission to the Exhibit and the public is invited.

The Exhibit will feature speakers and refreshments while you browse the art. Some young adults who have graduated from the foster care program will be present to share their experiences. Visitors may purchase art prints and other gift items. You can also view the art at Samaritas.org/Youth-Art-Show.

We could use some help to assist with set up and hosting the exhibit, or you may provide some snacks for our guests to enjoy at the exhibit. Contact Bonnie Reyes at bonniereyes@yahoo.com for more information or to volunteer.

you must know the poor'. That simple but profound statement kept coming back to me and it overcame any apprehension I may have had. Tim was a good sport in all of this and not only supported me but even came along for the ride. And what a ride it has been!

When we began to prepare for our delegation to go, we did readings, watched films and, in the process, started to know one another and share our fears and goals for this journey. There were seven of us and we began to coalesce as a group of Christians who were opening ourselves to an extraordinary experience of grace. When Tim and I struggled with questions from family and friends about what we would be "doing" there, we responded with what we were gradually coming to understand ourselves - we were going to spend one week walking in solidarity with the Salvadoran people. This "walking" resulted in spending time listening to stories which were heartbreaking and breathtaking in their courage and faith. We came to understand the ravages of civil war and poverty on individuals, families and society. We saw people who live lives of incredible courage and their determination to take care of their families despite obstacles that the average American cannot even imagine. We saw a community spirit which humbled me. We met a Supreme Court Justice whose husband was a human rights activist who was murdered during the twelve year civil war in El Salvador. She went on to dedicate her life to continuing his work and raising their five children who had witnessed their father's assassination. We went to schools, operated on shoestring budgets, which provide not only an education but also safe places for children who otherwise might be induced to join gangs out of a sense of hopelessness and a need to belong. We toured a coffee cooperative plantation and witnessed the backbreaking work these individuals do in order to provide for their families. We were privileged to stand where Archbishop Romero preached his last homily prior to his assassination at the altar in a simple hospital chapel. We traveled to the La Mora Clinic and saw first hand what our parish has done and continues to do in order to provide assistance and hope. It was extremely gratifying to stand in the clinic and to see the mothers with small children on their laps waiting for medical care which before was not available. I stood there and wished each one of you could see for yourselves the gratitude in the eyes of these women and men who are looking for the same thing that we are all seeking - a decent life for our children. Visiting the clinic and the villages the same thought kept coming to mind - 'We are all brothers and sisters in Christ'.

I will close by asking you to continue to support the clinic not only financially but also spiritually. Please keep the Salvadoran people in your prayers. Know that our work as a parish is doing tremendous good and that the people who benefit are enormously grateful."

UPDATE - As you know, Fr. Tom, Tim and I and several others had the privilege of going to El Salvador again two years ago. It was another impetus to continue our efforts as a parish on behalf of the Salvadoran people who continue to suffer. If you too feel the nudge of the Holy Spirit I encourage you to open your mind and heart to that gentle persuasion. Our committee welcomes newcomers with open arms. If you would like to explore ways you too can be part of this ministry, please contact Tim Simms at tsimms@wowway.com or 734.679.7209.

Peace and all good,
Marti Simms
