JUNE 27, 2021 THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

This weekend is the last weekend in June and also the end of the first half of the year. Time goes fast. Many of you are taking deserved vacations and I wish you nice weather, quiet time and many blessings that will help you to live in the presence of the God. Do not forget to pray, read the Bible and attend Sunday Masses even being on vacation. In today's first reading we learned that "God formed man to be imperishable" even when he dies. And we are imperishable in a sense that we live in people's memories. When we recall their being with us, our hearts are moved and we stay and live in their hearts. There is also another sense of "to be imperishable". It is a new eternal life in God's Kingdom. Do you think about having a soul that is eternal? Do you take good care of your soul? Look what Jesus did in today's Gospel reading with the daughter of Jairus, one of the synagogue officials. She was dying and Jesus prevented her from dying by taking her hand and saying: "Little girl, I say to you, arise? It is a great lesson of Jesus. Our soul and body must be integrated. We are human by having a body and soul. Both of them require good care. Be good to yourself and remember that we are imperishable not only to God but to each other. Treat each other with respect and love.

I think that the Our Lady of Medjugorje 40th Anniversary Mass last Friday went well. Many thanks to those who sponsored it and I hope that many of us benefited spiritually from that celebration. It was a good way to take care of our soul.

This weekend we will observe First Friday and First Saturday. I hope that you can find time to be at those Masses. See page 2 of the bulletin for the times. It will also be the 4th of July weekend.

God Bless you,

Fr. Bogdan

Prayer to St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil.

Amen.

St. Vincent de Paul

PANTRY UPDATE

Items our Food Pantry could use at this time:

- Toothpaste and tooth brushes, bar soap
- Canned baked beans, canned chili and beef stew
- Hearty soups, saltine crackers, snack crackers
- Individual lunch snacks, pudding, jello, granola bars, small juices
- boxed potatoes, rice and pasta mixes
- laundry and dish soap

Thank you for helping us feed those in need! Remember, young children will be out of school and need fuel for hours of activity!

Gratefully,
St. Faustina Conference, St, Vincent de Paul

Parish Registration

Why is it important to be registered in a parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years think they are still registered under their parents. But membership requires signing up - formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish. Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses and programs are planned and scheduled. Registration shows you belong! It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for tax purposes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

First Reading:                    Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living.
 For he fashioned all things that they might have being;
 and the creatures of the world are wholesome,
 and there is not a destructive drug among them
 nor any domain of the netherworld on earth,
 for justice is undying.
 For God formed man to be imperishable;
 the image of his own nature he made him.
 But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world,
 and they who belong to his company experience it.

Responsorial Psalm    30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. (2a) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.
 O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld;
 you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones,
 and give thanks to his holy name.
 For his anger lasts but a moment;
 a lifetime, his good will.
 At nightfall, weeping enters in,
 but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me;
 O LORD, be my helper.
 You changed my mourning into dancing;
 O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Second Reading:                    2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters:
 As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you,
 may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor,
 so that by his poverty you might become rich.
 Not that others should have relief while you are burdened,
 but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs,
 so that their abundance may also supply your needs,
 that there may be equality.

As it is written:

*Whoever had much did not have more,
 and whoever had little did not have less.*

Gospel*Mk 5:21-24 35b-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.

When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Excerpts from St. Faustina's Diary

St. Faustina's Diary is a compilation of her personal spiritual journey: how she encountered Jesus and what He said directly to her. It's a beautiful testimony of faith, showing how trust in the Lord, especially in times of uncertainty and doubt is absolutely essential.

(June 27). Today, I saw the convent of the new Congregation. It was a large and spacious building. I went from room to room, observing everything. I saw that God's Providence had provided for all that was necessary. The persons living in this convent were still wearing lay clothes, but a thoroughly religious spirit reigned there, and I was organizing everything just as the Lord wanted. All of a sudden, I heard a rebuke from one of our sisters, "Sister, how can you carry out such works?" I answered that it was not I, but the Lord working through me, and that I had the authorization for everything. During Mass, I received light and profound understanding concerning this whole work, and not a shadow of a doubt remained in my soul. (1154) page 423

The Lord gave me knowledge of His will under three aspects, so to speak, but it all comes down to one. The first is that souls separated from the world will burn as an offering before God's throne and beg for mercy for the whole world...and by their entreaties they will obtain blessings for priests, and through their prayers prepare the world for the final coming of Jesus (1155) page 423

Society of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Faustina Conference

Parishioners who generously donate clothing and shoes will notice that the collection bins have been removed from our St. Faustina parking lot.

We encourage anyone who has donations of clean, useable items for the SVdP thrift stores to take donations directly to one of the stores in our area. There is one located on Stephenson, just south of 12 Mile in Madison Heights. Another store is in Utica, north of M-59 on Van Dyke. We support the Madison Heights store by having a volunteer working at that location. If anyone in our parish is looking for an opportunity to do volunteer work at a thrift store, contact our office at 586-773-9231 for more information. Our volunteers "earn" credit that we are able to give to those in need to shop for clothing and household items. The stores are brimming with interesting items to choose from at reasonable prices if you are a shopper!

St. Vincent de Paul will pick up larger donations at your home. Call 313-393-3025 to inquire about pick up from home.

Finally, our Conference here at St. Faustina will arrange for a "Bundle Sunday" which means a truck will be available at our church location to accept donations on a particular weekend. We will notify you in the bulletin when we plan this.

Thank you for your generous support!

Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others - no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov.

More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Registration

Parishioners may register in person, by phone, or online.

Baptism

At least one parent needs to be registered, active and a practicing Catholic for at least six months. A Baptismal Preparation Class is required for both parents and godparents. The church requires that at least one of the godparents be an active and practicing Catholic. For more information call the Parish Office.

Marriages

Arrange at least six months in advance.

Communion Calls

Pastoral Staff members visit the sick in the hospital when possible and take Communion to the sick and homebound regularly. Names of the sick should be reported to the Parish Office.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact the Parish Office or send an email to stfaustina@comcast.net

St. Faustina is extending a personal invitation to you so that we can help with your spiritual needs.

If you have been baptized and have made your First Holy Communion, please contact Fr. Bogdan to inquire about Confirmation.
