OCTOBER 24, 2021 THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

Last week, Thursday October 21st our Archbishop Allen Vigneron celebrated his 73rd Birthday. With the preparation of the bulletin in advance, I missed to inform us about his special day, but I did not forget him in prayer and our prayer group also prayed for him. I remember him when he was an Auxiliary Bishop in Detroit and attended our Annual 40 Hour Devotion at Our Lady Queen of Apostles. At that time, there were many people, priests, nuns and deacons who attended this beautiful devotion with a banquet to follow. His birthday fell on the Vigil of the Feast Day of St. John Paul II, that is observed on October 22nd. His papacy was 27 years long. He wrote many official documents and encyclicals for the Church: The Gospel of Life, Faith and Reason, the Splendor of Truth, Redeemer of Man. His Encyclicals and all writings should be read and discussed by all of us, particularly Politician's, Teachers, Doctors, Bishops, Priests, etc. They contain wisdom that should be implemented into our lives. St. John Paul II pray for us.

While practicing COVID restrictions, many students are attending classes regularly and I am very grateful to all the teachers who are dedicating their time to educate and format the children on behalf of their families. May God bless our teachers Debbie Carlisi, Lisa Cracchiolo, Marsha King, Lena Kraft, Mary Mataczynski, Adrianna Tilton and Gary Zilli for their faith and desire to share their faith with the younger generation. Keep our teachers in your prayers.

We have a long list of those who are sick. There are some who do not want their names to be published in the bulletin. We have to also keep them in our prayers. Today, we have to pray for them and when we get sick our healthy brothers and sisters will pray for us. Prayer has power.

May God Bless you all,

Fr. Bogdan

Generally, All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day. We are asking that our students meet for the Monday, November 1st class at 5:50 PM and we will go into church as a group. Parents/guardians and family members are also invited to attend. We will also end class after Mass, approximately by 6:50 and we will release students from the Family Center as always.

The day commemorates all those who have attained the beatific vision in Heaven. It is a national holiday in many historically Catholic countries. In the Roman Catholic Church, the next day, All Souls' Day, specifically commemorates the departed faithful who have not yet been purified and reached heaven. Catholics celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day in the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual communion between those in the state of grace who have died and are either being purified in purgatory or are in heaven (the 'church penitent' and the 'church triumphant', respectively), and the 'church militant' who are the living. Other Christian traditions define, remember, and respond to the saints in different ways.

The Saint in which our church was named after, Saint Faustina, is the ideal role model for Eucharistic Apostles of The Divine Mercy, especially in light of her love of the Eucharist, and her virtuous life as exemplified by doing spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Saint Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), a simple, uneducated nun from Poland, that the Lord chose to spread the Divine Mercy message and devotion. "My daughter, be at peace; do as I tell you. Your thoughts are united to My thoughts, so write whatever comes to your mind. You are the secretary of My mercy. I have chosen you for that office in this life and the next life. That is how I want it to be in spite of all the opposition they will give you. Know that My choice will not change" (Diary, 1605).

God's Blessings,
Lynn McKnight, DRE St. Faustina Church

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First Reading:Jer 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD:
 Shout with joy for Jacob,
 exult at the head of the nations;
 proclaim your praise and say:
 The LORD has delivered his people,
 the remnant of Israel.
 Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north;
 I will gather them from the ends of the world,
 with the blind and the lame in their midst,
 the mothers and those with child;
 they shall return as an immense throng.
 They departed in tears,
 but I will console them and guide them;
 I will lead them to brooks of water,
 on a level road, so that none shall stumble.
 For I am a father to Israel,
 Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial Psalm PS 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. (3) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
 we were like men dreaming.
 Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
 and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations,
 "The LORD has done great things for them."
 The LORD has done great things for us;
 we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
 like the torrents in the southern desert.
 Those that sow in tears
 shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping,
 carrying the seed to be sown,
 They shall come back rejoicing,
 carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading:Heb 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters:
 Every high priest is taken from among men
 and made their representative before God,
 to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.
 He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people.
 No one takes this honor upon himself
 but only when called by God,
 just as Aaron was.
 In the same way,
 it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest,
 but rather the one who said to him:
*You are my son:
 this day I have begotten you;*
 just as he says in another place:
*You are a priest forever
 according to the order of Melchizedek.*

AlleluiaCf. 2 Tm 1:10*R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.Gospel*Mk 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples
and a sizable crowd,

Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus,
sat by the roadside begging.

On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth,
he began to cry out and say,

"Jesus, son of David, have pity on me."

And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent.

But he kept calling out all the more,

"Son of David, have pity on me."

Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called the blind man, saying to him,

"Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you."

He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."

Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you."

Immediately he received his sight
and followed him on the way.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,

and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 24, 2021 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we see God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, it is only then that we will be able to cry out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" We have to truly want to be healed by, and in union with, God in order for us to reach out to him. If God is only an abstract idea, theory, or someone found in the pages of a book, there is no motivation for a relationship and no desire to seek him. God needs to be real in order for faith to be real. It's all about the journey.

St. Augustine reminds us that "to fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement." We strive after many things and mercy is not always one of them. We think that we can find fulfillment and healing in other things only to discover that we are still short and empty. From the moment human beings were created, God has been calling us and seeking us. He has been walking right beside the human story from the minute He first breathed life into the first human soul. Are we able to recognize God as He walks with us? At some point we have to realize that there is only one way to satisfy the deepest longings of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. We are called to this. However, we make the huge error of thinking that what we are hearing is coming from somewhere else. We become confused. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong.

Then and only then will we realize that it is only our Divine Master who can give us true vision and heal us. Once we recognize and reach out for the merciful presence of our loving Maker, we will be able to see with our soul, understanding the true nature and depth of all things. God's mercy is always available. It doesn't matter how far we have strayed or how blind we become, God patiently waits to console us, guide us and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him. Once we reach out, we also realize that there is no greater love to be found than God's, no human adventure that comes even close to the thrill of a spiritual search, and no human achievement even remotely as satisfying as union with Him. This is where we belong. This is salvation.

St. Faustina Conference thanks all of the parishioners who made our donation drive such an outstanding success! We did a great job of filling the truck with a wide variety of items to stock our thrift stores which allows us to help our Neighbors in Need. I sincerely thank the Vincentians and volunteers who worked as a team to make this happen!

Very Gratefully,

Thanksgiving and Christmas are just around the corner. St. Vincent de Paul will again be assisting our neighbors in need with a few extra items in their Thanksgiving and Christmas Bags. The following items are needed, canned yams, canned cranberry sauce, stovetop stuffing, chicken or turkey gravy, chicken or turkey broth, cornbread mix, brownie mix, cake mix, frosting, pudding, and jello.

Thank you and God Bless St. Faustina parishioners, as you help us help our neighbors in need who otherwise would not have groceries for the holidays. Please stay safe and healthy.

Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others - no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov. More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Registration

Parishioners may register in person, by phone, or online.

Baptism

At least one parent needs to be registered, active and a practicing Catholic for at least six months. A Baptismal Preparation Class is required for both parents and godparents. The church requires that at least one of the godparents be an active and practicing Catholic. For more information call the Parish Office.

Marriages

Arrange at least six months in advance.

Communion Calls

Pastoral Staff members visit the sick in the hospital when possible and take Communion to the sick and homebound regularly. Names of the sick should be reported to the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact the Parish Office or send an email to stfaustina@comcast.net

St. Faustina is extending a personal invitation to you so that we can help with your spiritual needs.

If you have been baptized and have made your First Holy Communion, please contact Fr. Bogdan to inquire about Confirmation.
