OCTOBER 31, 2021 THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

It is the last weekend of October and it is also Halloween, the day that is getting a bit of attention. I wish to all of you a safe Halloween Evening. Many thanks to those who donated candy for the Seminarians at Sacred Heart Seminary that will be shared with the Trick or Treaters at the seminary. Tomorrow November 1st is All Saints Day to honor all Saints in a common feast. The Church, through the beatification and canonization, recognizes men and women as Saints because during their lifetime they conducted holy lives, like Fr. Solonus, St. Teresa, St. John Paul, Fr. Pio and hundreds more. Besides those, there are many others who lived in this world as holy and on Monday we will pray with them and for them. There will be two Masses: 9 a.m. & 6 p.m.

Tuesday, November 2nd is a day of commemoration of all the faithful departed. It is a great occasion for us to pray for our beloved parents, spouses, siblings, relatives and even friends who passed away and are awaiting salvation. Our prayers can support their entry into heaven. On All Souls Day the Mass will be at 9 a.m. Besides praying for the deceased members, let us keep in our prayers those who are sick and their names are on the prayer list. Among those is our Chairperson of the Finance Council, Jim McKnight, who had surgery last Tuesday.

On Friday, November 5th we will have First Friday Devotions after the 9 a.m. Mass and on Saturday November 6th, we will have First Saturday and Marian Devotions.

Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour next Saturday evening as Daylight Savings Time ends.

May God Bless you all,

Fr. Bogdan

“Eternal rest grant onto them O Lord and let the perpetual light shine upon them”

First Saturday Devotions

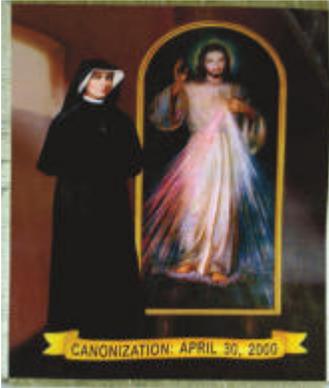

In addition to the apparitions of our Blessed Mother to the children of Fatima between May 13, 1917 and October 13, 1917, Sister Lucia received a visit from our Blessed Mother and the Child Jesus on December 10, 1925. The Child Jesus said: "Have compassion on the Heart of your Most Holy Mother, covered with thorns, with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment, and there is no one to make an act of reparation to remove them." Then our Blessed Mother said: "...I promise to assist at the hour of death, with all the graces necessary for salvation, all those who on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, pray the Rosary, and keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to me."

Please join us here at St. Faustina every First Saturday of the month as we fulfill the request made by Jesus and our Blessed Mother.

Faith FORMATIONSM

Generally, All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day. We are asking that our students meet for the Monday, November 1st class at 5:50 PM and we will go into church as a group. Parents/guardians and family members are also invited to attend. We will also end class after Mass, approximately by 6:50 and we will release students from the Family Center as always. The day commemorates all those who have attained the beatific vision in Heaven. It is a national holiday in many historically Catholic countries. In the Roman Catholic Church, the next day, All Souls' Day, specifically commemorates the departed faithful who have not yet been purified and reached heaven. Catholics celebrate All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day in the fundamental belief that there is a prayerful spiritual communion between those in the state of grace who have died and are either being purified in purgatory or are in heaven (the 'church penitent' and the 'church triumphant', respectively), and the 'church militant' who are the living. Other Christian traditions define, remember, and respond to the saints in different ways.

The Saint in which our church was named after, Saint Faustina, is the ideal role model for Eucharistic Apostles of The Divine Mercy, especially in light of her love of the Eucharist, and her virtuous life as exemplified by doing spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Saint Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), a simple, uneducated nun from Poland, that the Lord chose to spread the Divine Mercy message and devotion. "My daughter, be at peace; do as I tell you. Your thoughts are united to My thoughts, so write whatever comes to your mind. You are the secretary of My mercy. I have chosen you for that office in this life and the next life. That is how I want it to be in spite of all the opposition they will give you. Know that My choice will not change" (Diary, 1605).

God's Blessings,
Lynn McKnight, DRE St. Faustina Church

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

First Reading:Dt 6:2-6

Moses spoke to the people, saying:
 "Fear the LORD, your God,
 and keep, throughout the days of your lives,
 all his statutes and commandments which I en-
 join on you,
 and thus have long life.
 Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them,
 that you may grow and prosper the more,
 in keeping with the promise of the LORD, the God of your fathers,
 to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.
 "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!
 Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God,
 with all your heart,
 and with all your soul,
 and with all your strength.
 Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

Responsorial Psalm PS 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 61

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength,
 O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge,
 my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!
 Praised be the LORD, I exclaim,
 and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives! And blessed be my rock!
 Extolled be God my savior.
 You who gave great victories to your king
 and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading:Heb 7:23-28

Brothers and sisters:
 The levitical priests were many because they were prevented by death from remaining in office,
 but Jesus, because he remains forever,
 has a priesthood that does not pass away.
 Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them.

It was fitting that we should have such a high priest:
 holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners,
 higher than the heavens.
 He has no need, as did the high priests,
 to offer sacrifice day after day,
 first for his own sins and then for those of the people;
 he did that once for all when he offered himself.
 For the law appoints men subject to weakness to be high priests,
 but the word of the oath, which was taken after the law,
 appoints a son,
 who has been made perfect forever.

AlleluiaJn 14:26*R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord;
and my father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.Gospel*Mk 12:28b-34-52

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him,

"Which is the first of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied, "The first is this:

Hear, O Israel!

The Lord our God is Lord alone!

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

The second is this:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

There is no other commandment greater than these."

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher.

You are right in saying,

'He is One and there is no other than he.'

And 'to love him with all your heart,

with all your understanding,

with all your strength,

and to love your neighbor as yourself

is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding,

he said to him,

"You are not far from the kingdom of God."

And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,

and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead

and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 31, 2021 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Centuries of God's devoted people have found this prayer on their lips: "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!" The fundamental prayer has been laid as the cornerstone of many spiritual lives. Where did you learn how to pray or did you? Maybe there is a wisdom figure in your life who inspired and guided you by the genuine, holy simplicity of their lives. His or her example may have led you to God and taught you how to pray. Or perhaps you discovered this art on your own after stumbling over yourself enough times and finally realizing it was time to reach out to Someone greater than yourself. There is a timeless truth that we not only tend to forget, but may have never learned. There is only one God, the Lord alone! As a result, we often worship other gods rather than the One true God. Everything in our life gets distorted and we find ourselves lost and off center.

If we haven't learned it yet, there is a life lesson at the top of all of the possible lessons to be learned. There is One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. Until we learn this primary lesson, we run the risk of getting distracted and sidetracked. We will also never really figure out what is at the heart of the relationships we share with the other human beings on this planet with whom we share life. That one primary lesson will teach us the second most valuable lesson: that we must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. The presence of God in the core soul of each one of us requires that all of our relationships work together. This truth is at the heart of the Gospel.

If every human being, each in their own way, could stumble upon and genuinely embrace this truth, look how different life would be! Our priorities will immediately shift from "I and me" to "us and we" and we will develop a more inclusive vision for our brothers and sisters. Concerned not only about my own wellbeing and happiness but also that of our brothers and sisters, humanity stands a chance at succeeding in the struggle with injustice, abuse, inequity, violence, war, entitlement, and privilege. It seems that getting to this point has been at the heart of the Gospel and the kingdom of God from the moment Jesus first started to preach. It's a wonder why, then, why so many centuries later, we have still failed to achieve his vision. Maybe we just haven't learned our primary lessons yet.
