JANUARY 23, 2022 THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Praise be Jesus Christ and greetings to you my parishioners through my first column in this 2022 Year. I hope that you are doing well and that you stay healthy. I am sorry for those families, who lost their loved ones during these last few weeks. I kept them in my prayers. Covid 19 and its new phase continues to affect our lives, relationships and life styles. Many people are afraid to attend Sunday Masses. Please remember that taking care of your spiritual life contributes to your general health. Take good care of yourself. Many thanks to those who took care of me through prayers, wishes and Christmas gifts. You showed me how much you appreciate priests, services to the community, families and individuals. For that I am very thankful to you. I am glad that many people shared with me and my staff their opinion of the Christmas decorations that were beautiful, delicate and classy. It was a sign that we love God's entry into our lives through Christmas festivities. Thank you Susan, Lynn and my maintenance staff for putting up beautiful and expressive decorations. Many thanks to our generous parishioners who donated to the Church on the occasion of Christmas and for the flower donations. It is very natural that you support your church, become proud of your church and invite families and neighbors to your place of worship. May God continue to bless you throughout the 2022 New Year.

we offer apologies for any errors or omissions that might occur.

Faith FORMATION

Week after week I watch a dedicated group of volunteers accept and distribute many donated items. The St. Vincent De Paul group have quite a system. They shelve all the donated items, receive calls from local families that need their assistance. After taking the call from someone, they bag the items that were asked for and schedule a pickup day and time. The gratitude and appreciation I have witnessed is so very heart warming and God's work is done through their hands.

During the month of December, the wonderful works of the St. Vincent group partnered with Briarwood Elementary School and helped local families with food, laundry detergent, and items to have a wonderful holiday meal and much, much more.

A student from De La Salle picked up the donated items from Briarwood Elementary, where they had a food drive, and delivered them to St. Faustina for the many families to pick up. If you know of someone that needs help, please let them know about the wonderful works of the St. Faustina St. Vincent De Paul's wonderful works and act of kindness.

If you would like to donate, see the weekly church bulletin for items needed to keep their shelves stocked so they can continue to help those that need assistance.

Thank you for your numerous hours dedicated to our community.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading: Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly,
which consisted of men, women,
and those children old enough to understand.
Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate,
he read out of the book from daybreak till
midday,
in the presence of the men, the women,
and those children old enough to understand;
and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law.
Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform
that had been made for the occasion.
He opened the scroll
so that all the people might see it
— for he was standing higher up than any of the people —;
and, as he opened it, all the people rose.

First Reading (Cont'd)

Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God,
and all the people, their hands raised high, answered,
“Amen, amen!”
Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD,
their faces to the ground.
Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God,
interpreting it so that all could understand what was read.
Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe
and the Levites who were instructing the people
said to all the people:
“Today is holy to the LORD your God.
Do not be sad, and do not weep”—
for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law.
He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks,
and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared;
for today is holy to our LORD.
Do not be saddened this day,
for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 15R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.*Second Reading: 1 Cor 12:12-14, 27

Brothers and sisters:
As a body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body,
so also Christ.
For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,
whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.
Now the body is not a single part, but many.
You are Christ's body, and individually parts of it.

AlleluiaCf. 2 Thes 2:14*R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
and to proclaim liberty to captives.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.Gospel*Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the* Lord.

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sick List

It's time to update our parish sick list. If you need to remain of the sick list, please call the parish office. Remember, it needs to be the person who is ill or an immediate family member who makes the request. Not everyone wants their illness published.

Thank you,
