Father Bogdan's Corner

I hope you had a nice and safe Memorial Weekend along with the Celebration of the Ascension of the Lord. Before the Ascension, Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, who will teach us everything and remind us about the life in the Holy Spirit. Here we are in our beautifully decorated Church, by Susan Frost, to welcome the Holy Spirit to fill its breath. The followers of Christ, filled with the Holy Spirit and strengthened and encouraged by His grace, were fired up to spread the Gospel to all nations. Since that time the ancient world could not keep its culture and its leaders in check. The power of the Holy Spirit revolutionized the world and gave the beginning to the Church and along the way the beginning of Western Civilization. The Church became like a "Moral Compass" defined what is right and what is wrong. The Holy Spirit and the Church made a great contribution to the world by the distinction between civil power and spiritual power that led to the separation of the Church from the State. Separation made another big change that the State absorbed the things that the Church was doing: education, farming, medication, emancipation, etc. The Holy Spirit is very active in the present time leading the world through the process that we call today the Great Reset.

On June 19th we are planning to have a Eucharistic Procession following the 11 a.m. Mass. All Catholic Organizations are invited to carry their banners, Ushers, Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent DePaul, Rosary Society and Altar Servers.

We are still accepting flower donations.

May God Bless you all,

Fr. Bogdan

This weekend, the Church celebrates Pentecost, one of the most important feast days of the year that concludes the Easter season and celebrates the beginning of the Church. Pentecost always occurs 50 days after the death and resurrection of Jesus, and ten days after his ascension into heaven. The name of the day itself is derived from the Greek word "pentecoste," meaning 50th. The timing of these feasts is also where Catholics get the concept of the Novena - nine days of prayer - because in Acts 1, Mary and the Apostles prayed together "continuously" for nine days after the Ascension leading up to Pentecost.

SEND US YOUR SPIRIT!

Acts 1, 1-11

After Jesus was taken up to heaven the Apostles, Mary and other women and men gathered to pray together. They knew that they needed the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus, to begin the difficult task of giving witness to the Reign of God. Today, we continue to pray:

Jesus send us your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. You know our strengths and weaknesses. Transform us into messengers of your Gospel for those who yearn for you.

Jesus, send us your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. You know our history, with it's beautiful and painful experiences. Help us to be untiring promoters of a society based on love, justice, and peace.

Jesus, send us your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. You know our longing for love and community. Make us instruments of unity and service, especially for those who are weak and those who are lonely. Amen

A "strong, driving" wind filled the room where they were gathered, and tongues of fire came to rest on their heads, allowing them to speak in different languages so that they could understand each other - but Peter pointed out that it was only the morning, and said the phenomenon was caused by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit also gave the apostles the other gifts and fruits necessary to fulfill the great commission - to go out and preach the Gospel to all nations. It fulfills the New Testament promise from Christ (Luke 24:46-49) that the Apostles would be "clothed with power" before they would be sent out to spread the Gospel.

He also told the people that the Jesus they crucified is the Lord and was raised from the dead, which "cut them to the heart." When they asked what they should do, Peter exhorted them to repent of their sins and to be baptized. According to the account in Acts, about 3,000 people were baptized following Peter's sermon. For this reason, Pentecost is considered the birthday of the Church - The apostles and believers, for the first time, were united by a common language, and a common zeal and purpose to go and preach the Gospel.

Let the Holy Spirit guide us to go out and share the Faith with our youth and others.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

First Reading:Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled,
 they were all in one place together.
 And suddenly there came from the sky
 a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.
 Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire,
 which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues,
 as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.
 Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven
 staying in Jerusalem.
 At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd,
 but they were confused
 because each one heard them speaking in his own language.
 They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,
 “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?
 Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?
 We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,

FIRST READING (Cont'd)

Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene,
 as well as travelers from Rome,
 both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs,
 yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues
 of the mighty acts of God.”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
 O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
 How manifold are your works, O LORD!
 the earth is full of your creatures;

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
 may the LORD be glad in his works!
 Pleasing to him be my theme;
 I will be glad in the LORD.

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

If you take away their breath, they perish
 and return to their dust.
 When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
 and you renew the face of the earth.

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading:Rom 8:8-17

Brothers and sisters:
 Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.
 But you are not in the flesh;
 on the contrary, you are in the spirit,
 if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.
 Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
 But if Christ is in you,
 although the body is dead because of sin,
 the spirit is alive because of righteousness.
 If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you,
 the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also,
 through his Spirit that dwells in you.
 Consequently, brothers and sisters,
 we are not debtors to the flesh,
 to live according to the flesh.
 For if you live according to the flesh, you will die,
 but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body,
 you will live.

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ,

if only we suffer with him

so that we may also be glorified with him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.GOSPEL*Jn 14:15-16, 23b-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always.

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words;

yet the word you hear is not mine

but that of the Father who sent me.

"I have told you this while I am with you.

The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name,

will teach you everything

and remind you of all that I told you."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,

of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,

the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,

and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 5, 2022 Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

*Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood
from our archdiocese and families.*

*Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.*

*Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between Father and Son,
strengthen, inspire, and set men on fire with divine charity.
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.*

*Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests, comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With Saint Joseph, may they know your love and companionship
as they deepen their relationship with Jesus.*

*Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.*
