Thanksgiving Day Mass

Thursday, Nov. 26

9:00am

by 11:00am; when we begin to pack the food boxes. If you cannot deliver today please bring it in next Sunday so we can restock our pantry.

We are constantly humbled by the blessings and comments we receive from our clients, such as "God Bless You" and "Thank you, for you will never know how much this means to me and my family". Please help us make this truly a blessed and thankful Thanksgiving.

St. Vincent De Paul
THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

This weekend we will be packing up our Thanksgiving baskets for those in need in our area. If you haven't brought your food in, please deliver it to the social hall

Help us bring hope and God's love to our clients so we can receive the biggest smile of Thanks that God has put in these families' hearts. Thank you and God Bless!

St. Vincent De Paul Society

Reflect

First Reading

Ezekiel speaks of God as the "shepherd" who will tend to his flock with great care and discerning judgment. What is this teaching us about God's divine nature?

Second Reading

Paul reveals to the Corinthians the divine place of the resurrected Jesus Christ in God's final plans for salvation history. As Lord of all things, including death itself, Jesus will hand over everything to God at the end of time. Does this revelation bring you comfort or distress?

Gospel

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the final judgment that will accompany his Second Coming and the end of time. Jesus describes the final judgment in the stark and contrasting terms of eternal life or eternal punishment. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about Judgement Day?

A Prayer for Thanksgiving

O GOD OF ALL CREATION, GIVER OF ALL GOOD GIFTS, YOU BLESS OUR LIVES WITH YOUR GENEROUS LOVE, BY GIVING US ONCE MORE THE FRUIT OF THE FIELDS, OUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS, OUR FAITH, OUR WORK, AND OUR LIVES TOGETHER. WE THANK YOU FOR THESE GIFTS, AND ASK THAT YOU HELP US TO IMITATE YOUR GOODNESS, TO SHARE OUR BLESSINGS WITH THOSE WHO ARE IN NEED.

AMEN.

HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

LISTEN to the Archbishop: PROPOSITION ON ARCHDIOCESAN CENTRAL SERVICES Vision—

To provide strategic and structural support to parishes and other Catholic entities and to model the personal, spiritual and leadership characteristics of joyful missionary disciples: Action Step 3.3A—to partner with Sacred Heart Major Seminary to develop practical and ongoing formation opportunities for clergy, lay ecclesial ministers and lay faithful around key areas of missionary activity.

Action Step 3.3B—to build cultural competency among individuals, parishes and archdiocesan leadership to acknowledge and break down barriers that divide us—including race, ethnicity, sex and socioeconomic status. Action Step 3.3C—to actively support the re-envisioning of the mission, funding and governance of Catholic schools.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL, pg 58-59

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to the Archdiocese of Detroit's leadership, as they work develop "ongoing formation opportunities" in missionary activity for clergy and all Catholics. Lead us all to build "cultural competency," breaking down barriers, that we may all be one as You and the Father are one. And inspire a re-envisioning of Catholic schools in mission, funding, and governance. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love so we will become an Archdiocese of Joyful Missionary Disciples. Amen!

ACT: What is this letter saying to you? Pray the above prayer in intercession for the leadership of the AOD as they implement new models of structure and operation among individuals, parishes and schools. Then ask the Holy Spirit to guide you into discerning what your gifts might be (we all received them at our Baptism) and how they might be used by God as we grow into these Joyful Missionary Disciples ourselves.

Saint OF THE WEEK

NOVEMBER 26 | SAINT JOHN BERCHMANS

November 26 is the feast day of St. John Berchmans. This young saint of the Society of Jesus was born in Flanders, the oldest of five children. He grew up in an atmosphere of political turmoil caused by a religious war between the Catholic and Protestant sections of the Netherlands. He studied at the Gymnasium at Diest and worked as a servant in the household of Canon John Froymont at Malines in order to continue his studies.

In 1615, the Jesuits opened a college at Malines, and St. John Berchmans was one of the first to enter. He was an energetic student and was a leader among the students. In 1616, he entered the Jesuit novitiate at Malines and came under the influence of Father Antoine Sucquet. The young Berchmans developed a strong and deep spirituality based on the loving practice of fidelity. St. Aloysius of Gonzaga was his spiritual model, and he was influenced as well by the example of the Jesuit English martyrs.

It was his realistic appreciation for the value of ordinary things, a characteristic of the Flemish mystical tradition, which constituted his holiness. He was affable, kind, and endowed with an outgoing personality that endeared him to everyone. In 1618, he was sent to Rome to study philosophy and was an exceptional student. He requested after ordination to become a chaplain in the army, hoping to be martyred on the battlefield.

In the summer of 1619, the intense heat of Rome started to affect his health and he began progressively to get weaker. The doctors could not determine what was wrong, and for two years he was continually sick, requiring medical care, and as the summer of 1621 came, it was clear that he would not last long. He died peacefully on August 13, 1621, and numerous miracles were attributed to him at the time of his funeral.

He was beatified by Pope Pius IX in 1865 and canonized by Pope Leo XIII in 1888. His body lies in the church of St. Ignatius in Rome, where Aloysius of Gonzaga is also buried. He is the patron saint of altar boys, altar servers, Oblate novices, and young people.

THE KNIGHT'S 5TH SUNDAY ROSARY

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 29TH
AT 2:00 P.M.

Join the Knights of Columbus today, Sunday, November 29th at 2:00 PM at Sacred Heart church for our tradition of the 5th Sunday Rosary.

Our Blessed Mother has asked again and again, throughout the centuries of the Church's history, for us to pray the rosary to gain her powerful intercession in times of turmoil. Today especially, during all the confusion and uncertainty of our times, we need Mary's guidance to discover the power and presence of Her Son, and our Lord. We also always pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Do not miss this chance to discover this gift of the rosary. Join us! All ages are invited!

SACRED HEART Intercessory Prayer Team

We invite YOU to join with the Intercessory Prayer Team at Sacred Heart which has been lifting up our parish to the love and mercy of Jesus for over two years. Those who enter into intercessory prayer ministry make a decision to pray specifically on behalf of our parish, our community and the world. The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession. Join us as we pray this week:

Lord, we pray In the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit:

- ~ For us and for those with whom we disagree in this time of division and unrest, we ask our Lord to intervene to lead us all to Your Truth, pouring out His grace so that we all treat each other with respect and mercy.
- ~ For protection of our Sacred Heart families from the Corona virus and for healing of all victims of the pandemic.
- ~ For protection and provision of our frontline health care workers and first-responders.
- ~ For those who serve our neighbors in need through the Saint Vincent de Paul ministry, for those they serve, and for generous hearts to contribute to the Thanksgiving collection.
- ~ For clear discernment of their God-given Charisms in the Tenderhearts women participating in the Called and Gifted Workshop.
- ~ For Fr. Cavellier and all priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit, that they find renewed joy in serving more closely with their brother priests to Unleash the Gospel in SE Michigan.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit. Amen.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

It is that time of the year to have an opportunity to share our great blessings with people less fortunate. Our parish Giving Tree will be set up in the Gathering Area on Saturday, November 28th and will be filled with colored "ornaments". Parishioners are invited to take one of the ornaments and donate to The Pontiac Community Outreach, Haven, or Jail Outreach. Please remember that the ornament serves as the gift tag.

Due to COVID we have been asked to simply donate gift cards in place of actual gifts. You can purchase the gift cards at Meijers, Walmart or even online. All gift cards, along with the ornament attached to the gift card, must be returned by Sunday, December 13th. Please mark your calendars! This deadline is very important as the groups we help have arranged pick-ups and have their own distribution schedules, which we have agreed to respect.

God's Christmas blessings to all,
Christian Service Commission

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

JOHN 19:27

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty. These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment. To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see. It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It's a more black and white world. But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that doesn't always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy doesn't like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to. Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom?

3 EASY STEPS

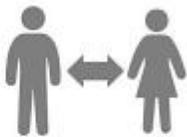

TO KEEPING YOURSELF & OTHERS HEALTHY!
 We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

WASH YOUR HANDS
 Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

DON'T TOUCH YOUR FACE
 Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE
 Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
