12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

CSA 2021: FUEL THE MISSION

Please consider making a gift to the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) 2021.

Our parish is doing fine with the donations but only 30% of households have participated so far contributing nearly 70% of the total.

This is fine thus far, but if the other 350 families would mail in their donations we would be well over our goal and have a nice extra amount 100% for the use of the parish for improvements. Please, if you have not sent in your card thus far, please, do so in the near future.

"Whatever you do, do from the heart" (Colossians 3:23)

Father's DAY!

Reflect

AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

FIRST READING:

Much of the book of Job addresses the mystery of suffering and God's role in human affairs. Today we hear part of God's response to Job's questioning with images of the sea and raging waters, representing God's power and omniscience. What helps remind you it is God who governs the universe with purpose and fidelity?

SECOND READING:

Paul encouraged the Corinthians to have the conviction of faith that since Christ died for all, believers should now live for him. In doing so, we become a "new creation."

How have you seen this happen in your life as a person of faith?

GOSPEL:

Early in their following of Jesus, the disciples' witness of the miracle of Jesus calming the storm at sea led them to ask: "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

How would you explain to others who wonder about the divinity of Jesus?

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to the Church teaching about Charisms given to individual believers: 1) They are given to all the baptized since they are part of the gift of the Holy Spirit. 2) All charisms are to be received with "thanksgiving and consolation" . . . not ignored in false humility. 3) "Each person is required first to have a knowledge and discernment of his or her own charisms and those of others" . . . 4) Each believer has the "right and duty" to use his charisms in the Church and in the world for the good of others. . . [The parish] is a place where they can discern and be encouraged to exercise their charisms in the whole of their life. 5) The charisms "lavished" on the baptized call each individual to be "active and co-responsible" for the mission of the Church. There is no place for passivity in the Kingdom. (Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell—Continued next week)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Sister Parishes; Enliven the charisms you gave each of us at Baptism so we can see and use them. We thank you and praise you for sharing your power with us so that your Will may be accomplished through us in your Church. We are sorry if we have ignored or avoided your call in the past—in your mercy, forgive us for not recognizing our "right and duty." But now, send us the light of your presence so that we may discern and then exercise our charisms. Move us from a place of passivity to being "active and co-responsible" for accomplishing the mission of the Church. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love as we discern and use our charisms. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is the Church saying to me about charisms? Am I amazed (and maybe a little afraid) of the idea that I might have a special gift from my baptism that I have a "right and duty" to use in the Church for others? And that I am in some way "co-responsible" for the mission of the Church? I will honestly assess where I have been "passive" in my faith and ask the Holy Spirit to show me how to be more "active and co-responsible" for the mission of "Unleashing the Gospel!"

Saint OF THE WEEK

JUNE 21 | SAINT ALOYSIUS GONZAGA

June 21 is the feast day of St. Aloysius Gonzaga. The time and place where he grew up — 16th-century Italy — is not very different from 21st century America. It was a lax, morally careless, self-indulgent age. Aloysius saw the decadence around him and vowed not to be part of it. Like any teenage boy, he wanted to have a good time, and as a member of an aristocratic family he had plenty of opportunities for amusement. He enjoyed horse races, banquets and the elaborate parties held in palace gardens. But if Aloysius found himself at a social function that took a turn to the lascivious, he left.

Aloysius wanted to be a priest. When he was 12 or 13, he invented for himself a program he thought would prepare him for the religious life. He climbed out of bed in the middle of the night to put in extra hours kneeling on the cold stone floor of his room. Occasionally, he even beat himself with a leather dog leash. Aloysius was trying to become a saint by sheer willpower. It was not until he entered the Jesuit novitiate in Rome that he had a spiritual director — St. Robert Bellarmine — to guide him.

Bellarmino put a stop to Aloysius' boot camp approach to sanctity, commanding him to follow the Jesuit rule of regular hours of prayer and simple acts of self-control and self-denial. Aloysius thought the Jesuits were too lenient, but he obeyed. Such over-the-top zeal may have exasperated Bellarmine, but he believed that Aloysius' fervor was genuine and that with proper guidance the boy might be a saint.

Then, in January 1591, the plague struck Rome. With the city's hospitals overflowing with the sick and the dying, the Jesuits sent every priest and novice to work in the wards. This was a difficult assignment for the squeamish Aloysius. Once he started working with the sick, however, fear and disgust gave way to compassion. He went into the streets of Rome and carried the ill and the dying to the hospital on his back. There he washed them, found them a bed, or at least a pallet, and fed them. Such close contact with the sick was risky. Within a few weeks, Aloysius contracted the plague himself and died. He was 23 years old. He is the patron saint of AIDS care-givers, AIDS patients, Catholic youth, Jesuit students, sore eyes, and teenagers.

LEARNING MORE ABOUT FAMILY OF PARISHES

To learn more about Family of Parishes go to our website at esacredheart.org and watch the new AOD Youtube video on family of parishes. Or you can go to Youtube directly and watch A New Way to Respond to Our Call | Pentecost 2021.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

As we celebrate Fathers Day, let us pray:

~ May Fr. Mark Brauer, our Moderator, and Fr. Craig Marion, the priest newly assigned to us for the summer, and Fr. John Vandennakker, the priest who will be coming in the fall, view their pastoral role to be "spiritual fathers who bring God's children to birth and nurture them to maturity in Christ."

~ For those searching for God, may the love of the Father who loves them so dearly, lead them home.

~ As the time approaches for the transition to the new Families of Parishes format, may the God of new beginnings guide us and guard against all fear and division.

~ May all fathers, natural, adoptive and spiritual, be led by the Holy Spirit to guide the children God has entrusted to them into the Truth of the Faith and the Church.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

THE KNIGHTS HONOR FATHERS THIS FATHERS' DAY

The Knights of Columbus, of Council #8659 would like to show our gratitude to all the fathers of our parish this Father's Day by gifting them after Masses with a special St. Joseph prayer card.

Please know of our support to all fathers. It was the vision of Blessed

Fr. McGivney, when he created the Knights of Columbus, that it would be a source of material and spiritual support to families, but especially to fathers.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph and Blessed Fr. McGivney, may God bless you in your sacred vocation!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping? After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be?

We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness. Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way, that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this? True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into uncharted waters without hesitation. Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"? ©LPI

BAPTISM IN THE HOLY SPIRIT & FIRE

As we celebrate the Nativity of John the Baptist this week, we remember his words: "He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Mt 3:11). Jesus came to baptize us in the Holy Spirit, and the power and grace that comes from baptism in the Holy Spirit changes lives. Explore the meaning of this sacrament in this episode of The Wild Goose!

TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE 1 - ST. THOMAS MORE

St. John the Baptist was the "forerunner" who preached a baptism of repentance. His nativity reminds us that it is by confessing our sins that we welcome God's mercy, allowing us to begin anew. In this 2-part series, Fr. Daniel Moloney and Taylor Kemp discuss how to make a good

WALK THE WALK: FOLLOWING CHRIST AS HIS DISCIPLE
BY DR. TIM GRAY

Being a disciple of Jesus has always been synonymous with being a Christian. From the Scriptures and from his own experience, Dr. Tim Gray explains how Christian discipleship calls us to follow in the footsteps of Christ as engaged participants in God's plan. In doing so, we bear witness to the Lord in our families.

3 EASY STEPS

TO KEEPING YOURSELF & OTHERS HEALTHY!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

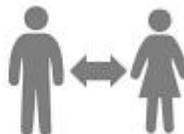

WASH YOUR HANDS

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

DON'T TOUCH YOUR FACE

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
