Fifth Sunday of Easter

For many non-church goers, Easter ended weeks ago. But the Easter season remains with us throughout the weeks until we celebrate the birthday of the church at Pentecost. We have an opportunity for Easter reflection and celebration for several Sundays, so if you feel Easter passed you by, fear not.

Jesus tells us in John's Gospel this Sunday that he is the vine and we are the branches. We gain nourishment from the vine, and by staying firm and strong, we bear much fruit. Whereas Lent was a time of preparation for the Easter mysteries, this season of Easter is a time to offer the spiritual fruits resulting from our prayer, fasting, and penance. Of course, the nourishment that sustained us in Lent continues into Easter and throughout the year.

Don't give up on Easter too soon. Stay connected to the vine and all the other branches that grow from it. They are fellow Christians trying to testify to the kingdom of God by their lives. Allow yourself to get caught up in the celebration of the risen Lord. Be nourished and grow into the wonderful creation God has made.

Attention Graduates!

We would like to feature our St. Veronica graduates (grade school, high school or college) in a future issue of our church paper. Please send in (drop off or put in the collection basket) your name and the school you are graduating from, along with a wallet size photo. Please put your name and address on the back of the photo so we may return it to you. You may also include what you have accomplished or any awards you may have received or if you are continuing on to a higher education or entering the military.

Gospel Mediation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Script

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

Sunday, May 2, 2021-Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reading I

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and he brought him to the apostles and reported to them how he had seen the Lord and that he had spoken to him and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem and he spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 22:26, 27, 28, 30, 31-32

I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

All: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people

I will fulfill my vows before those who fear the Lord. The lowly shall eat their fill; they who seek the Lord shall praise him. "May your hearts live forever!"

All: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord; all families of the nations shall bow down before him.

All: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

To him alone shall bow down all who sleep in the earth; before him shall bend, all who go down into the dust.

All: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

And my soul shall live, my descendants shall serve him. Let the coming generations be told of the Lord that they may proclaim to all people yet to be born the justice he has shown.

All: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

Reading II

A Reading From the First Letter of Saint John 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia

All: Alleluia, alleluia.

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me will bear much fruit.

All: Alleluia, alleluia.

† A Reading From the Holy Gospel According to John 15:4a,5b

Jesus said the disciples:

“I am the true vine and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain with me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, Born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

General Information and Matters for Consideration

Mother's Day Envelopes

The envelopes from the Mother's Day envelopes printed in this paper were received by Wednesday, April 28th, the due date for this paper.

Those envelopes received after the due date will be posted in the May 11th edition.

An Invitation to Join Us For Weekday Masses in the Convent Chapel Tuesday–Wednesday –Thursday

Join Us For Weekday Mass

I want to encourage all parishioners to join us for our weekday Masses in the Convent Chapel at 7:45 a.m. I realize this may not fit your schedule but hope as many parishioners as possible can join us on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays we have a Mass starting at 7:45 a.m. We always have opening and closing hymn, a short reflection and offer personal petitions.

Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help

On Tuesdays after Mass we pray the Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help, We display the beautiful picture of Our Mother of Perpetual Help and in the Novena ask her to grant, through her Son, Jesus, all of our petitions. Why not join us on Tuesday and relive the beautiful Novena held throughout the world on Tuesdays.

Holy Rosary Prayed Each Day

Before every weekday Mass and Communion Service we gather to pray the Holy Rosary. We usually begin around 7:45 a.m., but you can join us whenever you arrive. This communal prayer is an opportunity to ask Mary to be our guide and help us to follow her Son, Jesus.

An Invitation to Come Once a Month

I realize everyone is busy but could you maybe come to daily Mass at least once a month? There are days you are up early and simply watch the news. Why not get the “News of the Day” by celebrating with us and hear the weekday readings. These are the readings we do not hear on Sunday. We celebrate all the Feast Days of the Saints and most of these days have special readings.

Mass Intentions

Do you want to honor a loved one who has died or celebrate your birthday, anniversary or special day at Mass? We will offer that weekday Mass for your loved ones or your intention.

Easy Parking on Redmond

You can park on Redmond and take twenty steps and you are in the Chapel. The Convent Chapel is a quiet oasis in the midst of our busy world. The beautiful stained glass windows depict “Women of Faith” and the tabernacle is surrounded by a beautiful mosaic of blue, gold and green piece of art created by Mary Giovanni.

Bring a Friend

I know so many of you work, go to school and have other commitments but do try to join us for Mass in the Convent Chapel. Why not bring a friend or family member and come together. Then you can go to Andary’s for breakfast. Even if you are not able to join us know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. St. Veronica lead us and guide us.

My prayers, support and love,
Fr. Stan

Faithful Departed
Marina Jenny Bouhanna
October 11, 1923-April 27, 2021

Bouhanna, Marina (nee: Biondo), April 27, 2021. Age 97. Beloved wife of the late Samuel. Loving mother of Sam Bouhanna (Christine) and Anna Salamone (the late Frank). Proud grandmother of Gregory (Tina), Michelle (Nadir), Matthew (Holly), Maria and the late Dominic and great grandmother of Chase, Drew, Madison, Booker, Josie, Kyle and Blake. Predeceased by her siblings Frank, Tony, Sandy, Josephine and Rose. Marina loved life and will be remembered for her contagious smile and laughter as well as her kind and generous spirit. She was truly a good hearted person.

A Mass of Resurrection was held at St. Veronica on Friday, April 30th at 9:30 a.m. Please keep Marina and her family in your prayers. May she rest in peace.

Church Envelopes

You should receive your new set of envelopes for May and June sometime during this week. If you do not receive them, please give us a call at (586) 777-0331. We will then get in touch with our envelope company and they will send you a new set of envelopes in a few days.

Our envelope company deals with hundreds of churches and at times a set or two of envelopes get lost or misplaced in the mail even though great care is taken to insure accuracy.

So, if you did not receive your bimonthly packet of envelopes, please contact us.

Weekly Giving

I'm thankful to all our parishioners who donate weekly to the parish. Your weekly gifts help us to be current with all our salaries and bills. If you are away, be sure to make up your offering the next time you are in Church. Another way is to use the return envelopes that you have in your monthly packet. You can simply place your donation in the envelope and mail it to the rectory.

Maintenance Envelopes

Your monthly maintenance envelopes also helps us to be current with any repairs that have to be done around the parish. Your donations will help pay for this yearly maintenance.

Mass Offering

An ancient tradition of the church is to pray for the dead. Please consider offering Masses for your family members and friends. The anniversary of a loved ones death is an important date to celebrate Mass for them. Even if you are not able to attend Mass on that day, we will still mention their name at Mass as we offer our prayers for them. We have openings for many of our weekday Masses. Mass offerings may also be made over the phone Monday through Friday for 9:00a.m. to 2:00p.m. or you can simply fill out the Mass Intention form on page 10 of this paper.
