Brick Paver Plaza

We have had a few inquiries for the Paver Plaza. If we can gather orders for 15 bricks by September 1, 2021, we can do a fall installation.

Please consider honoring the memory of a loved one or marking a special anniversary by purchasing a 4x8 or 8x8 brick. See the form on page 8 of this church paper or on the table near the entrance of the church. For any questions, please call Tina Kirkman at (313) 886-3328 or (313) 399-5577. Thank you!

CSA Appeal 2021

We are currently in the midst of our 2021 Catholic Services Appeal. I am thankful to the parishioners who have already made their pledge or donation. We are asking every registered parishioner to pledge $250.00 once again this year. If you pledge $250.00 you can either choose $25.00 per month over ten months or $62.50 quarterly. We always encourage you to make your own decision in your pledge but do pledge something.

Our goal this year is $25,000.00. We hope to make this our 27th year in a row that we have not only made our goal but have gone over the goal. Any amount over the goal comes directly back to St. Veronica, Thirty seven years ago your donations help pay my room, board and education at St. John's Provencial Seminary in Plymouth, Michigan. I am thankful for your generosity not only to me but to the thirty other seminarians I lived with for four years who are now priests here in our Archdiocese. Your donations today will help educate a seminarian who will serve you as a priest here at St. Veronica in the future. Pledge cards are in the pews and the tables at the exits. Please contact me if you have any questions.

My prayers, support and love,
Fr. Stan

Gospel Meditation

Sunday, July 18, 2021

We all need a place to go. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, should all fade away from us so we can let go.

We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose.

We will know better who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been divinely touched and refreshed.

Saint Veronica

St. Veronica is believed to be the pious matron of Jerusalem who, moved with pity as Jesus carried the cross to Calvary, wiped His face with her handkerchief. The handkerchief or cloth was left with the clear and miraculous imprint of Jesus' face. In western tradition, Veronica was called to Rome by the Emperor Tiberius who was cured of his illness when she touched him with the cloth, which at her death she left to Pope Clement.

The story of Veronica found in the apocryphal Acts of Pilate identifies her as the women mentioned in the Gospel of Matthew whom Jesus healed of a blood issue. In France, she was known as the wife of Zaccheus, who helped to evangelize the south of France when her husband became a hermit.

The veil was seen in Rome in the 8th century and by request of Pope Boniface VIII paced in St. Peter's in 1297, In popular speech of the time, the veil was referred to as the Veronica, a name made up of the Latin word "vera" and the Greek word "icon", together meaning "true image".

Thus, it is said that the name which referred to the cloth was mistaken for the name of the person. Although St. Veronica's name is not mentioned in Scripture and she is not included in Roman Martyrology, the memory of her single act of charity is commemorated in the 6th Station of the Cross and she is given a feast day.

Veronica's veil, bearing the face of Christ and the Crown of Thorns is one of the most cherished relics of the Church.

Reading I

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring back to their meadow; there they shall multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so they need no longer fear and tremble and none shall be missing, says the Lord. Behold, the days are coming says the Lord, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The Lord our justice."

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose, restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there I nothing I shall want.
You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for years to come.

All: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading II

A Reading From the Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians 2:13-18

Brothers and Sisters,

In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting the enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia John 19:27

All: Alleluia, alleluia.

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them and they follow me.

All: Alleluia, alleluia.

† A Reading From the Holy Gospel According to Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile." People were coming and going in great numbers and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, Born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Mass Dispensation During COVID-19

Catholics in the Archdiocese of Detroit continue to be dispensed from the obligation to celebrate Masses on weekends and Holy Days of obligation if one or more of the following circumstances applies to you.

- Your are ill or your health condition would be significantly compromised if you were to contract a communicable illness. (that is if you have underlying conditions or are a high-risk category).
- You exhibit flu-like systems, you are pregnant or you have a signifant fear or anxiety of becoming ill at Mass.
- You have good reason to think you might be asymptomatic of a contagious illness, such as if you were in recent contact with someone who tested positive for a contagious illness such as COVID-19 or influenza.
- You are 65 years of age or older (per CDE's recommendation of high risk individual).
- You cannot attend Mass through no fault of your own (no Mass is offered, you are infirmed or while wanting to go, you are prevented for some reason you cannot control such as your ride did not show up, the church was at capacity, etc).

Once again, if one or more of the above-mentioned circumstances applies to your situation you are dispensed from the obligation to celebrate Masses on Weekends and Holy Days of Obligation. Those who find themselves in these circumstances must still observe the Lord's Day and we encouraged you to spend time in prayer on Sundays, meditating on the Lord's passion, death and resurrection, an excellent way to do this is through in a broadcast/livestreaming of the Sunday Mass. For a schedule of livestreamed Masses, please visit the website of the Archdiocese of Detroit at aod.org. Considering the grave obligation we have of being physically present with our brothers and sisters at Mass on weekends and Holy Days of Obligation for the reception of the Eucharist, each of us asked to make a good and sincere judgement as to whether the above-mentioned circumstances apply or not. Where doubt persists, consult any priest for clarity.
