Knights of Columbus Leo XIII Council 3042

We have entered the season of rejoicing and the coming of the Lord and the aspirations for a better New Year. It is also the time to reflect on the past for all the trials and tribulations that have occurred as well as the good that has been accomplished. The question each of us must answer is: Has this been a good year or not so good?

Regardless, we of the Knights have persevered and accomplished much with your help of which we are most grateful. We hope that many men of the parish will answer the call to join the good of the Church and community as the benefits are many and worthwhile for the entire family.

An Invitation to Join Us For Weekday Masses in the Convent Chapel Tuesday–Wednesday –Thursday

Join Us For Weekday Mass

I want to encourage all parishioners to join us for our weekday Masses in the Convent Chapel at 7:45 a.m. I realize this may not fit your schedule but hope as many parishioners as possible can join us on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays we have a Mass starting at 7:45 a.m. We always have opening and closing hymn, a short reflection and offer personal petitions.

Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help

On Tuesdays after Mass we pray the Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help, We display the beautiful picture of Our Mother of Perpetual Help and in the Novena ask her to grant, through her Son, Jesus, all of our petitions. Why not join us on Tuesday and relive the beautiful Novena held throughout the world on Tuesdays.

Holy Rosary Prayed Each Day

Before every weekday Mass and Communion Service we gather to pray the Holy Rosary. We usually begin around 7:25 a.m., but you can join us whenever you arrive. This communal prayer is an opportunity to ask Mary to be our guide and help us to follow her Son, Jesus.

An Invitation to Come Once a Month

I realize everyone is busy but you could you maybe come to daily Mass at least once a month? There are days we are up early and simply watch the news. Why not get the “News of the Day” by celebrating with us and hear the weekday readings. These are the readings we do not hear on Sunday. We celebrate all the Feast Days of the Saints and most of these days have special readings.

Mass Intentions

Do you want to honor a loved one who has died or celebrate your birthday, anniversary or special day at Mass? We will offer that weekday Mass for your loved ones or your intention.

Easy Parking on Redmond

You can park on Redmond and take twenty steps and you are in the Chapel. The Convent Chapel is a quiet oasis in the midst of our busy world. The beautiful stained glass windows depict “Women of Faith” and the tabernacle is surrounded by a beautiful mosaic of blue, gold and green piece of art created by Mary Giovanni.

Bring a Friend

I know so many of you work, go to school and have other commitments but do try to join us for Mass in the Convent Chapel. Why not bring a friend or family member and come together. Then you can go to Andary’s for breakfast. Even if you are not able to join us know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. St. Veronica lead us and guide us.

My prayers, support and love,
Fr. Stan

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Reading From the Book of Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it for he was standing higher up than any of the people as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, "Amen, amen!"

Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the Lord, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God. Interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah that is, his Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: "Today is holy to the Lord your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law.

He said further, "Go and eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our Lord. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the Lord must be your strength.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 19:8,9,10,15

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

All: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

All: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the command of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eye.

All: Your words, Lord are Spirit and life.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the Lord are true, all of them just.

All: Your words, Lord, are Sprit and life.

Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before you. O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

All: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Reading II

A Reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 12-12-30

Brothers and Sisters,

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into, one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body." Or if an ear should say, "Because I am an eye I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were any eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with great honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this. But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share the joy.

Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles, second, prophets, third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then the gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work the mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia Luke 4:18

Alleluia, alleluia

The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, and to proclaim liberty to captives.

All: Alleluia, alleluia

† A Reading From the Holy Gospel According to Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that must have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write down in an order sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returns to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Rolling up the scroll, he handed back to the attendant and sat down, and all the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is filled with your hearing."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, Born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Regarding Your Financial Statement

We are happy to provide you with a financial statement for your donations to St. Veronica Parish. We are thankful for your generosity to provide for the needs of our parish. Every donation large or small is appreciated.

How Your Donations Are Posted

All donations are posted on the same day they are received. So on your statement if you turned in three different envelopes for three different Sundays, they will appear as three separate donations but on the same date. For example: If you turned in an envelope for the Feast of All Saints (November 1st) on December 10th, it will read All Saints Day donation but will have the date posted as December 10th.

We Try to Be Accurate

We are humans as we do make mistakes. If you find a mistake on your statement, please let us know by calling (586) 777-0331. We will be happy to correct the mistake and issue a new statement. We keep all envelopes for two years so we can double check if necessary.

CSA and CLT Donations

All Catholic Services Appeal and All Changing Lives Together donations are sent directly to the Archdiocese of Detroit Finance Office. We do accept your initial gift to CSA but then turn it in to the CSA Office of the Archdiocese of Detroit. The CSA and CLT Offices will send out year end statements if your donation is $150.00 or more. If you donated less than $150.00 you can call the CSA and CLT Office at (313) 237-5834. They will be glad to mail a statement to you.

Kindness

Kindness is treating others as we wish to be treated ourselves. Kindness adds sweetness to everything. It is a nobility in each one of us. It is not dependent on our character, therefore anyone can and should be kind. It is constantly winning strayed friends, and it opens hearts that seem obstinately closed. Probably the majority of conversations have begun in the reception of acts of kindness. It very safe to say that kindness has converted more sinners than zeal, eloquence, or learning, and these haven't converted anyone unless they were kind, also. Kindness is encouraging in their efforts to do good. One kind deed leads to another. Kindness is the best gift we humans can give to one another. Repeating acts of kindness tends to set into a well formed habit.
