Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Reading from the First Book of Kings 19:16b, 19-21

The Lord said to Elijah: "You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, as prophet to succeed you." Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with 12 yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and mother good bye. and I will follow you," Elijah answered, "Go back! Have I done anything to you?" Elisha left him and, taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 16:2,5,7-8.9-10-11

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

All: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Keep me. O God, for in you I take refuge; I say to the Lord, "My Lord are you, O Lord, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot."

All: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

I bless the Lord who counsels me; even in the night my heart exhorts me. I set the Lord ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

All: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

All: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever.

All: You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Reading II

A Reading from the Letter to Saint Paul to the Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and Sisters,

For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. For we are called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is filled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another. I say, then, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia Samuel 3-9; John 6:68c

All: Alleluia, alleluia

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life.

All: Alleluia, alleluia.

† A Reading the Holy Gospel of According to Luke 9:51-62

When the days of Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered Samaritan village to prepare him for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down the fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village. As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks what is left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Services Appeal 2022

A few weeks ago St. Veronica joined all the parishes in the Archdiocese of Detroit in our annual Catholic Services Appeal. It is our opportunity to help support the over 100 Ministries of the Archdiocese.

Over 37 years ago your generosity helped pay for my room, board, and education at St. John's Provincial Seminary in Plymouth. Your donation today helps provide the same support for our 22 Seminarians studying for the Archdiocese at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit. One of them may be your Pastor here at St. Veronica when I retire.

Once again, we are asking for a donation of $225.00 from all parishioners. Many have made this an annual commitment and I hope others will take this challenge.

Of course if you are not able to donate $225.00 any donation will be appreciated. Others have donated more and if you are able to donate more than $225.00, please do so.

All checks should be made out to Archdiocese of Detroit-CSA.

Other ways to give...

- 1) On Line Donating from your phone, computer or tablet at www.givecsa.org.
- 2) To donate by phone call the Archdiocese Processing Center at 1-888-331-8695.

God Bless You!
Fr. Stan
