St. Veronica - Feast Day, July 12th

St. Veronica (1stc.) is the holy woman of Jerusalem who accompanied Jesus on the Way to the Cross. Out of her sorrow and compassion she offered Jesus her veil to wipe the blood from his face as He carried the cross on the Way to His crucifixion. For her simple yet gracious act, Jesus did leave an image of his face on the cloth. According to tradition, Veronica afterwards went to Rome and brought the cloth with her.

This piece of cloth, known as Veronica's Veil, has been venerated as a holy and miraculous image of Jesus Christ ever since has been kept since ancient times in St. Peter's Basilica. On the Via Dolorosa (Way of the Cross) in Jerusalem that was built on the site of St. Veronica's home and location where the miracle took place.

The United States Flag

As we look at the flag of our country, let us always remember its true meaning. For a flag without meaning is only a piece of cloth.

The red of our flag stands for valor and bravery like that of those who fought to protect our freedoms.

White signifies purity and innocence as that of our Founding Fathers; intent to secure the rights for all.

Blue signifies vigilance, perseverance and justice, as well are needed in any government to secure the rights of all.

And our stars and stripes point to the stars of the heavens and rays of the sun, let us never forget that our country must depend upon God's Blessings and protections.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy 30: 10-14

Moses said to the people:

“If only you would heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the Lord, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. For this command that I enjoin on you today is it not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say. “Who will go up in the sky to get it for us, and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?” Nor is it across the sea, that you should say. Who will cross the sea to get it for us, and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?” No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts’ you have only to carry it out.”

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 69: 14, 17, 30-31, 33-34-36-17

All: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Turn to the Lord in your need and you will live.

I pray to you O, Lord, for the time of your favor, O, God! In your great kindness with your constant help. Answer me, O. Lord, for bounteous is your kindness: in your great mercy turn toward me.

All: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I am afflicted and in pain; let your saving help, O, God, protect me. I will praise the name of God in song, and I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

All: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

“See, you lowly ones and be glad; you who seek God, may your hearts revive! For the Lord hears the poor and his own who are in bonds he spurns it.

All: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Juda. The descendants of his servants shall inhabit it, and those who love his name shall inherit it.

All: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Reading II

A Reading from the Letter to Saint Paul to the Galatians 1: 1-15

Christ Jesus is the image to the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead. Then in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was placed to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him. Making peace by the blood of the cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia John 6:63c,68c

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life. You have the words of everlasting life.

All: Alleluia, alleluia

† A Reading the Holy Gospel of According to Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him. "What is written in the law? How do you read it? He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going that road, but on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan, a traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim. Poured oil and wine over his wounds covered his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal. Took him to an inn and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, "Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you. I shall repay you on my way back." Which of these three, in your opinion was neighbor to the robbers' victim." He answered "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him. "Go and do likewise."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Catholic Services Appeal 2022

A few weeks ago St. Veronica joined all the parishes in the Archdiocese of Detroit in our annual Catholic Services Appeal. It is our opportunity to help support the over 100 Ministries of the Archdiocese.

Over 37 years ago your generosity helped pay for my room, board, and education at St. John's Provincial Seminary in Plymouth. Your donation today helps provide the same support for our 22 Seminarians studying for the Archdiocese at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit. One of them may be your Pastor here at St. Veronica when I retire.

Once again, we are asking for a donation of $225.00 from all parishioners. Many have made this an annual commitment and I hope others will take this challenge.

Of course if you are not able to donate $225.00 any donation will be appreciated. Others have donated more and if you are able to donate more than $225.00, please do so.

All checks should be made out to Archdiocese of Detroit-CSA.

Other ways to give...

- 1) On Line Donating from your phone, computer or tablet at www.givecsa.org.
- 2) To donate by phone call the Archdiocese Processing Center at 1-888-331-8695.

God Bless You!
