"Be Willing"

After providing for their families, and loved ones, parishioners, alumni, and friends may want to put St. Veronica in their last Will and Testament, thus helping to assure the long-term future of this parish.

Bequests are free of estate tax, and can substantially reduce the amount of your assets claimed by the government. You can give the needed support for St. Veronica by simply including these words in your will: I devise and bequeath to St. Veronica Roman Catholic Church, Eastpointe, MI (insert amount, item or property given here) to be used to support the ministry of St Veronica Parish. A bequest can be a specific piece of property or a percentage of an estate. Think about naming St Veronica as a contingency beneficiary in the event of someone's name in your will is no longer living.

It is always recommended that a lawyer help with any changes or if you are amending your Last Will and Testament.

Fr. Stan

Why Confession?

"Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any they are retained" (John 20:21-23).

After His Resurrection Jesus gave a phenomenal power to the Apostles. He granted the ability to actually take away people's sins. Then as now, early Christians confessed their sins to the Apostles and to their successors, the priests.

The word itself comes from two Latin words: 'con' and 'fateri', or 'thoroughly' and 'acknowledge'. They were used to make the word 'confessio' or 'confession'. Whatever the words make up, it, remains one of the Christ's seven Sacraments, the grace of which saves our souls.

John McNichol

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)."

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it (Hebrews).

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled...If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)."

Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before.

Faith Formation Registration

The Faith Formation registration for St. Veronica and St. Basil Parishes are now open. To those who have participated in our programs in the past you will be receiving a registration packet in the mail by the fourth week in August. To those who are new, we welcome you and invite you to pick up a registration form at the back of the church at either St. Veronica or St. Basil. To those parishioners with children, we hope you will take advantage of the rich opportunities that our Faith Formation offers for your child to encounter Jesus, to grow in their faith and to live a life in the power of the Holy Spirit.

When and Where: All classes are held at St. Basil the Great in the school building. Classes will be held on Tuesdays, 5:30-6:45pm, beginning September 20th for all levels (children in Pre-K through Grade 8).

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd: We are happy to offer this wonderful program for our young children. Level I is for 4 year olds (we accept mature 3 year olds who are potty trained) through 1st graders. Level II is geared toward children in grades 3 and 4. Children love this hands-on approach, and the lessons come alive for them as they lead the child to fall in love with Jesus.

Open House: An OPEN HOUSE will be held in the Level I and Level II Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Rooms at St. Basil the Great Church on Sunday, September 11th, 9:00am-1:00pm. All are welcome, especially if you are unfamiliar with the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Catechists will be available to answer your questions and to show you around.

Good Shepherd Catechesis Updates: As you know, Mary Fortunate retired this year. While we may be blessed with her presence from time to time, she will not be here every week as many of us have been used to. To invest in the ministry that she so successfully put in place, we have hired an aide, Amanda Ross, who will dedicate most of her time ministering in Atrium I and Atrium II. Amanda is a huge blessings to the parishioners of St. Veronica and St. Basil, and I encourage you to give her a warm welcome when you see her.

For more information on Sacramental preparation for First Communion and Confirmation and Middle School Catechesis please see the Registration Form.

Important Faith Formation Calendar Reminders:

- August 15: Registration begins.
- September 11: Open House for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
- September 12: Registration deadline.
- September 18: Catechetical Sunday: all Catechists will be blessed at the week-end Masses.
- September 20: Orientation for Pre-K-Grade 5 students and parents.
- October 12: Orientation for Confirmation in the School.

God bless you,

Mrs. Carolyn Mikula , DRE

Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 66:18-21

Thus says the Lord:

I know their works and their thoughts, and I come to gather nations of every language; they shall come and see my glory. I will set a sign among them; from them I will send fugitives to the nations: to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Mosoch, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have never heard of my fame, or seen my glory; and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations. They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all nations as an offering to the Lord, on horses and in chariots, in carts, upon mules and dromedaries, to Jerusalem, my holy mountain says the Lord, just as the Israelites bring their offering to the house of the Lord in clean vessels. Some of these I will take as priests and Levites, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 117:1,2

Go out to all the world and tell the good news.

All: Go out to all the world and tell the good news.

Praise the Lord, all you nations: glorify him, all you peoples!

All: Go out to all the world and tell the good news.

For steadfast is his kindness toward us, and the fidelity of the Lord endures forever.

All: Go out to all the world and tell the good news.

Reading II

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13

Brothers and Sisters,

You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges." Endure your trials as "discipline." God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline? At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it.

So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is the lame may not be disjointed but healed.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia John 14:6All: Alleluia, alleluia

I am the way, the truth and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me.

All: Alleluia, alleluia† A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 13: 22-30

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them. "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from.' And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.' Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.' Depart from me, all you evildoers!" And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and yourselves cast out. And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Food Drive

This Weekend

Saturday, August 20th and Sunday, August 21st

Our Monthly Food Drive for the Needy will be taken up this weekend Saturday, August 20th and Sunday, August 21st. Please look over the list of most needed items and bring your donations to the rectory during the week. Your donations will allow our Christian Service volunteers to continue the work of Christian Charity. The needs of the poor and hungry remain and we hope that the generosity we have seen in the past will continue today.

Items Most Needed:

Pasta	Pasta Sauce	Peanut Butter
Jelly/Jam	Crackers	Cookies
Juice/Juice Boxes	Jell-O	Cereal
Chicken Soup	Tomato Soup	Vegetable Soup
Canned Meat	Canned Fruit	Canned Vegetables
Mac & Cheese	Pork & Beans	Boxed Mashed Potatoes
Paper Products	Grocery Gift Cards

We Need 80 of each of the above!

Grocery Gift Card

The Sr. Marcine Food Pantry welcomes donations in the blue Food Pantry envelopes in your monthly envelope packet. You can also donate Grocery Gift Cards from Kroger, Walmart, Meijer's, or Aldi's. As always, this is a partial list. Please feel free to donate whatever you can. We are always appreciative for your continued care and kindness for the needy in our community.

Office of Priestly Vocations

Invites the Faithful to Mark Priesthood Sunday, September 25th

In honor of Priesthood Sunday on September 25th, the Office of Priestly Vocations is inviting parishioners to offer a spiritual bouquet for their pastors and associate pastors. To learn more and sign up detroitpriestlyvocations.com/priesthood-sunday Part of that bouquet includes an option to share a story about how this priest's ministry has impacted your life. We plan to collect and share these stories in a Detroit Catholic article near Priesthood Sunday.

Simply Inspirational

We must pray without tiring for the salvation of mankind.

Does not depend on material success nor on science that clouds the intellect.

Neither does it depend on arms and human industries.

But on Jesus alone.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

Prayer to Saint Veronica

O my Jesus, Saint Veronica served you on the way to Calvary by wiping Your beloved face with a towel on which Your sacred image then appeared. She protected this treasure, and whenever people touched it, they were miraculously healed.

I ask her to pray for the growth of my ability to see Your sacred image in others, to recognize their hurts, to stop and join them on their difficult journeys, and to feel the same compassion for them as she did for You.

Show me how to wipe their faces, serve their needs, and heal their wounds, reminding me that as I do this for them, I also do this for You. Saint Veronica, pray for me. Amen.

Welcome!

To those who are part of our parish family, we are delighted to have you with us again! For those seeking for someone or something we hope that Jesus and His peace are found here and become meaningful to you. We hope you feel at home.

Every person who enters a Church has faith. But maybe you have not been able to practice your faith regularly these past few years. Perhaps disagreement to some changes have not been to your liking. If in any way we can talk about them with you, this may help you and assist you. In any case, we want you to feel free to come visit myself or any pastoral staff and talk over some of the happenings of the past and see that there is really a bright future for all who have faith. We thank God for our faith and love. We hope you will be back with us again.

Fr. Stan

Faithful Departed
In Memory of Virginia Liposky

Virginia was born to Joe and Sophie Rosen during the Great Depression. In school she excelled at shorthand and typing. On a manual typewriter she could type 104 words per minute with no mistakes. She never understood why others thought that was impressive.

She was proud to work at the F.B.I. No less than six carbons had to be typed on at the same time, without mistakes. Her love of her life, Harry proposed on their first date and was turned down despite his Navy uniform. But eventually he won her over. They were married for 69 years!

They had four children, Randy, Larry, Charlene, and Carol. Seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Family was everything to her. She was so proud of her children and grandchildren. She worked for weeks to be sure everything was just right for them.

Her children knew they would attend college. "Think of it as an extension of high school." She had great peace that all her children would be successful.

In her late 60's she enrolled in a class to learn to read and write in Polish. A testament of her ability to accomplish something of value and self-improvement.

She worked, raise children, traveled, danced and prayed. She and her husband, Harry were proud to be parishioners of St. Veronica, It was here that they prayed in church and now are joined in the heavenly kingdom.

A Funeral Service was held at A.H. Peters Funeral Home on Saturday, August 13th at 10:00a.m. Burial was at Resurrection Cemetery. Virginia was 95 years old. Please keep Virginia and her family in your prayers. May she rest in peace.
