Knights of Columbus Leo XIII Council 3042

We have entered the season of the year where everything seems to slow down. Winter is just around the corner, people are putting the rest of the summer paraphernalia and looking to Thanksgiving and Christmas which brings families and friends together to remember the past and enjoy the present. As Knights we know that many do not see things in this light and are still struggling to make ends meet. Many are looking for a helping hand to get by from the aid of others. We will continue to do what we can, but we need your help to accomplish the goals we have set out to achieve. That is why we ask the men of the parish to join and give some of your time to help our causes and charity events. Please reflect on around us and determine how you can be apart of aiding those in need.

You can talk to anyone of our Knights, pick up and application at the church entrances or join on line at. www.kofoc.org/join.

Have Faith

Faith isn't believing in things when reason tells you otherwise. Rather, faith is believing in something based on reliable authority, even when you don't know or can't verify everything about it. We can have faith in God, the truth of His Church, and the life of His Son because of historical and logical evidence, as well as the real experiences had by the Saints and Apostles.

John McNichol

Thank You Ushers!

I would like to thank you for the awesome job you do each week and for taking your time to serve God and our beloved St. Veronica. Each and every week you are there to open a door with a smile, and open a door for someone to be saved, you open a door to someone that may be down and out, to be able to become lifted up by the Gospel, you open a door for the weary so that they may find rest. So when we open a door for someone, we open many doors for many different reasons and do it with a warm smile. God bless You!

All Souls Day Envelopes

The envelopes from the All Souls Day envelopes printed of this paper were received by Wednesday, November 16th the due-date for this church paper.

Those envelopes received after the due date will be posted in the next edition of this paper.

Weekly Giving

I'm thankful to all our parishioners who donate weekly to the parish. Your weekly gifts help us to be current with all our salaries and bills. If you are away, be sure to make up your offering the next time you are in Church.

Another way is to use the return envelopes that you have in your monthly packet. You can simply place your donation in the envelope and mail it to the rectory.

Mass Offering

An ancient tradition of the church is to pray for the dead. Please consider offering Masses for your family members and friends. The anniversary of a loved ones death is an important date to celebrate Mass for them.

Even if you are not able to attend Mass on that day, we will still mention their name at Mass as we offer our prayers for them. We have openings for many of our weekday Masses.

Mass offerings may also be made over the phone Monday through Friday from 9:00a.m. to 12:00 Noon. 12:30p.m to 2:00p.m.

Baptism

If you have a baby, grandchild, or relative who needs to be baptized, please give us a call. We would be glad to help your child receive the sacraments of the Church. If they are older, Carolyn Mikula, will be happy to talk to you about our Faith Formation Program and help instruct the parents as well.

Baptisms are held on the fourth Sunday of each Month at 12:00 Noon following the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

If your relatives are from out of town other arrangements can be made by giving a call to the rectory at (586) 777-0331.

Welcome!

To those who are part of our parish family, we are delighted to have you with us again! For those seeking for someone or something we hope that Jesus and His peace are found here and become meaningful to you. We hope you feel at home. Every person who enters a Church during these beautiful feast days has faith. But maybe you have not been able to practice your faith regularly these past few years.

Perhaps disagreement to some changes have not been to your liking. In any way we can talk about them with you, this may help you and assist you. In any case, we want you to feel free to come visit myself or any pastoral staff and talk over some of the happenings of the past and see that there is really a bright future for all who have faith. We thank God for our faith and love. We hope you will be back with us again.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

A Reading from the Second Book of Samuel 5:1-3

In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said: "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and bought them back. And the Lord said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'" When the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the Lord, and they anointed him king of Israel.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 122: 1-2. 3-4, 4-5

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

All: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced because they said to me. "We will go up to the house of the Lord." And now we have set foot within the gates, O Jerusalem.

All: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity. To the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.

All: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

According to the decree for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the Lord. In it are set up judgement seats, seats for the house of David.

All: Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Colossians 1: 12-20

Brothers and Sisters,

Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in who, we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the first born for all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia Mark: 11:9,10All: Alleluia, alleluia,

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

All: Alleluia, alleluia† A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to Luke 23:35-43

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He has saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other however, rebuking, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation" And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Profession of Faith–Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (born) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Holy Days 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. (Church)

Reconciliation

Saturdays from 3:30 to 4:00p.m.

Registration: Registrations should be made as soon as possible at the rectory office. Please notify the office when you move so we can keep our files updated.

Baptisms: Fourth Sunday of the month at 12:00 Noon. Arrangements should be made by previous visit to the rectory office.

Weddings: Arrangements must be made at the rectory office. You must be a registered parishioner for six months to obtain a wedding date. All wedding liturgies are scheduled so as not to conflict with regularly scheduled parish liturgies, reconciliation or other parish services. All Saturday weddings are scheduled at 1:00 pm.

Anointing of the Sick: Please call for this sacramental anointing before the situation becomes too critical. If you have a prearranged surgery and would like to be strengthened by this sacramental anointing please call the rectory office to arrange a time convenient to you (even possibly during one of the daily Masses or weekend Masses)

Funeral: Arrangements should be made at the Rectory Office.

Paper Deadline: All articles and Mass Intentions for the church paper are due on Monday by 12:00 noon at the rectory. Please have your articles typed or neatly printed.

Priesthood and Religious Life:

Please consider serving the Church as a priest, deacon, religious brother or sister. For more information contact the Vocations Office of the Archdiocese of Detroit at 313-237-5875 and talk to Fr. Craig Gera.
