Prayer to Saint Anne Great St. Anne,
whose name our parish bears,
protect us and pray for us,
that like you, we may serve God faithfully here on earth and be with Him in Heaven
for all eternity. Amen

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Fr. John's Message

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.
—DAY—

The Anima Christi and Powerful Prayer

We need your prayers! The Church, the country, and the world needs your everyday prayers! The conversion and salvation of souls depends on it. The two simple prayers I included below are very powerful. Maybe try praying the Anima Christi (Soul of Christ) prayer by saying "us" instead of "me". Thank you for your daily prayers!

God Bless You!
Fr. John

Anima Christi (Soul of Christ):

(This prayer is often said after receiving Holy Communion)

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me; That with your saints,
I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel:

O glorious prince St. Michael,
chief and commander of the heavenly hosts,
guardian of souls, vanquisher of rebel spirits,
servant in the house of the Divine King
and our admirable conductor,
you who shine with excellence
and superhuman virtue deliver us from all evil,
who turn to you with confidence and enable us by your gracious protection to serve God more and more faithfully every day. Amen.

Living Rosary Prayer Team

The start of a new year is a time to look forward to a new beginning with hope and joy. Unfortunately, many of us are struggling with financial concerns, health concerns, or even challenges within our relationship with loved ones. These are difficult times for far too many of us. But the one thing we all have in common is a loving God who delights in the power of our prayer.

This New Year, let's remember the silent, suffering souls who walk among us and never complain, yet desperately need our help.

Our intention is: "That our merciful God will come quickly to the aid of His children."

Thank you for continuing to pray one decade of the Rosary daily for our intentions. Your prayers are powerful and they are making a difference.

Faithful Departed

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

One for Every Room

One Sunday our priest announced he was passing out miniature crosses made of palm leaves. "Put this cross in the room where your family argues most," he advised. "When you look at it, the cross will remind you that God is watching."

As I was leaving church, the woman in front of me walked up to the priest, shook his hand, and said, "I'll take five."

Greek Stuffed Peppers

Ingredients:

- ½ pound orzo pasta, olive oil
- 1 yellow onion, chopped
- 2 large cloves garlic, chopped
- 1 ½ pounds ground lamb
- 4 ½ teaspoons dried oregano
- 1 tablespoon dried basil, salt and pepper to taste
- 1 (16 ounce) package frozen chopped spinach, thawed and drained
- 2 tomatoes, diced
- 1 (6 ounce) can tomato paste
- 8 ounces crumbled feta cheese
- 6 large green or red bell peppers - tops removed and seeded

Directions:

Bring a pot of lightly salted water to a boil over high heat. Cook the orzo in the boiling water uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender yet firm to the bite, about 8 minutes. Drain.

Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium high heat; cook and stir the onion and garlic in the hot oil until fragrant, about 1 minute. Crumble the ground lamb into the mixture; season with the oregano, basil, and salt and pepper. Continue cooking until the lamb is completely browned, 7 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir the orzo, spinach, tomatoes, tomato paste, and feta cheese into the lamb mixture until evenly incorporated.

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F (200 degrees C).

Evenly rub the outside of the bell peppers and the tops with 2 tablespoons olive oil. Season with salt and pepper. Arrange in a baking dish large enough to accommodate all of them standing upright. Fill the peppers with the lamb mixture and replace the tops.

Bake in the preheated oven until the peppers begin to brown, 30 to 40 minutes

SAID

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Traditional St. Michael Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam about the world, seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen
