13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.” - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

REFLECT

FIRST READING

(Wis 2:24)

We learn from the Jewish Wisdom writer that God did not create death; rather, death entered the world because of the envy of the devil. How does this insight shape your understanding of death?

SECOND READING

(2 Cor 8:13-14)

Paul encourages the wealthier believers in Corinth to share their surplus wealth with those in need in the church in Jerusalem. What do you find interesting in Paul's appeal?

GOSPEL READING

(Mk 5:41)

In these two separate miracle stories, Jesus heals Jairus' daughter and the hemorrhaging woman because of their faith in Jesus. How does your faith in Jesus bring about healing in your life?

A KINDLED FIRE

"I can worship outside among nature just as well as I can inside a church building." That claim is especially common during the summer, when church attendance tends to decline.

Certainly it's possible to worship and talk to God among his creation. In fact, George Washington Carver called nature "an unlimited broadcasting station, through which God speaks to us every hour, if we will only tune in." And Martin Luther said, "God writes the Gospel not in the Bible alone, but also on trees, and in the flowers and clouds and stars."

Yet corporate, or church, worship is still vital. Luther also noted: "At home, in my own house, there is no warmth or vigor in me, but in the church when the multitude is gathered together, a fire is kindled in my heart and it breaks its way through." When we're away from God's house, we miss blessings and opportunities included communion, fellowship and support. So this summer, spend time in nature but don't neglect "to meet together" (see Hebrews 10:25)!

HELP WANTED SEE ANY USHER

For any number of reasons such as vacations, health and the return of Ushers making the collections instead of the baskets being at the doors, each Mass could use an additional Usher or two. You can usher at the Mass you attend, you must be 18 years of age or older, and be dressed in proper attire. There is no pay, but the reward of being of service to the Parish is priceless. Thank you for considering.

The Usher Officers

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will take place after the 12 Noon Mass, Friday, July 2, lasting 45 minutes. There will be no reciting of the rosary afterwards.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

St. Louise Happenings

I have created and authored the E.A.G.L.E. method of religious education that focuses on the development of the student by successfully completing levels before moving to the next level. Specific skills and knowledge are required before moving up. Up until now, the focus has been on the Sacraments and that's great. But, how does one receive the graces when they don't necessarily understand what they are receiving. Think of it as buying your child their favorite book series for Christmas (in Japanese). What good is it to them?

The AoD has also accepted the E.A.G.L.E. program as an authorized catechetical tool in the Diocese and several other parishes across the country have also adopted it. E.A.G.L.E. is an acronym for each of the five levels. Encounter, Adore, Grow, Love, Evangelize to learn more, google search Eagle Program Archdiocese of Detroit.

Things have changed. Teaching Methods, learning styles, technology, etc. Catechists are expected to have knowledge in both pedagogy and delivery of the faith from their own experiences and not just do what the textbook instructs.

With the E.A.G.L.E. program, the director of religious education lays out a framework for each level. Then with the catechist team, selects lessons from many resources that may help deliver the message or create their own ideas to share the faith. Will this take time and energy? Absolutely! But do the souls of our young people not deserve the best? Ongoing catechist development and certification within 2 years is required. In addition, only catechists who have their advanced certification from 2008 or later may teach a Sacrament year prep year (2, 7 and 8). Remember, all of our school teachers are highly certified to teach their subjects, why should the most important subject be any different?

So, are you ready to make a real impact on the lives of our kids and families and be on the team to build disciples for Jesus Christ? Now is the time to Contact Greg Crachiolo, DRE to learn more.

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today’s Gospel and you’ll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn’t have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that’s what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We’re tired and we’re sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn’t matter. Whatever it is, it’s made us weak, and we feel like we’ve run out of options. We’ve looked for help and come up empty. We’ve consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We’re lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don’t even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That’s something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
