Thoughts from Monsignor McClory

Dear Parish Family:

Preaching series starts this weekend:

The Gift of the Mass

Starting this weekend, we will begin a four-week preaching series entitled “The Gift of the Mass.” During the homily, we will preach following this outline:

May 12: Overview and Priests’ Personal Witness
May 19: Introductory Rites and the Liturgy of the Word
May 26: The Eucharistic Prayer (Part I)
June 2: The Eucharistic Prayer (Part II) and Concluding Rites

Please invite a friend or family member who might have questions about the Mass. We pray this will be a time for all of us to enrich our love for the Mass – and share this Good News with others.

The Mass in the Early Church: Look familiar?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church has an excellent summary of the history and meaning of the Mass. The following passage will be part of our preaching this weekend. Take a moment to read through this passage. Our Mass today has all of the same key elements as two thousand years ago. Sometimes other Christians may question why we celebrate the Mass. The fact is that we are doing what the early church did – and it’s all rooted in the Bible. We have maintained the uninterrupted practice from the age of the apostles.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: The Liturgical Celebration of the Eucharist

The Mass of all ages

1345 As early as the second century we have the witness of St. Justin Martyr for the basic lines of the order of the Eucharistic celebration. They have stayed the same until our own day for all the great liturgical families. St. Justin wrote to the pagan emperor Antoninus Pius (138-161) around the year 155, explaining what Christians did:

"In L’Humble Presence, Maurice Zundel said that ‘silence is the only thing that reveals the depths of life.’ The great works of God are the fruit of silence."

“She listens, she consents, she gives herself, she loses herself in its depths. Every fiber of her being resounds with this appeal: ‘Let me hear your Voice’ (Song 2:14) Mary grants a hearing to the silent Word. Her flesh then can become the cradle of the Eternal Word...In her, each man sees himself called to the same destiny: he becomes a dwelling of God, of the silent Word. Because if it is true that God created human nature for no other reason than to receive from it the Mother that He needed to be born, then every man is called, through the silent reception of the Word, to become the Temple of the Word, the 'Basilica of silence' ~Robert Cardinal Sara, The Power of Silence

Today, on Mothers' Day, we thank all our mothers for choosing Life. We especially ask for the intercession of Gianna Beretta Molla for all mothers. Saint Gianna Beretta Molla, a surgeon/pediatrician, died in 1962 at the age of 39 after giving birth to her fourth child, Gianna Emanuela. Saint Gianna was advised to undergo an abortion because of a large ovarian cyst. Because she refused the abortion, Saint Gianna developed a very painful septic peritonitis and died on April 28, 1962.

Pope Saint John Paul II praised Saint Gianna as a happy spouse and mother who offered her life in sacrifice for the child in her womb. Saint Gianna was beatified in the Year of the Family, and proposed as a model for all mothers. In the book he co-authored, Primo Piano: Gianna ("Gianna: Up Close"), her husband, Pietro Molla quotes his wife as relating that "one cannot love without suffering or suffer without love." She further stated, "Look at the mothers who truly love their children, how many sacrifices they make! They are ready for everything, even to give their own life."

Mr. Molla has also written that many mothers turn to the intercession of Saint Gianna because she had to confront the same problems and is able to understand and help them. Many people credit Saint Gianna's intercession with cures, tranquility of their spirit, or peace in their families. St. Gianna is the patron of mothers, physicians and preborn children.
Thoughts from Msgr. McClory

On the day we call the day of the sun, all who dwell in the city or country gather in the same place.
The memoirs of the apostles and the writings of the prophets are read, as much as time permits.
When the reader has finished, he who presides over those gathered admonishes and challenges them to imitate these beautiful things.
Then we all rise together and offer prayers for ourselves . . . and for all others, wherever they may be, so that we may be found righteous by our life and actions, and faithful to the commandments, so as to obtain eternal salvation.
When the prayers are concluded we exchange the kiss.
Then someone brings bread and a cup of water and wine mixed together to him who presides over the brethren.
He takes them and offers praise and glory to the Father of the universe, through the name of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and for a considerable time he gives thanks (in Greek: eucharistian) that we have been judged worthy of these gifts.
When he has concluded the prayers and thanksgivings, all present give voice to an acclamation by saying: ‘Amen.’
When he who presides has given thanks and the people have responded, those whom we call deacons give to those present the “eucharisted” bread, wine and water and take them to those who are absent.

1346 The liturgy of the Eucharist unfolds according to a fundamental structure which has been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day. It displays two great parts that form a fundamental unity:
- the gathering, the liturgy of the Word, with readings, homily and general intercessions;
- the liturgy of the Eucharist, with the presentation of the bread and wine, the consecratory thanksgiving, and communion.

The liturgy of the Word and liturgy of the Eucharist together form "one single act of worship"; the Eucharistic table set for us is the table both of the Word of God and of the Body of the Lord.

1347 Is this not the same movement as the Paschal meal of the risen Jesus with his disciples? Walking with them he explained the Scriptures to them; sitting with them at table "he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them."

In Jesus,
Msgr. Bob McClory
Pastor-Rector

Christian Service

Summer is a few weeks away, the school year is ending, and we take time to reflect on all that was shared as a parish community since last fall.
The Ladies Guild gathers in June each year to share a potluck meal and view their historian’s video that captures the friendship, faith sharing and service to the community throughout the year. There are over 75 members of the Ladies Guild who share their gifts in providing receptions, writing cards of thanks, sending reminders to those who are ill that we as a parish are praying for them, and providing meals for the homeless at the overnight shelter. Thank you to all of the members of the Ladies Guild for your hard work and caring presence in the Shrine community.

There are members who have served many years in leadership roles for the Ladies Guild and new opportunities are opening for women who would like to assume responsibility for the positions that are open. Prayerfully consider joining the Ladies Guild as a new member or as a leader – All are welcome!

For your many years of service, as a parish family, we thank these dedicated Christian women: Debbie Roche, Marge Caram, Cathy Suda, Molly Daly, and Melissa Ksar who are “all in” for Jesus.

Blessings,
Paula Dixon

Ministers of Hospitality Need You!

The primary role of the Ministers of Hospitality (MOH, aka Ushers) is to serve as an usher and “friendly face” in the Church for each of the weekend Masses, Christmas Masses, Easter Triduum, Holy days and other special Masses/services. We are the first formal representatives of the parish encountered by worshippers as they enter the Basilica, welcoming people joyfully as they gather to celebrate the Mass.

MOH responsibilities include: Assisting the elderly and handicapped, assisting families with small children, taking up the Offertory collection, assisting in coordinating the distribution of Holy Communion, monitoring movement in the church, helping people locate the restrooms and other specific church facilities, distributing the Shrine Herald and providing frontline safety and security for parishioners. We are the “GO TO” team supporting the Priests, parishioners and other ministries in the celebration of the Mass!

Serving as a Shrine Basilica Minister of Hospitality is a rewarding parish activity! You meet wonderful people and you become an integral part of what keeps our Parish strong, vibrant and a Band of Joyful Missionary Disciples.

We welcome the opportunity to tell you more about our ministry and to have you join us! WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY MINISTRY! PLEASE JOIN US! Please contact Rick Lowery (MOH Chairperson) at 248-546-0934 or John Pruse at 248-582-0921, for any additional information or to join our team!

Want to better enter into the prayer of thanks and praise to God, the Mass? In his video-based study, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. Join the study and enter more deeply into this prayer of praise.

Fr. Kevin Roelant will help facilitate this Bible study by Ascension Press. The study will include DVD presentations by renowned biblical scholar Dr. Sri, a small presentation by Father Kevin, and time for questions and group discussion. This four week study will occur on Mondays May 13th, May 20th, June 3rd, and June 10th from 1:30-3pm in Seton Hall in the Conference Center. All are welcome! Please bring your Bible each week. We will be using the guidebook with some frequency and use it as a source. One can purchase the guidebook and register for the class at: https://study.ascensionpress.com/studies/38822/registrations/new. One can still join the class and come if one does not register or purchase the guidebook, however the guidebook will be helpful. If one registers and purchases the guidebook, one has online access to the videos each week. One then could watch the DVD presentations multiple times or watch them online if one missed a week. One can come all weeks or pop in whenever. It is always good to study and pray with the word of God! Please call (1) 800-376-0520 if you have difficulties purchasing the material.

SIGN OF CONTRADICTION | A FILM ON ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

June 6, 2019  DOORS OPEN AT 7:00 PM - Tickets are $7 online pre-sale and $10 at the door
Music begins at 7:00 PM, 8:00 PM movie and 9:00 PM Talk by Fr. Dave Pivonka w/Q&A
Tickets are available at RedfordTheatre.com

St. Francis is one of the most beloved saints in the world, but do we really know him? When the world saw him as a fool, he stood as a sign of contradiction. This new film presents St. Francis as a real person, not a characterization of an animal-loving saint from a distant time. Francis was a man who, like us, searched for purpose and meaning and was often times left empty. It wasn’t until he encountered Jesus Christ that his darkness and confusion were replaced with light and peace.

This special screening is sponsored by iC Ministries – dedicated to bringing Catholic movies to the big screen ... and more. Proceeds from this screening benefit Catholic Charities of Michigan.

Heed Your Mother’s Advice
Fr. Jason Brooks brings to light why Fatima is regarded by many as the most important spiritual event of the past 100 years and why Our Lady's message is still as relevant as ever.

ALLELUIA HE IS RISEN!

As we continue the Easter season, I just want to send out a special thank you to EVERYONE that helped make Holy Week, the Triduum and Easter Sunday so special. From the lectors, to servers, to ushers, to the musicians, to EMHCs—thank you. To the many hands that spent hours decorating the church, you are all amazing to work with. I can’t thank you enough. Thanks, also, for keeping the flowers alive by watering.

To our priests, deacons and Ellen Kehoe who all come in for extra practices with the servers to make the Triduum run smoothly, thank you. For people doing lights and camera and scouts for the vigil fire, thanks. Thanks also to the Spanish community for the living stations this year. To Dan Rajnicek and the amazing maintenance staff at Shrine, we couldn’t do this without you. This year the brass looks amazing due to the Little Way Helpers. The church looked awesome. A special thanks to those who assisted behind the scenes helping me in the sacristy to get ready for the set-ups and Masses.

Hopefully this covers all who helped. If not, know you are also appreciated.

Easter Blessings,
Kathie Dorsch

Grace-Filled Moments

Johnette S. Benkovic

Society has given women mixed messages about who we are and what we should think, be and do.

"What does God ask from a woman? The same thing He has asked from the beginning of time - to develop her God given feminine strengths through prayer, meditation and service." (back cover).

Johnette Benkovic bases the book on St. Edith Stein’s description of the feminine soul. There is a series of scripture, meditation, prayer and questions to ponder and journal. The soul of a woman must be...expansive, quiet, warm, clear, self-contained, empty of self and mistress of itself. The last section is on "Mary and the feminine ideal". Celebrate the person God created you to be.

Stewardship Thoughts

Fourth Sunday of Easter

A “shepherdinng” theme links today’s Scripture passages. In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas speak to the Jewish converts to Christ. A week later, they are persecuted for preaching again in Antioch — they turn to shepherd the Gentiles instead. In the Book of Revelation, the evangelist St. John wonderfully describes those who have persevered through great tribulation for the faith: For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water. In St. John’s Gospel, Jesus proclaims: My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. Sheep do indeed learn their shepherd’s voice and follow them. As the Good Shepherd, Jesus continues to knock on the door of our hearts, inviting us to a deeper relationship with Him. Are we prepared to follow Christ, to accept His challenge of discipleship, whatever the cost, as we strive for eternal life? Consider encountering our Lord through Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction.

Our Mission

Our Mission as Good Samaritans is to create and energize prayer focused on Acts 26:18

We invite you to join our prayer community in the call to be Good Samaritans, to pray for a few minutes each day with a special focus on interceding with God to free people and social structures that are deeply impacted by evil and to pray for people caught in darkness. Ask God through the Divine Mercy of Jesus to touch their hearts, convert them to Gospel values and heal their wounds.

Your 2019 CSA Commitment

Young Adult Ministry

Young adults throughout the Archdiocese are gathering this Easter season in small group Bible study, creating authentic friendships while growing closer to the Risen Jesus.

The six-week series, which began at the end of April, is an opportunity for shared encounters with God through prayerful reading and discussion of His Word with other young adults. A leader is facilitating each group, which are separate for men and women, and the Holy Spirit is expected to do great things!

Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support the Young Adult and Campus Ministry Office, which provides young adults with opportunities to grow in their faith through evangelization, catechesis, spiritual growth, liturgical formation, social events, and service.

Seventh Grade English students recently began their letter writing unit. The first letter they wrote was a letter of inquiry. Some students wrote to a celebrity or a company asking about a product. We’ve received amazing return mail in years past with this unit from Mitt Romney and Richard Branson. Can’t wait to see who we hear from this year! Next up, the students will write friendly letters to fellow Academy students.
